Do You Still Think God Is Good? Clayton Brumby, 2014-08-01 A grappling with the philosophical challenge of defending a God that some think is inept impotent or evil given the violent and unfair world we live in The Greek philosopher Epicurus is credited with saying Either God wants to abolish evil and cannot or he can but does not want to or he cannot and does not want to If he wants to but cannot he is impotent If he can and does not want to he is wicked But if God both can and wants to abolish evil then how come evil is in the world This is known as the Epicurean paradox Obviously mankind has been wrestling with the problem of evil for some time Epicurus lived between 340 270 BC Fast forward twenty three hundred years Eric Jennings is a freshman at the University of Florida He and his older sister Libby have moved in from the mission field to enter the premed program to become medical missionaries Eric's roommate Todd Rehnquist though a baseball teammate and a good friend is an atheist And he poses the problem to Eric using an interesting quote This sets in motion a conversation between Eric Todd Libby Ray Cohen the Jennings former science teacher and Mike Murphy a local youth minister and one of Eric's spiritual mentors The conversation happens at an area breakfast haunt the Gator Skillet Follow them as they wrestle with this most profound of issues and connect the dots You'll find that the answers are as simple as they are surprising including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease
