Air Force Ancestors Phil Tomaselli, 2007-07-19 Whether you are interested in the career of an individual air man or woman researching medals awarded to a pilot or crew member or just want to know more about a particular squadron or operation this book will point you in the right direction Assuming that the reader has no prior knowledge of the air force its history or organization Phil Tomaselli explains which records survive where they can be found and how they can help you in your research He also recommends resources available online as well as books and memoirs Each era in air force history is described from the pioneering days of early aviation and the formation of the Royal Flying Corps in the First World War to the creation of the Royal Air Force its operations during the Second World War and its postwar development The author explains the evolving organization of the air force in each period He also provides pointers and examples which should help researchers find the records of units and bases that individuals served in Tracking Down Your Ancestors Harry Alder, 2002 Bring your family s history to life with this engaging book It uncovers the best starting points for research where to find information and what to look for Tracing Your Ancestors in the Public Record Office Amanda Bevan, Great Britain. Public Record Office, 2002 Researching family history has become increasingly popular in recent years The documents held at the Public Record Office and the Family Records Centre span over 1 000 years and contain a wealth of information for family historians This revised and expanded sixth edition of the publication provides a guide to using the national archives of England Wales and the UK It contains guidance on using basic family history records such as the census wills and records for birth marriage death tracing records regarding migration researching the background of people from a wide range of professional religious social and regional groups using military and legal records and using the Public Record Office online catalogue World War I Genealogy Research Guide (3rd Edition) Debra Dudek, British Campaign Medals of the First World War Peter Duckers, 2011-10-20 Britain has issued medals rewarding war service since at least the early nineteenth century and increasingly through the period of its imperial expansion prior to 1914 but examples of many of the early types are now scarce However few families escaped some involvement with the Great War of 1914 18 and many still treasure the medals awarded to their ancestors for wartime service Today with a growing interest in British military history and particularly in family history and genealogy more and more people want to trace their ancestors past This book looks in detail at the origin types and varieties of the British medals awarded for general war service between 1914 and 18 and gives advice on researching the awards and their recipients The Green Howards in the Great War John Sheen, 2024-09-30 In answer to Lord Kitchener s appeal in late August and September 1914 many men joined Alexandra s Princess of Wales s Own Yorkshire Regiment better known as The Green Howards Recruits came from around the Middlesbrough area and the ironstone mines on the North Yorkshire moors while others came from the East Durham coalfield and the Durham City area The 8th and 9th Battalions left the Regimental Depot in Richmond in late September and moved to Frensham on the Hampshire Surrey border where they trained hard until bad weather forced a move to barracks in Aldershot They arrived on the Somme front at the end of June 1916 but were not involved in the fighting until 5 July when the 9th Battalion captured Horseshoe trench and Lieutenant Donald Simpson Bell won the VC when he destroyed a German machine gun position On 10 July both battalions took part in the capture of Contalmaison a village that had been a first day objective A second VC was awarded posthumously to Private William Short of the 8th Battalion during the fighting in Munster Alley in August 1916 The next year found the 23rd Division in the Ypres Salient where they were in and out of the line until June 1917 when they took part in the Battle of Messines and the 8th Battalion had the honor of taking Hill 60 In November 1917 the division was sent to Italy to bolster the hard pressed Italian Army but the 9th Battalion returned to France in 1918 where they fought until the Armistice The 8th Battalion stayed on in Italy and fought at the crossing of the Piave and Vittorio Veneto which brought the war to an end in Italy
