Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development Polly Stupples,Katerina Teaiwa,2016-10-26

Visual artists craftspeople musicians and performers have been supported by the development community for at least twenty years yet there has been little grounded and critical research into the practices and politics of that support This new Routledge book remedies that omission and brings together varied perspectives from artists policy makers and researchers working in the Pacific Africa Latin America and Europe to explore the challenges and opportunities of supporting the arts in the development context The book offers a series of grounded analyses which cover strategies for the sustainability of arts enterprises innovative evaluation methods theoretical engagements with questions of art agency and social change artists entanglements with legal and structural frameworks processes of cultural mapping and the artist donor interface The creative economy is increasingly recognized as a driver of development and this book also investigates the contribution made by the arts to the processes of international development and considers how those processes can best be supported by development agencies Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development gives scholars of Development Studies Social and Cultural Geography Anthropology Cultural Policy Cultural Studies and Global Studies a contextually and thematically diverse range of insights into this emerging research field Handweaving Isabel Buschman,1991 Buschman annotates more than 550 books and periodical titles published on the techniques and history of handweaving from 1928 through October 1989 She includes works on how to weave basic weaving texts books on looms and equipment and patterns both for weaving and for woven articles handweaving history and historic fabrics from around the world works on Native American weaving ranging from the Chilkats of the Northwest coast of North America to the Pueblos and Navajos of our Southwest Mexico and Central America and on through the rich weaving culture of the Andes reference works containing specialized bibliographies and information on fibers dyes education and marketing and periodicals With author title and subject indexes The Cottage Life Tiffany Francis-Baker,2023-04-25 The Cottage Life reflects our collective desire to escape the chaos of modern existence to live with more purpose more compassion and more joy The Cottage Life is an essential guide to slow and simple living inspired by the magical world of cottagecore To follow the cottagecore aesthetic is to wear secondhand clothes that tell their own stories to bake fresh bread and cakes no matter how wonky the outcome to spend time in nature to observe and draw the plants to breathe fresh air and to connect with species beyond our own It is taking the time to notice the seasons change or to turn off your screen mindfully and pick up an old novel instead It is lighting a fire on the first cool night of autumn and sipping a fresh cup of tea by the fireplace or watching the first spring leaves unfurl after the long dark winter Celebrating the small joys in life from the first birdsong of the morning to the taste of ripe plums on a summer afternoon And above all else it is learning to slow down connect with the world around you and be a more compassionate conscientious citizen of the earth Each chapter explores different ways of embracing the cottagecore lifestyle such as interacting with nature eating seasonally and getting creative Inherently low impact and green cottagecore embraces reuse and recycling and celebrates an old fashioned no waste ethic Fortunately for most possession of a country cottage is not essential to embody the cottagecore spirit With guidance on nurturing your home and small touches for interior decoration The Cottage Life brings country living ideals to any space Cottagecore is much more than a fashion trend or social media bandwagon It is a peaceful protest against the darker elements of modern life The Cottage Life is a gentle embrace with the past encouraging you to truly enjoy the present and nurture a brighter future
