inherent right of indigenous people to guard their environmental heritage and the responsibility of governments local national or in the unique case of Antarctica international to protect environments over which they exercise stewardship Additionally the presence of international commercial enterprises especially marine and other mass transport modes represent unique governance challenges This book deals mainly with environmental issues and the management implications arising from polar tourism one of the fastest growing sectors of world tourism However many of the issues discussed here arise no less urgently in temperate and tropical wilderness areas and indeed in any region where sensitive environments are subjected to mass tourism The principles and guidelines discussed here are of interest and practical use in tourism studies generally
