Art and the Beauty of God Richard Harries, 2005 Art and the Beauty of God Richard Harries, 2005-01-01 British bishop argues for a distinctively Christian approach to art Creation's Beauty as Revelation L. Clifton Edwards, 2014-03-05 With an interdisciplinary approach Edwards utilizes literature aesthetics world religions and continental philosophy as avenues into the theology of natural beauty This is an epistemological look at our aesthetically charged knowing of God through nature Emphasizing our embodied experience of the world Edwards examines the phenomenon of perceptual beauty while questioning traditional notions of God's metaphysical beauty Drawing upon Michael Polanyi's philosophy of science Edwards explores the human aesthetic and religious interface with the natural world This philosophical approach is then linked to the poetic Polanyi's tacit knowledge and Jean Luc Marion's saturated phenomena give support to Wordsworth's pregnant vision of the natural world This approach culminates in a re-envisioning of John Ruskin's typology of natural beauty Ruskin's vision of the world can be adapted toward an understanding of natural revelation Edwards brings this Romantic theology back across the Atlantic in dialogue with American nature writers and the uniquely American experience of wilderness and frontier The Transfiguration of Christ and Creation John Gatta, 2011-01-01 The biblical story of Jesus Transfiguration on a high mountain bristles with meanings germane to present day concerns and spiritual longings Together with its later artistic representations this episode from the synoptic gospels seizes the imagination as an icon of mystical hope beauty and possibility What might such an iconic episode long honored liturgically in the Eastern church disclose not only about Jesus but also about the prospect of seeing our human nature transformed And as interpreted by Christian tradition since the patristic era what might it tell us about the worth of envisioning not just a conservation or preservation of natural resources but a transfiguration of all creation and about how this feast of beauty could re-energize current discussions of Christianity's relation to environmental attitudes and policy Such questions are addressed in this book through an original blend of personal reflection with commentary on relevant theological and scriptural texts literary works music and art Liturgy and the Beauty of the Unknown Dr David Torevell, 2013-04-28 Contemporary culture is rediscovering the importance of beauty for both social transformation and personal happiness Theologians have sought in their varied ways to demonstrate how God's beauty is associated with notions of truth and goodness This book breaks new ground by suggesting that liturgy is the means par excellence by which an experience of beauty is communicated Drawing from both secular and religious understandings in particular the mystical and apophatic tradition the book demonstrates how liturgy has the potential to achieve the one ultimately reliable form of beauty because its embodied components are able to reflect the disturbing beauty of the One to whom worship is always offered Such components rely on understanding the aesthetic dynamics upon which liturgy relies This book draws from a broad range of disciplines concerned with understanding beauty and self transformation and concludes that while secular utopian forms have much to contribute to ethical transformation they ultimately fail since they lack the Christological and eschatological framework needed which liturgy alone provides In the Beauty of Holiness David Lyle Jeffrey,2017 Art and worship to 1500 Beauty and holiness as terms of art The paradoxical beauty of the cross Beauty and proportion in the sanctuary The beauty of light The beauty of holiness alfresco Beauty on the altar Art and the Bible after 1500 Beauty power and doctrine Beauty and the eye of the beholder Romantic religion and the sublime Art after belief Art against belief Return of the transcendentals Icons of the Unseen Johnson Vadakumchery,2002 Contributed articles on sacred artistic presentations of Joy Elamkunnappuzha b 1945 Christian priest Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in World Art Hope B. Werness,2006-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume

Creativity as Sacrifice James M. Watkins,2015-01-01 Theological interest in art is at a premium However theological engagement with art is often enacted without a clear sense of method This text argues for a theological methodology in engaging the arts and specifically the author puts forward a theological model for understanding human creativity in the light of Jesus sacrificial redemption In dialogue with theology philosophy psychology and art theory the author establishes the relevance and applicability of an incarnational and sacrificial model of human creativity Theological models also do more than provide a conceptual framework for theological inquiries They engage the imagination A theological model for human creativity is like an invitation to join in the creative vision God has for the world and to embody this vision in one s own creative work Therefore Creativity as Sacrifice does not merely articulate a conceptual framework for human creativity it also casts a vision for human life as a creative response to the gracious gifts of a creative God Deifying Vision James McCullough,2025-02-10 The anagogical sense of Scripture is that which identifies the ways in which the church s participation in its heavenly existence is expressed and taught Anagogical interpretation highlights the eschatological tension between the now and not yet of the experience of redemption but gives this tension an unapologetic priority over the way it is too often relegated to the backroom of last things The book introduces and explores the anagogical imagination as the capacity to live in this tension while appropriating more consciously the fullness of one s ascended identity in Christ

