And Another Thing Katherine Behar, Emmy Mikelson, 2016-06-18 In And Another Thing Nonanthropocentrism and Art Katherine Behar and Emmy Mikelson explore how artists engage with nonanthropocentrism one of the primary tenets shared by recent speculative realist and new materialist philosophies Extending their investigations in And Another Thing an exhibition which the authors curated in 2011 this volume documents both that exhibition and expands on two of its curatorial aims prioritizing art historical contexts for contemporary philosophy rather than the other way around and apprehending artworks as historically specific objects of philosophy The book is organized in three sections In the first section Behar and Mikelson provide long form essays that chart the evolution of nonanthropocentrism and art spanning eighteenth century architectural drawing performance minimalist sculpture and contemporary postminimalism These essays raise the stakes for art and speculative realism showing how artists have figured and prefigured nonanthropocentric ideas strikingly similar to those expounded in various new realist materialist and speculativist philosophies Literally occupying the center of the volume in section two the exhibition is represented by full color plates of eleven works by Carl Andre Laura Carton Valie Export Regina Jos Galindo Tom Kotik Mary Lucking Bruce Nauman Grit Ruhland Anthony Titus Ruslan Trusewych and Zimoun Artworks by these emerging and canonical figures lay bare the networks of alliances underlying the exhibition The book concludes with three short meditations on the relation between nonanthropocentrism and art and what that relation might portend for future thought These essays by Bill Brown Patricia Ticineto Clough and Robert Jackson are speculative in the sense that they perceive potentials for theory arising from nonanthropocentrism's manifestations in art Oh, and another thing... Political Economy Arthur Latham Perry, 2024-02-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1883

What Is Dogma? Cardinal Charles Journet, 2011-03-01 Dogma is one of those words Many people see dogma as a bad thing as the unreasonable unthinking adherence to a belief even in the face of contrary evidence But when the Catholic Church presents some of her teachings as dogmas she does not mean that these tenets are irrational or to be thoughtlessly embraced Dogma is the bedrock of truth an inexhaustible feast for the mind not an impediment to thinking Why Because dogmas rest on the Word of God Truth Himself who can neither deceive nor be deceived and who wants his Word to be known The great theologian Charles Journet explores the meaning of dogma in his classic work What is Dogma In what sense are dogmas an object of faith How do reason and faith relate to dogmas How are dogmas both essentially unchangeable and yet open to development Are dogmas accessible only in learned theological language or are there common sense ways of understanding them Journet addresses these and other important questions He also discusses examples of dogmatic development the dogmas of the Trinity of Christology and of Mariology And he explores the relationship of dogma and mystical contemplation In short Journet shows why dogma is a subject of which Catholics need not be afraid
