Autobiographical Writing by Early Modern Hispanic Women Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2016-04-08 Women's life writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Doña Leonor López de Córdoba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie Neither Saints Nor Sinners Kathleen Ann Myers, 2003-08-07 This book brings together the portraits and autobiographical texts of six 17th century Latin American women drawing on primary sources that include Inquisition and canonization records confessional and mystic journals and legal defenses and petitions Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz and the Gender Politics of Knowledge in Colonial Mexico Stephanie Kirk, 2016-06-23 Each of the book's five chapters evokes a colonial Mexican cultural and intellectual sphere the library anatomy and medicine spirituality classical learning and publishing and printing Using an array of literary texts and historical documents and alongside secondary historical and critical materials the author Stephanie Kirk demonstrates how Sor Juana used her poetry and other works to inscribe herself within the discourses associated with these cultural institutions and discursive spheres and thus challenge the male exclusivity of their precepts and precincts Kirk illustrates how Sor Juana subverted the masculine character of erudition writing herself into an all male community of scholars From there Sor Juana clearly questions the gender politics at play in her exclusion and undermines what seems to be the inextricable link previously forged between masculinity and institutional knowledge Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and the Gender Politics of Knowledge in Colonial Mexico opens up new readings of her texts through the lens of cultural and intellectual history and material culture in order to shed light on the production of knowledge in the seventeenth century colonial Mexican society of which she was both a product and an anomaly

The Fame of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Margo Echenberg, 2025-10-01 The Fame of Sor Juana In s de la Cruz traces the meteoric trajectory of the Mexican Tenth Muse s renown and studies how her worldly celebrity was altered posthumously by elegists in her Fama y obras p stumas Fame and Posthumous Works of 1700 In this study of a polyphonic transatlantic volume the didactic framework of early modern fame is pushed to its limits as panegyrists inscribe the nun into an evolving world view that could trade in the fictions of the saintly exemplar the Tenth Muse or a New World treasure but could not preserve a woman s renown on the grounds of authorship Only by making her legible could she vie for the promise of posthumous fame In flushing out the machinations of Sor Juana s role as agent of her own celebrity as well as the negotiations of her contemporaries this book opens new lines of inquiry in the study of early modern fame and print culture and the role of writers panegyrists and editors as cultural agents in the transatlantic literary relationship between Mexico and Spain Colonial Encounters in New World Writing, 1500-1786 Susan Castillo, 2006-05-02 Exploring the proliferation of polyphonic texts following the first contact between Europeans and the indigenous peoples of the Americas this book is an important advance in the study of early American literature and writings of colonial encounter Feminist History of Philosophy: The Recovery and Evaluation of Women's Philosophical Thought Eileen O'Neill, Marcy P. Gender Complementarity and Christian Personalism Mary Veronica Sabelli, John P. Hittinger, 2025 When in the 1970's Sister Prudence Allen RSM began to investigate philosophical thought on woman the question was considered to be at best a marginal area for philosophical research Rather it was seen as a sociological anthropological psychological or political issue This book confirms that today partly due to Allen's groundbreaking work the complementarity of man and woman is an important and fruitful area of research in philosophy providing an evaluative framework that enriches and challenges many other disciplines No one could have foreseen the centrality of her research for questions of gender theory that are in the third decade of the 21st century in the forefront of public attention In the present volume leading authors in the area of sex gender complementarity reflect upon and further develop various aspects of Allen's research. In 14 original scholarly essays some contributors build upon Allen's project of exploring the concept of woman throughout the history of philosophy. Others explore the work of 20th century philosophers most of them Christian Personalists whom Allen credits with significant influence on the development of integral gender complementarity such as Karol Wojtyła, John Paul II, Jacques Maritain, Edith Stein, Emmanuel, Mounier, W. Norris Clarke SJ and Bernard Lonergan SJ. Still other contributors consider Marian spirituality, analogies between Benedictine spirituality and the physiological realities of a woman's body during pregnancy, seminary education in the writings of Allen and others and the impact of Allen's work on the real lives of women in families, the Church and professional life. Upon completing her magisterial three volume work The Concept of Woman, Allen passed the baton to a new generation of scholars stating 'The next phases will be developed by those who themselves take the argument further and deeper in their own research, writing, living and lecturing.' The present volume takes up the baton, carrying Allen's work forward and paying tribute to the lifetime achievement of a great scholar. Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature, Verity Smith, 1997-03-26. This work is a guide to writers, works and topics in Central and South America and the Caribbean. It contains over 400 entries written by 160 contributors which are organized into four major types: topic, individual writer, individual work and survey.

Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature, Verity Smith, 2014-01-14. The Concise Encyclopedia includes all entries on topics and countries cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book; entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present; and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature, those who read and studied in the English speaking world. Early Modern Exchanges, Helen Hackett, 2016-03-09. Marcus Gheeraerts's portrait of a Persian lady, probably in fact an English lady in masquerade costume, exemplifies the hybridity of early modern English culture. Her surrounding landscape and the embroidery on her gown are typically English, but her head dress and slippers are decidedly exotic; the inscriptions beside her are Latin and her creator was an incomer artist. She is emblematic of the early modern culture of exchange, both between England and its neighbours and between Europe and the wider world. This volume presents fresh research into such early modern exchanges, exploring how new identities, subjectivities and artefacts were forged in dialogues and encounters between diverse cultures, nations and language communities. The early modern period was a time of creative interactions between cultures and disciplines and accordingly this is a multidisciplinary volume drawing together international experts in literature, history, modern and ancient languages and art history. It understands cultural exchange as encompassing both the geographical mobilities of travel and trade and the transmission of ideas across borders and between languages as enabled by the new technology of print. Sites of exchange were located not only in distant and unfamiliar lands but also in the bookseller's shop and the scholar's study. The volume also explores the productive and complex dialogues between early modern culture and the classical past. The types of exchanges discussed include the linguistic transactions of translation and imitation, interactions between cultural elites such as monarchs courtiers and diplomats and the catalytic influences of particularly mobile or outward looking individuals and groups Ranging from the neo Latin poetry of an English author to the plays of a nun in seventeenth century New Spain from royal portraits exchanged in diplomatic negotiations to travelling companions in the Ottoman Empire the volume sheds new light

The Autos Sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Alice Brooke, 2018 Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz 1651 1695 was the most significant literary figure of the colonial period in Spanish America The autos sacramentales or Eucharistic plays are some of her least studied and most perplexing works While one of them El divino Narciso has received substantial scholarly attention the other two El cetro de Jose and El martir del Sacramento San Hermenegildo have been critically neglected in Sor Juana studies This study presents a full length analysis of all three plays along with their loas or the introductory pieces alongside which they were intended to be performed Furthermore the study seeks to place these works in their philosophical and cultural context by exploring their engagement both with orthodox Catholic sacramental theology and the emergence of empiricism and the New Philosophy across the Hispanic world The three sections of this book each present significant new readings of the three plays The study of El divino Narciso employs a previously little known source to illuminate its Christological readings as well as Sor Juana s engagement with notions of wit and conceptism The analysis of El cetro de Jose explores her presentation of different approaches to perception to emphasise the importance of both the material and the transcendent to a holistic understanding of the Sacraments The final section on San Hermenegildo explores the influence on the play of the Christianised Stoicism of Justus Lipsius and demonstrates how Sor Juana used the work to attempt her most ambitious reconciliation of an empirical approach to natural philosophy and the material world with a Neostoic approach to Christian morality and orthodox Catholic sacramental theology

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women s preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself It is the author s hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman s perspective Kim s ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium Through Kim s eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation Ronald J Allen Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th Miller Professor of Professor of Preaching and New Testament Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana Kim s exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world Those churches that continue to deny women s preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co workers in the liberative work of God Cliff Guthrie Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies Bangor Theological Seminary Bangor Maine Wisdom and Her Lovers in Medieval and Early Modern Hispanic Literature E.
