Bifurcation Theory And Methods Of Dynamical Systems Maoan Han,Dingjun Luo,Xian Wang, Deming Zhu,1997-11-29 Dynamical bifurcation theory is concerned with the changes that occur in the global structure of dynamical systems as parameters are varied This book makes recent research in bifurcation theory of dynamical systems accessible to researchers interested in this subject In particular the relevant results obtained by Chinese mathematicians are introduced as well as some of the works of the authors which may not be widely known The focus is on the analytic approach to the theory and methods of bifurcations The book prepares graduate students for further study in this area and it serves as a ready reference for researchers in nonlinear sciences and applied mathematics Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy for PTSD Claudia Zayfert,Carolyn Black Becker,2019-12-24 Acclaimed for providing a flexible framework for individualized treatment of posttraumatic stress disorder PTSD this empathic guide has now been revised and expanded with 50% new material The authors show how the case formulation approach enables the practitioner to adapt CBT for clients with different trauma histories co occurring problems and complicating life circumstances Vivid clinical material illustrates the implementation of exposure therapy cognitive restructuring and supplemental interventions with ample attention to overcoming common obstacles Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the book s 22 reproducible handouts in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size Key Words Subject Areas CBT psychotherapy posttraumatic stress disorder psychological trauma cognitive therapy cognitive behavioural therapy case conceptualization adults assessments combat dsm5 dsmv evidence based treatments exposure interventions intimate partner violence military personnel rape service members sexual assault survivors childhood sexual abuse treatment manuals treatments veterans traumatized Audience Clinical psychologists psychiatrists clinical social workers counselors and psychiatric nurses Preliminary Report on Volume of Physician Visits, United States, July-September 1957 National Health Survey (U.S.),1958 Cruising World ,1988-07 Storms in Space John W. Freeman,2001-10-11 This book is the story of the mysterious region between Earth and the Sun where violent storms rage unseen by human eyes Sailing Alone Richard J. King,2023-09-07 An exceptional book Sailing Alone belongs on the very small shelf of the true classics of the sea Peter Nichols author of Sea Change and A Voyage for Madmen Colourful and inventive The Times Sailing on a boat by yourself out at sea and out of sight of land can be exhilarating or terrifying compelling or tedious sometimes it can be all of these things just in one morning It is an adventure at odds with our normal sociable lives carried out floating on a medium wholly inimical to our existence But the deep ocean is also a remarkable place on which to think Richard King s enormously engaging and curious new book is about the debt we owe to solo sailors women and men young and old who have set out alone Spending weeks and months alone slowly quietly and close to the ocean surface is to create the world s largest laboratory an endlessly changing capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself the weather the stars and myriad sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening This is a book for anyone who is fascinated by sailing solitude and the vast seas that cover so much of our planet The Greatest Love Poems of All Time Cook & Brothers,2015-01-09 This book is very humorous and it gets straight to the point It could leave you with tears falling from your eyes or make you very angry My mama was my heart and my soul She taught me everything I know I am the man I am because of her She was my backbone She was there for me through hard times and good times What can I say Words do not explain the things I feel about my mama She stood by my side when no one else would She was truly truly a mother Journey into Amnesia John P Fox,2015-12-03 A child's novel for grown ups In a dispute over child custody Judge Pankhurst offers Joni Cartwright the unenviable choice the horrible decision that of choosing which parent she wants to live with the child is so distressed by the ordeal and the seemingly insurmountable odds stacked against a once happy family Joni takes her problems to bed where she dreams of solutions Current Estimates from the National Health Interview Survey, United States ,1968 Sunbonnets and Sweet Gum Pearl Lowe Boyd,2001-12-21 Note Although this book is listed as biography autobiography it is actually FOLKLORE from the Midland Region of the United States and can be considered as Americana and nostalgia Elizabeth Pearl Lowe Boyd 1904 1965 grew up on farms in Warren County Kentucky near Bowling Green Unlike many girls of that era she went on from the rural one room school to graduate from what is now Western Kentucky University a degree in English and Latin After a year of teaching in Shepherdsville Kentucky she moved to Cross City Florida where she taught another year and married Robert U Boyd a railroad agent By 1935 they had settled in Dunedin Florida where they raised their eight children From 1936 until her death she wrote a popular column in the local weekly paper The Dunedin Times titled From My Kitchen Window The topics she wrote about were many and varied and her focus was on the ordinary and commonplace Over two hundred of these articles were about her recollections of growing up in rural Kentucky and they were selected for this book Although Florida had become her home her heart remained in Kentucky It was there for that sweet land and for the hills and seasons that she felt deeply attached She never lost her yearnings for the hills for the agrarian life of Kentucky And it was of rural people life times and history that she wrote most eloquently Pearl Lowe Boyd the name she went by was energetic jolly determined and focused civic minded and above all a mother She spread her children out over twenty two years and she was fascinated by her little ones their beauty their trust their development and their emergence into big people Writing was the forum through which she best expressed herself the same as music is for a musician In her earliest writings and diaries she stated her desires to be a writer Her opinions were carefully thoughtful erudite and tactfully voiced The only time I remember that she got her dander up and went on an all out crusade was when she got wind that the town leaders were planning to have an enormous beautiful oak tree behind the Chamber of Commerce cut down They lost she won and the tree is standing today She loved to read and kept lists of books she devoured sometimes over a hundred in a years span Yet her own mother was opposed to education beyond the eighth grade for a farm girl and was very much disapproving of her reading novels even the writings by Dickens It was her father who encouraged her education and her love of books and writing She was the kind of person who looked for the good in things in people in nature and in life Although she had periods of worry and depression she never let them slow her down The reasoning behind her positive outlook which she described to me during one of my down times was pragmatic and positive why choose to dwell on the hurtful and the bad when one can live much more effectively by dwelling on the beautiful the exciting and the good of life She grew up during Womens Suffrage As an early feminist she insisted on fairness in all things for women as for men yet in her own life she was comfortable with first being a had working housewife and mother and being a civic leader and writer second Among her homespun articles she also wrote blistering articles against the treatment of Jews and others during World War II and against bigotry during the early days of desegregation The n word was certainly not permitted in her home I remember her as a wise person On one occasion when two of her children were arguing over splitting up a remaining chunk of cake she utilized the King Solomon ploy by allowing one to make the slice and the other to take the first piece Of course the two pieces were precisely identical Music was a part of our lives with The Art of Living a Life You Love Margaux Joy DeNador,2013-10 Margaux Joy DeNador a life coach outlines ways to make simple and consistent changes in life to enable people to feel a greater connection with loved ones to take time for what is important to them and to find more enjoyment in work

