H. Lawrence, Joyce, Cary, Lawrence, Durrell, and A. S. Byatt focuses on color space and creativity in selected novels, stories, travel texts, essays, and letters. Stewart highlights a nexus of color space and creativity that takes on ontological dimensions in the writing of five writers who are linked by stylistic affinities and correspondingly calibrated sensibilities. They engage writing with painting, and their acts of attention converge in a zone where color space and creativity sustain the imaginative life world of their characters. This study should lead to ongoing reflections on the roles of color and space in modernist and postmodernist texts and direct attention to the subtle and pervasive interactions of literature with painting. Oil Painting For Dummies Anita Marie Giddings, Sherry Stone Clifton, 2011-02-09 Nobody ever said that oil painting was easy.
