Art And Craft Of Metalwork:

Arts & Crafts Metalwork, 2003 The Arts & Crafts Metalwork of Janet Payne Bowles Barry Shifman, W. Scott Braznell, Sharon S. Darling, 1993 the metalcraft and jewelry of this overlooked and idiosyncratic artist metalsmith resonates with an uncommon personal passion W Scott Braznell This luxuriously illustrated catalog the first survey of her life and work reproduces seventy objects by Janet Payne Bowles 1872 1948 an Arts and Crafts jeweler and metalsmith who worked in Boston New York and Indianapolis and enjoyed an international reputation during her lifetime "These Humbler Metals" Two Red Roses Foundation, David M. Cathers, Jonathan Clancy, Susan J. Montgomery, 2017-02-20 A glimpse into the past of one of North America's most revered art movements Explores the dichotomy between industrialism and aesthetics The Arts and Crafts movement in America was marked by a spirit of reform along with the belief that traditional craftsmanship could ennoble a society overcome by rampant industrialization Simplicity in style and honesty in construction had the power to transform a utilitarian object into a beautiful one enhancing the lives of both maker and user Arts and Crafts Metalwork showcases the work of eleven designers and craftsmen from the period between 1900 and 1930 including Gustav Stickley Karl Kipp Dirk van Erp and the Roycrofters Color photographs detail more than two hundred metal objects all selected from the Two Red Roses Foundation's extensive collection while archival images of design sketches and magazine advertisements highlight the philosophy and working methods behind these artisans and their creations Metal Art Crafts John Guthrie Miller, 1948 Metalwork and Material Culture in the Islamic World Venetia Porter, Mariam Rosser-Owen, 2012-06-29 The material and visual culture of the Islamic World casts vast arcs through space and time and encompasses a huge range of artefacts and monuments from the minute to the grandiose from ceramic pots to the great mosques Here Venetia Porter and Mariam Rosser Owen assemble leading experts in the field to examine both the objects themselves and the ways in which they reflect their historical cultural and economic contexts With a focus on metalwork this volume includes an important new study of Mosul metalwork and presents recent discoveries in the fields of Fatimid Mamluk and Qajar metalwork By examining architecture ceramics ivories and textiles seventeenth century Iranian painting and contemporary art the book explores a wide range of artistic production and historical periods from the Umayyad caliphate to the modern Middle East This rich and detailed volume makes a significant contribution to the fields of Art History Architecture and Islamic Studies bringing new objects to light and shedding new light on old objects Metalworking through History Ana M. Lopez, 2009-04-30 Metalworking Through History provides a comprehensive historic overview of the subject of metalworking while exploring it within its cultural context It is written from the perspective that the crafting of objects in metal is a unique way of understanding a particular time and culture As a broad encyclopedia of metalworking it allows the reader to view the different societies and periods that produced work in this medium as part of a global interrelated practice Comprised of over sixty entries on relevant time periods cultures makers and processes the book is a much needed general reference text in the survey of this craft The subjects span all the major metalworking periods and peoples from the rituals of African iron smelting to the twentieth century studio movement Outstanding individual makers are highlighted to give additional insight into the times at which they were active Furthermore the materials and techniques used in the act of metalworking are clearly explained in terms that are easily understood by a practitioner with tacit knowledge of the medium Suggested further readings and cross references allow for the expansion of research and additional study It is an excellent first resource for understanding the concepts and terminology of the ancient and pervasive craft of metalworking Volume includes eight pages of color plates and black and white photos throughout Metalworking Through History provides a comprehensive historic overview of the subject of metalworking while exploring it within its cultural context It is written from the perspective that the crafting of objects in metal is a unique way of understanding a particular time and culture As a broad encyclopedia of metalworking it allows the reader to view the different societies and periods that produced work in this medium as part of a global interrelated practice Comprised of over sixty entries on relevant time periods cultures makers and processes the book is a much needed general reference text in the survey of this craft The subjects span all the major metalworking periods and peoples from the rituals of African iron smelting to the twentieth century studio movement Outstanding individual makers are highlighted to give additional insight into the times at which they were active Furthermore the materials and techniques used in the act of metalworking are clearly explained in terms that are easily understood by a practitioner with tacit knowledge of the medium Suggested further readings and cross references allow for the expansion of research and additional study It is an excellent first resource for understanding the concepts and terminology of the ancient and pervasive craft of metalworking Volume includes eight pages of color plates and black and white photos throughout Art Deco Marianne Brandt Chinese Dark Ages Enamel Engraving Georg Jensen Judaica Metals and their Alloys Native American Plating and Leaf Renaissance June Schwartz Soldering South American Samuel Yellin Metalwork and Material Culture in the Islamic World James W.
