Arms and Armour in Britain Alan Borg, Great Britain. Department of the Environment, 1979 British and Foreign Arms & Armour Charles Henry Ashdown, 2022-06-03 In British and Foreign Arms Armour Charles Henry Ashdown presents a comprehensive exploration of the evolution craftsmanship and cultural significance of weaponry and armor from Britain and abroad Ashdown's literary style is meticulous and encyclopedic reflecting his deep scholarly engagement with the subject This work is situated within the broader context of historical arms studies combining rich illustrations with in depth analyses that reveal the technical advancements and historical narratives behind each piece from medieval blades to modern firearms The text serves not only as a catalogue of arms and armor but also as a narrative that interweaves the socio political dynamics that shaped their use and production throughout centuries Charles Henry Ashdown was an esteemed antiquarian and historian whose lifelong passion for weaponry and military artifacts fueled his research and writings His expertise is underscored by extensive fieldwork and a commitment to historical accuracy informing his understanding of both the aesthetic qualities and the functional designs of arms His background in archaeology and history provided him with a unique lens through which he viewed these objects insisting on their importance in understanding the past Ashdown's British and Foreign Arms Armour is recommended for scholars collectors and anyone fascinated by the intersection of art history and technology This meticulously researched tome not only enriches our understanding of martial heritage but also invites readers to appreciate the artistry and craftsmanship of arms and armor throughout history An Outline of Arms and Armour in England from the Early Middle Ages to the Civil War James Gow Mann, Sir James Gow Mann, Arthur Richard Dufty, 1969 An Outline of Arms and Armour in England James Mann, 1966 An Outline of Arms and Armour in England James Mann, 1969 British and Foreign Arms and Armour (Classic Reprint) Charles Henry Ashdown, 2016-10-04 Excerpt from British and Foreign Arms and Armour Charles Boutell by his translation of Lacombe did much to foster the study but it was from a French point of view and his epitome of English armour and arms though excellent in its way is only superficial and a digest Of his great works on Monumental Brasses In the latter he probably did more to further the study than any preceding author he was the first to rationally systematise the arrangement of armour in periods in consonance with the salient features it possessed thus breaking through the previous methods of classifying it by reigns which was Obviously absurd or by centuries which was equally ridiculous I have followed his method with but little variation in the pages of this book inasmuch as no better arrangement is extant It is a matter for great pride to myself that such standard works should have emanated from a former Hon Secretary of the St Albans and Herts Architectural and Archaeological Society and if the present volume should in any degree further the good work of my predecessor it will have achieved the height of my ambition Hewitt is delightful reading but his arrangement is unsystematic and involved to the advanced student however he is invaluable The later works of Demmin Clephan Gardner any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to
