Arms Control And International Security Westview Special Studies In International Relations:

Arms Control And International Security Roman Kolkowicz, 2019-08-27 Designed to introduce the reader to the critical issues of arms control and international security in the 1980s this collection of provocative and challenging articles encourages a rethinking of conventional wisdom on strategic policy The authors succinctly convey the tensions existing between those who would eliminate the weapons on which strategic deterrence has rested and those who see the Soviet nuclear buildup as a challenge that must be met with increased armaments They reflect as well on the conceptual tension between eliminating nuclear weapons and answering the question of how defense can be managed in the nuclear era Their contributions are at times compelling at times frustrating but at all times informative and of critical importance Ibss:

Military Industry and Regional Defense

Policy Timothy D. Hoyt, 2017-07-05 Military Industry and Regional Defense Policy re examines military industrialization in the developing world focusing on policy making in producer states and the impact of security perceptions on such policy making Timothy D Hoyt reassesses the role of regional state sub systems in international relations and recent historical studies of international technology and arms transfers Looking at Israel Iraq and India the three most powerful regional powers in the Cold War era he presents an expert analysis of the three sided phenomena of the regional hegemony the regional competitor and the small over achiever This new book breaks away from existing literature on military industries in the developing world which has focused on their economic and development costs and benefits These past studies have used primitive methodologies that focus on the production of complete weapons systems a misleading gauge in a world of growing international defense cooperation They have also ignored empirical evidence of the impact of local military industrial production on Cold War regional conflict and of the defence planning and concerns that drove development of indigenous military industries in key regional powers This new text delivers an incisive new perspective
