Antelope Wife A Novel:

The Antelope Wife Louise Erdrich, 2002 One of America's most celebrated writers reconfirms her place as a foremost chronicler of the Native American experience with a powerful story capturing the sense of despair, destiny and magic through three generations of a family

A Reader's Guide to the Novels of Louise Erdrich Peter G. Beidler, Gay Barton, 2006 A revised and expanded comprehensive guide to the novels of Native American author Louise Erdrich from Love Medicine to The Painted Drum. Includes chronologies, genealogical charts, complete dictionary of characters, map and geographical details about settings and a glossary of all the Ojibwe words and phrases used in the novels. Provided by publisher

Antelope Woman Louise Erdrich, 2016-10-25 This updated edition of National Book Award winning and New York Times bestselling author Louise Erdrich's 1998 novel now features fascinating new content, a new title and a new foreword by the author. A riveting story that explores tensions between Native American and white cultures. Audacious and surprising. One of America's most distinctive fictional voices. Boston Globe. When Klaus Shawano abducts Sweetheart Calico, the seductive Indian woman who has stolen his heart and takes her far from her native Montana plains to his own Minneapolis home, he cannot begin to imagine the eventual ramifications his brazen act will entail. Shawano's mysterious Antelope Woman has utterly mesmerized him and soon proves to be a bewitching agent of chaos whose effect on others is disturbing and irresistible as she alters the shape of things around her and the shape of things to come. The Roy and Shawano families have been inextricably intertwined for generations and unbeknownst to them, the mysterious Antelope Woman is a part of their fierce and haunting history. Antelope Woman ingeniously illuminates how that history affects the contemporary descendants of these families who are the products of two cultures, Ojibwe and white, which sit in uneasy relationship to one another. In this remarkable novel, Erdrich weaves an unforgettable tapestry of ancestry, fate, harrowing tragedy and redemption that is at once modern and eternal

Maternal Conditions Melissa A. Schoeffel, 2008 Maternal Conditions analyzes the depiction of motherhood in the works of Barbara Kingsolver, Ana Castillo, Louise Erdrich and Ruth Ozeki. The book examines the politics underlying and engendered by ethnically diverse representations of the maternal, interrogating the dominant cultural understanding of the good mother. This analysis then moves to a study of how the subjective experience of mothers is portrayed in these writings, ending with an exploration of the relationship between motherhood and ethics

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries, it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years. Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world. Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography, a review of existing criticism, a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources. The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Interdisciplinary and Cross-cultural Narratives in North America Mark Cronlund Anderson, Irene Maria Blayer, 2005 North America is becoming increasingly interdisciplinary and cross cultural In this emerging context narratives play a crucial role in weaving patterns that in turn provide fabrics for our lives In this thoroughly original collection Interdisciplinary and Cross Cultural Narratives in North America a dozen scholars deploy a variety of provocative and illuminating approaches to explore and understand the many ways that stories speak to from within and across culture s in North America

Politics and Aesthetics in Contemporary Native American Literature Matthew Herman, 2010-02 This book provides the historical framework for the shift in Native American literary studies away from cultural analyses toward more politically inflected and motivated perspectives and examines the key moments in this turn

The Native American Renaissance Alan R. Velie, A. Robert Lee, 2013-11-11 The outpouring of Native American literature that followed the publication of N Scott Momaday s Pulitzer Prize winning House Made of Dawn in 1968 continues unabated Fiction and poetry autobiography and discursive writing from such writers as James Welch Gerald Vizenor and Leslie Marmon Silko constitute what critic Kenneth Lincoln in 1983 termed the Native American Renaissance This collection of essays takes the measure of that efflorescence The contributors scrutinize writers from Momaday to Sherman Alexie analyzing works by Native women First Nations Canadian writers postmodernists and such theorists as Robert Warrior Jace Weaver and Craig Womack Weaver s own examination of the development of Native literary criticism since 1968 focuses on Native American literary nationalism Alan R Velie turns to the achievement of Momaday to examine the ways Native novelists have influenced one another Post renaissance and postmodern writers are discussed in company with newer writers such as Gordon Henry Jr and D L Birchfield Critical essays discuss the poetry of Simon Ortiz Kimberly Blaeser Diane Glancy Luci Tapahonso and Ray A Young Bear as well as the life writings of Janet Campbell Hale Carter Revard and Jim Barnes An essay on Native drama examines the work of Hanay Geiogamah the Native American Theater Ensemble and Spider Woman Theatre In the volume s concluding essay Kenneth Lincoln reflects on the history of the Native American Renaissance up to and beyond his seminal work and discusses Native literature s legacy and future The essays collected here underscore the vitality of Native American literature and the need for debate on theory and ideology

Dialogism or Interconnectedness in the Work of Louise Erdrich Marta J. Lysik, 2017-05-11 This study portrays how Louise Erdrich's writing extends Bakhtin's concepts of dialogism and the novel through an investigation of a selection of her works as well as her practices of writing co writing re writing and reading novels Erdrich's hallmark dialogic literary style and practice encompasses writing a series of books re cycling protagonists narrators events themes and settings re writing previously published novels employing heteroglossia and polyglossia co authoring texts blogging about books translating different epistemologies for different audiences and spotlighting families as the main thematic concern in dialogue with her own parenting experiences as depicted in her memoirs She writes a growing series of novels compost pile like capitalizing on former novels as well as adding new elements and new stories in the process Thus a dialogic intra textual microcosm emerges Erdrich suffuses her writing with an incessant quality of changing and becoming Her novels resist closure while protagonists return and demand attention and the author answers dialogically by penning new tales Erdrich's writing can be accessed because it concerns shared human experiences and relationships both their ambivalence and their beauty Erdrich includes instead of alienating sympathizes instead of judging which makes her an internationally acclaimed author with her work crossing topographies epistemologies and identities