Targeted D.K. Howard,2018 The Brodderick brothers can t help themselves when confronted with a damsel in distress so when Nicolas Brodderick finds a beautiful woman who needs his help what else can he do He s a cop after all and while she is one of several women taken by a serial killer there s just something about her that draws him like a magnet Focusing on finding the perpetrator before he returns to finish what he started may just be the prescription for getting his life back in order If only Jerri wasn't so temptingly gorgeous

Hope and Uncertainty in Contemporary African Migration Nauja Kleist, Dorte Thorsen, 2016-11-25 This volume examines the relationship between hope, mobility and immobility in African migration. Through case studies set within and beyond the continent, it demonstrates that hope offers a unique prism for analyzing the social imaginaries and aspirations which underpin migration in situations of uncertainty, deepening inequality and delimited access to global circuits of legal mobility. The volume takes departure in a mobility paradox that characterizes contemporary migration. Whereas people all over the world are exposed to widening sets of meaning of the good life elsewhere, an increasing number of people in the Global South have little or no access to authorized modes of international migration. This book examines how African migrants respond to this situation. Focusing on hope, it explores migrants' temporal and spatial horizons of expectation and possibility and how these horizons link to mobility practices. Such analysis is pertinent as precarious life conditions and increasingly restrictive regimes of mobility characterize the lives of many Africans while migration continues to constitute important livelihood strategies and to be seen as pathways of improvement. Whereas involuntary immobility is one consequence, another is the emergence and consolidation of new destinations emerging in the Global South. The volume examines this development through empirically grounded and theoretically rich case studies in migrants' countries of origin, zones of transit and in new and established destinations in Europe, North America, the Middle East, Latin America and China. It thereby offers an original perspective on linkages between migration, hope and immobility ranging from migration aspirations to return.

Suzanne Carlton Hughes, 2003-01-27 Set during the persecution of the Huguenots in 17th century France, a young Huguenot stonemason by the name of Isaac DuBose is hired to build a chapel on the elegant estate of the wealthy Marquis Albert DuPont. Also a Huguenot, Isaac falls in love with the Marquis's only daughter, Suzanne, who returns his love. Their relationship, though stormy at times, builds amid the trials of life and cruel waves of religious persecution. As persecutions increase, attending Protestant churches is prohibited and even building a Huguenot chapel becomes a criminal offense. Suzanne's father, the Marquis, who is besieged by King Louis XIV and Romanist zealots, narrowly escapes arrest. With the DuPont Chateau infiltrated by spies and the family doggedly pursued by the King's dreaded dragoons, Isaac and Suzanne hurriedly marry and escape by ship with her father and other Huguenots to Charleston, South Carolina, where new adventures await them all.

Clinical Counselling in Schools Nick Barwick, 2000 Too often in education there is a split between those concerned with children's personal and emotional wellbeing and those focusing on academic achievement. At a time when counselling in schools is on the increase, working towards an integration of the personal and the academic is paramount. Clinical Counselling in Schools provides counsellors, educational psychologists, teachers, teacher trainers and other interested professionals with essential insights into how counselling best works within a school. Covering a wide range of problems encountered in schools, the contributors, all experienced school counsellors, show how the context be it state or public primary or secondary mainstream or special school needs to be acknowledged in order to support and foster the emotional and academic welfare of the child Using a wealth of clinical information Clinical Counselling in Schools is timely and essential reading for counsellors and all educational professionals who wish to utilise the full potential of counselling in the context of schools

Bloodlore Krista Walsh, 2015-06-15 A follow up to the much loved Meratis Trilogy this action adventure trilogy follows assassin Venn Connell as she fights to save her country from an enchanted army Venn Connell is bored When the Andvellian ambassador in Margolin goes missing she jumps at the chance to find him but quickly learns the mystery goes deeper than one missing courtier With border tensions rising a man vanishing before her eyes with a relic she believed lost red clad soldiers out for blood and something dark following her from the charred ruins of Treevale fortress Venn becomes a pawn in an unseen game Forced to confront her past and question her future Venn knows she has to tread carefully One wrong move and she could lose herself in the shadows and hurl her country into war A follow up to the Meratis Trilogy the Cadis Trilogy follows Venn Connell the sassy blade wielding assassin whose sharp tongue and love for adventure get her in no end of trouble When a simple quest rolls into more action than she expects the woman who swore never to grow attached to anyone must trust in her friends to overcome old spells demons and a magical war that could destroy her world
