Art And Craft Of Biblical Preaching A Comprehensive And Practical Guide:

Preaching Like the Prophets Robert A. Carlson, 2017-02-08 The Old Testament prophets are a neglected treasury of biblical examples for pastoral preaching Too often the prophets are misunderstood as focusing on future or social justice issues This book shows that the prophets are essentially preachers very good ones whom we must learn from By comparing recent rhetorical analysis of the prophets to some of the best of current preaching literature this book shows that the prophets preached the way that we ought to preach It will help you to hear the prophets the same way that a pastor benefits from listening to a seasoned and exceptionally gifted preacher We can benefit not only from what the prophets say but how they say it By seeing how the prophets grab and keep their listeners how they enhance clarity and relevancy how they make truth come alive and how they persevere in their ministry you too can learn to preach like the prophets The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching Zondervan, 2009-05-26 A Comprehensive Resource for Today's Christian Communicators This extensive encyclopedia is the most complete and practical work ever published on the art and craft of biblical preaching Its 11 major sections contain nearly 200 articles comprehensively covering topics on preaching and methodology including Sermon structure and the big idea The art of introductions transitions and conclusions Methods for sermon prep from outlining to exercising Approaches to different types of preaching topical expository evangelistic and more Best practices for sermon delivery speaking with authority and using humor Leveraging effective illustrations and stories Understanding audience and much more Entries are characterized by intensely practical and vivid writing designed to help preachers deepen their understanding and sharpen their communication skills The contributors include a virtual Who's Who of preaching from a cross section of denominations and traditions such as Dallas Willard John Ortberg Rick Warren Warren Wiersbe Alice Mathews John Piper Andy Stanley and many others Haddon Robinson and Craig Brian Larson two of today's most respected voices in preaching provide editorial oversight Includes audio CD with preaching technique examples from the book

Letting The Text Win J.K. Jones, Mark Scott, 2014-10-13 Letting the Text Win is intentionally designed to help the new and inexperienced preacher capture a methodology in sermon making as well as discover a theology of preaching that can be built on for a lifetime Veteran preachers will also discover an encouraging reminder of the size and scope of this great undertaking Letting the Text Win will be a refresher course for all who proclaim the Word of God Preaching Difficult

Texts of the Old Testament Bryan Murawski, 2021-08-03 Practical homiletical advice for preachers on some of the most challenging genres of Scripture What should a preacher do when facing a genealogy while preaching the book of Genesis How should one handle the geographically rich chapters of Joshua What about all those laborious architectural details on the tabernacle in Exodus From the theologically complex to the well worn narrative from the long pericopes to the tiniest archaeological details this book seeks to give honest practical advice that will better equip preachers to tackle such topics Each chapter includes an introduction of the difficult passages definition and examples of the difficult passages function purpose of the difficult passages and how to preach the difficult passages Chapter topics include Preaching the Genealogies Preaching the Law Preaching the Lists and Construction Details Preaching the Violent Texts and Imprecations Preaching the Sexually Explicit Texts Preaching the Geography Preaching Intertextuality and Complex Language Issues Preaching the Well Worn Stories Preaching Theologically Complex or Controversial Passages Preaching Long Pericopes Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry: Volume 18, 2016-2017 David J. Fuller, 2018-06-20 The McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal that seeks to provide pastors educators and interested lay persons with the fruits of theological biblical and professional studies in an accessible form Published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario it continues the heritage of scholarly inquiry and theological dialogue represented by the College s previous print publications the Theological Bulletin Theodolite and the McMaster Journal of Theology A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn t that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people s attention because the digital world is built on attention whatever will get likes or drive outrage However pastoral preaching builds community It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place The Art of Teaching the Bible Christine Eaton Blair,2001-01-01 Blair outlines practical steps for becoming a better adult teacher She empowers adult Bible study teachers by showing how adults learn best giving teachers a better understanding of the nature of scripture and providing teachers with an effective and usable model for teaching Christian Equipped for Good Work Joe H. Cothen, Th.D,2014-11-21 A practical handbook for today s pastors Extensively updated to aid in meeting the increased demands and challenges of twenty first century ministry this edition includes expanded indexes reading lists and technological suggestions Covering everything from policy programming to organizational management each invaluable chapter serves as a vital resource for ministers facing the challenges of pastoral work today Seeing and Showing the Unseen Adam Szumorek,2023-10-31 As humans we think in images and cannot do otherwise Thus metaphor and imagery often viewed as complex literary devices are in fact the very building blocks of human thought and essential components for understanding the nature of God Exploring how the God of Scripture reveals himself through metaphor and imagery Dr Adam Szumorek utilizes Cognitive Linguistics to help students teachers and preachers understand how meaning is communicated in Scripture and conceptualized within the human brain He provides a theological framework for applying Cognitive Linguistics in biblical exegesis demonstrating its value in aiding our understanding of biblical texts and in communicating that understanding to others through sermons that speak to people s minds hearts and imaginations Both richly conceptual and deeply practical this book equips readers to communicate the unseen allowing others to taste touch and see the invisible yet incarnate God The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching Haddon W. Robinson,2005 The most complete practical encyclopedia on the practice of preaching based on articles from over a hundred respected communicators of Christian truth this text includes an audio CD with preaching technique examples from the book Biblical Preaching Haddon W. Robinson,2025-02-11 This bestselling textbook on biblical preaching is a contemporary classic in the field It offers students pastors and Bible teachers expert guidance in the development and delivery of expository sermons This new edition provides resources methods and advice for new generations of students and pastors It has been revised and updated throughout by Scott Wenig professor emeritus of applied theology and Haddon W Robinson Chair of Biblical Preaching at Denver Seminary Wenig adds a step to the preaching method that has been widely accepted and utilized by Robinson s former students The book also includes a foreword by Torrey Robinson An outstanding introduction to the task of preparing and presenting biblical sermons Robinson s Big Idea preaching has shaped the thinking of thousands of expository preachers and been the major influence on many of those who teach preaching in today s classrooms Preaching Preaching Walter J. Burghardt,1987 Practical advice for preachers everywhere written out of long experience and deep learning Homilists will welcome its advice about language the role of the imagination preaching and prophecy the liturgical setting of the preached word and social justice Preaching for a Verdict J. Josh Smith,2019-10-01 Those who preach have been called to deliver the truth and must do so with a conviction that every truth demands a response Christ-Centered Preaching Bryan Chapell, 2018-05-15 In this complete guide to expository preaching Bryan Chapell teaches the basics of preparation organization and delivery the trademarks of great preaching This new edition of a bestselling resource now updated and revised throughout shows how Chapell's case for expository preaching reaches twenty first century readers Expository Preaching in a World of Spiritual Nominalism R. T. Johnson Raih, 2021-10-06 The spiritual decay of nominalism threatens the established church worldwide While spiritual lethargy is often addressed from the perspective of theology and discipleship little attention has been given to the role of homiletics in revitalizing a congregation's spiritual health In this study Dr Johnson Raih explores the impact of preaching on members of Baptist churches in Imphal Manipur India from 2000 to 2015 He utilizes interviews and questionnaires from pastors church leaders and lay members to assess the presence of nominalism within church congregations along with the effects of various preaching methods on increasing or decreasing spiritual vitality Combining this qualitative research with scriptural and theological insight Raih suggests that expository preaching has the power to confront and even eradicate nominalism within the church He draws on biblical examples along with the methodology of John Stott and Timothy Keller to offer ten practical recommendations for countering nominalism homiletically whether in Imphal India or around the world

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching Haddon Robinson, Craig Brian Larson, 2023-12-19 The most complete practical encyclopedia on the practice of preaching from over a hundred respected communicators of Christian truth edited by Haddon Robinson and Craig Brian Larson using significant resources from the ministries of Christianity Today International Using Illustrations to Preach with Power (Revised Edition) Bryan Chapell, 2001-04-04 If the apostle Paul had not punctuated his words with images of the armor of God or the racecourse would we so easily remember his instruction The march on Washington might have become nothing more than a ragged hike across a majestic mall if Martin Luther King Jr had not led us through a dream and onto a mountaintop Such is the power of illustrations They contain a hidden dynamic of living that captures our attention and furthers our understanding in a way that no other sermonic tool can match Can they be overused and their purpose abused Yes and by many they are But to eliminate them completely would be unwise maintains Bryan Chapell Instead he responds to those concerns by reviewing the theory behind illustrations sharing why they're important and demonstrating how you can use them effectively in your biblical preaching This book clearly affirms that illustrations are integral to powerful preaching not because they entertain but because they expand and deepen applications in the lives of your listeners They infuse your words with life without comprising the message making the truth of the Word ring clearly in people's hearts long after your sermon is done