Indigenous Cities Laura M. Furlan, 2017 In Indigenous Cities Laura M Furlan demonstrates that stories of the urban experience are essential to an understanding of modern Indigeneity

She situates Native identity among theories of diaspora cosmopolitanism and transnationalism by examining urban narratives such as those written by Sherman Alexie Janet Campbell Hale Louise Erdrich and Susan Power along with the work of filmmakers and artists In these stories Native peoples navigate new surroundings find and reformulate community and maintain and redefine Indian identity in the postrelocation era These narratives illuminate the changing relationship between urban Indigenous peoples and their tribal nations and territories and the ways in which new cosmopolitan bonds both reshape and are interpreted by tribal identities Though the majority of American Indigenous populations do not reside on reservations these spaces regularly define discussions and literature about Native citizenship and identity Meanwhile conversations about the shift to urban settings often focus on elements of dispossession subjectivity and assimilation Furlan takes a critical look at Indigenous fiction from the last three decades to present a new way of looking at urban experiences that explains mobility and relocation as a form of resistance In these stories Indian bodies are not bound by state imposed borders or confined to Indian Country as it is traditionally conceived Furlan demonstrates that cities have always been Indian land and Indigenous peoples have always been cosmopolitan and urban

The Cambridge Companion to Native American Literature Joy Porter, Kenneth M. Roemer, 2005-07-21 An informative and wide ranging overview of Native American literature from the 1770s to present day

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing

Injun Joe's Ghost Harry John Brown, 2004 What does it mean to be a mixed blood and how has our understanding of this term changed over the last two centuries What processes have shaped American thinking on racial blending Why has the figure of the mixed blood thought too offensive for polite conversation in the nineteenth century become a major representative of twentieth century native consciousness In Injun Joe s Ghost Harry J Brown addresses these questions within the interrelated contexts of anthropology U S Indian policy and popular fiction by white and mixed blood writers mapping the evolution of hybridity from a biological to a cultural category Brown traces the processes that once mandated the mixed blood s exile as a grotesque or criminal outcast and that have recently brought about his ascendance as a cultural hero in contemporary Native American writing Because the myth of the demise of the Indian and the ascendance of the Anglo Saxon is traditionally tied to America s national idea nationalist literature depicts

Indian white hybrids in images of degeneracy atavism madness and even criminality A competing tradition of popular writing however often created by mixed blood writers themselves contests these images of the outcast half breed by envisioning hybrid vigor both biologically and linguistically as a model for a culturally heterogeneous nation Injun Joe's Ghost focuses on a significant figure in American history and culture that has until now remained on the periphery of academic discourse Brown offers an in depth discussion of many texts including dime novels and Depression era magazine fiction that have been almost entirely neglected by scholars This volume also covers texts such as the historical romances of the 1820s and the novels of the twentieth century Native American Renaissance from a fresh perspective Investigating a broad range of genres and subject over two hundred year of American writing Injun Joe's Ghost will be useful to students and professionals in the fields of American literature popular culture and native studies

Retrospection and Revision in Modern and Contemporary Art, Literature and Music Mette Gieskes, Mathilde Roza, 2024-01-03 This interdisciplinary book investigates the various ways in which North American and European modern and contemporary artists authors and musicians have returned to earlier works of their own engaging in inventive revivals and transformations of the past in the present The book is distinctive in its focus on such revisits as well as in the diversity of art forms under review in addition to visual art the book explores fiction poetry literary criticism film rock music and philosophy This scope together with the time span covered in the book from the 1850s to the twenty first century allows for a broad view on retrospection and revision The case studies presented here offer a multifaceted exploration of the widely different goals to which practitioners of the arts have made retrospection and revision functional against the background of cultural social political and personal forces

Hybridity Vanessa Guignery, Catherine Pessio-Miquel, François Specq, 2011-09-22 Over the last two decades the unstable notion of hybridity has been the focus of a number of debates in cultural and literary studies and has been discussed in connection with such notions as métissage creolization syncretism diaspora transculturation and in-betweenness The aim of this volume is to form a critical assessment of the scope significance and role of the notion in literature and the visual arts from the eighteenth century to the present day The contributors propose to examine the development and various manifestations of the concept as a principle held in contempt by the partisans of racial purity a process enthusiastically promoted by adepts of mixing and syncretism but also a notion viewed with suspicion by those who decry its multifarious and triumphalist dimensions and its lack of political roots The notion of hybridity is analysed in relation to the concepts of identity nationhood language and culture drawing from the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin Homi Bhabha Robert Young Paul Gilroy and Édouard Glissant among others Contributors examine forms of hybridity in the work of such canonical writers as Daniel Defoe Robert Louis Stevenson Thomas De Quincey and Victor Hugo as well as in contemporary American and British fiction Neo Victorian and postcolonial literature