Christianity, Art and Transformation John W. de Gruchy,2001-01-29 Christianity Art and Transformation explores the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and Christianity with reference to the transformation of society Several major themes are discussed among them the power of images the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the nature of beauty and its redemptive capacity aesthetic existence and Christian discipleship and the role of art in the public square and in the life of the Church The book is a contribution to the study of theological aesthetics from both an ecumenical and Reformed perspective global in its scope yet rooted in the author s South African context The Continuum Encyclopedia of Symbols Udo Becker,2000-01-01 An alphabetical reference with more than 1 500 entries that trace symbols to their cultural religious or mythological origins and explain the hidden or encoded meaning that lies concealed beneath objects and concepts ordinary outward appearance God in Sound and Silence Danielle Anne Lynch, 2018-06-22 Music by its indeterminate levels of meaning poses a necessary challenge to a theology bound up in words Its distinctive nature as temporal and embodied allows a unique point of access to theological understanding Yet music does not exist in a cultural vacuum conveying universal truths but is a part of the complex nature of human lives This understanding of music as theology stems from a conviction that music is a theological means of knowing knowing something indeterminate yet meaningful This is an exploration of the means by which music might say something otherwise unsayable and in doing so allow for an encounter with the mystery of God Making the Sign of the Cross Janet Hodgson, 2010 A resource that gives practical ideas for reflection and study based on the central Christian symbol the cross an endlessly rich theme against which to explore individual stories and experiences It comes with a downloadable CD ROM which includes templates and instruction for making hand held crosses and colour images of crosses worldwide Christian Art Rowena Loverance, 2007 At once a sumptuously illustrated survey of Christian art over time and across the globe as well as a study of what RChristian artS really means Loverance concludes with an assessment of the current state of this art form at the beginning of the 21st century Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997 Models of Heaven M. Francis Mannion, 2023-08-31 Many people nowadays are confused about the topic of heaven skeptical about it or think it beyond description This book argues that without venturing into the esoteric or fanciful we can know more about heaven than we think Did you know for instance that heavenly rest will be exciting and dynamic That we will be overwhelmed and transformed by the beauty of God That we will dance with the Trinity sing with the angels and enjoy the delightful company of the saints including the saints we have known and loved on earth The book will deal with what we will be doing in the Holy City and in the magnificence of the new creation and what it means to say that we will feast at the heavenly banquet If you want answers to these questions at once inspired by Christian tradition and modern insight and presented in a fresh and compelling manner this book is for you It is written not only for theologians and specialists but also for inquiring Catholics and other Christians seeking to deepen their understanding of life after death It will serve theology students seminarians clergy religious educators and parish study groups Readers willing to invest time and energy in the book will find their view of heaven deepened and expanded Art and the Church: A Fractious Embrace Jonathan Koestle-Cate, 2016-04-20 A vibrant critical exchange between contemporary art and Christianity is being increasingly prompted by an expanding programme of art installations and commissions for ecclesiastical spaces Rather than religious art reflecting Christian ideology current practices frequently initiate projects that question the values and traditions of the host space or present objects and events that challenge its visual conventions In the light of these developments this book asks what conditions are favourable to enhancing and expanding the possibilities of church based art and how can these conditions be addressed What viable language or strategies can be formulated to understand and analyse art s role within the church Focusing on concepts drawn from anthropology comparative religion art theory theology and philosophy this book formulates a lexicon of terms built around the notion of encounter in order to review the effective uses and experience of contemporary art in churches The author concludes with the prognosis that art for the church has reached a critical and decisive phase in its history testing the assumption that contemporary art should be a taken for granted element of modern church life Art and the Church A Fractious Embrace uniquely combines conceptual analysis critical case studies and practical application in a rigorous and inventive manner dealing specifically with contemporary art of the past twenty five years and the most recent developments in the church s policies for the arts The Oxford Handbook of Natural Theology Russell Re Manning,John Hedley Brooke,Fraser Watts,2013-01-17 The Oxford Handbook of Natural Theology explores the diversity and vitality o natural theology both historically and as an issue of contemporary concern Icons of Space Jelena Bogdanović,2021-07-26 Icons of Space Advances in Hierotopy brings together important scholars of Byzantine religion art and architecture to honour the work of renowned art historian Alexei Lidov As well as his numerous publications Lidov is well known for developing the concept of hierotopy an innovative approach for studying the creation of sacred spaces Hierotopy and the related concepts of spatial icons and image paradigms emphasize fundamental questions about icons including what defines them as structures spaces and experiences Chapters in this volume engage with the overarching theme of icons of space by employing contrasting and complementing methods of hierotopy with more traditional approaches such as iconography Examinations of icons have traditionally been positioned within strictly historical theological socio economic political and art history domains but this volume poses epistemological questions about the creation of sacred spaces that are instead inclusive of multi layered iconic ideas and the lived experiences of the creators and beholders of such spaces This book contributes to image theory and theories of architecture and sacred space Simultaneously it moves beyond colonial studies that predominantly focus on questions of religion and politics as expressions of privileged knowledge and power This book will appeal to scholars and students of Byzantine history as well as those interested in hierotopy and art history
