The Norton Anthology of American Literature Second Edition, 1985 Canons by Consensus Joseph Csicsila, 2004-08-17
Canons by Consensus is first systematic analysis of American literature textbooks used by college instructors in the last century Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics CliffsNotes Praxis II English Subject Area Assessments, Second Edition Diane E Kern, 2013-02-25 Your guide to a higher score on Praxis II English Subject Areas The Praxis II English Subject Area Assessment tests are designed to assess whether an examinee has the broad base of knowledge and competencies necessary to be licensed as a beginning English teacher in a variety of school settings The various exams some multiple choice questions and some essay format cover reading and understanding text language and linguistics and composition and rhetoric CliffsNotes Praxis II English Subject Area Assessments includes question type reviews subject reviews and six model practice tests for each of the Praxis II English tests that a variety of would be English teachers need to pass to be certified Includes subject reviews of all test topics 6 practice tests one for each Praxis II English test Proven strategies from the experts at CliffsNotes If you're an aspiring teacher looking to take the Praxis II English test CliffsNotes is your ticket to scoring high at exam time A Course Guide to Accompany the Norton Anthology of American Literature, Second Edition Marjorie Pryse, 1986 American Literature Hans Bertens, Theo D'haen, 2013-11-12 This comprehensive history of American Literature traces its development from the earliest colonial writings of the late 1500s through to the present day This lively engaging and highly accessible guide offers lucid discussions of all major influences and movements such as Puritanism Transcendentalism Realism Naturalism Modernism and Postmodernism draws on the historical cultural and political contexts of key literary texts and authors covers the whole range of American literature prose poetry theatre and experimental literature includes substantial sections on native and ethnic American literatures explains and contextualises major events terms and figures in American history This book is essential reading for anyone seeking to situate their reading of American Literature in the appropriate religious cultural and political contexts Songs of Ourselves Joan Shelley Rubin, 2010-03-30 Listen to a short interview with Joan Shelley Rubin Host Chris Gondek Producer

Heron Crane In the years between 1880 and 1950 Americans recited poetry at family gatherings school assemblies church services camp outings and civic affairs As they did so they invested poems and the figure of the poet with the beliefs values and emotions that they experienced in those settings Reciting a poem together with others joined the individual to the community in a special and memorable way In a strikingly original and rich portrait of the uses of verse in America Joan Shelley Rubin shows how the sites and practices of reciting poetry influenced readers lives and helped them to find meaning in a poet s words Emphasizing the cultural circumstances that influenced the production and reception of poets and poetry in this country Rubin recovers the experiences of ordinary people reading poems in public places We see the recent immigrant seeking acceptance the schoolchild eager to be integrated into the class the mourner sharing grief at a funeral the grandparent trying to bridge the generation gap all instances of readers remaking texts to meet social and personal needs Preserving the moral romantic and sentimental legacies of the nineteenth century the act of reading poems offered cultural continuity spiritual comfort and pleasure Songs of Ourselves is a unique history of literary texts as lived experience By blurring the boundaries between high and popular poetry as well as between modern and traditional it creates a fuller more democratic way of studying our poetic language and ourselves (Un)writing Empire Theo d'. American Literature from 1945 Through Today Adam Augustyn Assistant Manager and Assistant Editor, Literature, 2010-08-15 Explores the works and writers from post World War II America to today including Stephen Crane Arthur Miller and Allen Ginsberg The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric Vershawn Ashanti Young, Michelle Bachelor Robinson, 2024-11-01 The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric is a comprehensive compendium of primary texts that is designed for use by students teachers and scholars of rhetoric and for the general public interested in the history of African American communication The volume and its companion website include dialogues creative works essays folklore music interviews news stories raps videos and speeches that are performed or written by African Americans Both the book as a whole and the various selections in it speak directly to the artistic cultural economic gendered social and political condition of African Americans from the enslavement period in America to the present as well as to the Black Diaspora The Latest Early American Literature R. C. De Prosopo, 2016-01-21 The Latest Early American Literature according to readers for the University of Delaware Press is a collection of polemics and manifestoes In it R C De Prosopo bids to follow in the footsteps of the two rare early Americanist dissenters whom Philip F Gura once distinguished as prophets without honor in the field William Spengemann and Michael Colacurcio The book contends that a supposedly retired nationalist modernist telos continues to reign in most of the latest scholarship and even more influentially in all of the current literary histories and anthologies no matter how expansive in gender ethnic racial and hemispheric inclusiveness they profess to be Old teloi in particular that old American exceptionalist one can be cunning Updating and expanding upon essays written over the past thirty years De Prospro proposes not only negatively to critique how the latest scholarly receptions of early American literature differ insignificantly from the earlier ones but positively to propose how a transnationalist concession that as a neocolonial culture America s lags behind that of Europe might advance post modern historiography by radically repositioning the past as no longer the present s diachronic predecessor but to quote Lyotard s semiotics its synchronic differend Closer to earth De Prospro tries at the same time to remain mindful of the pedagogical imperative that ultimately to save the texts of early American literature will require making them legible to average non specialist never to become specialist undergraduate general education students To facilitate this he introduces in the concluding section of The Latest Early American Literature what will probably be taken as its most radical intervention the redefinition of Edgar Allan Poe as an early American writer

Friendly Metaphors Ewa Wełnic, Jacek Fisiak, 2008 This is a collection of essays to celebrate 45 years of Professor Aleksander Szwedek s academic endeavour and his impressive contribution to the development of linguistics in Poland and abroad The articles seek to represent an eclectic range of topics in linguistics literature and cultural studies They reflect the versatile and influential nature of Professor Szwedek s work and have been contributed by colleagues and former pupils now active in a variety of academic fields within English studies All have been inspired in various ways by the work and teaching of Aleksander Szwedek

The Making of T.S. Eliot Joseph Maddrey, 2009-05-13 This chronological survey of major influences on T S Eliot s worldview covers the poet s spiritual and intellectual evolution in stages by trying to see the world as Eliot did It examines his childhood influences as well as the literary influences that inspired him to write his earliest poetry his life as an American expatriate living in London from 1915 to 1930 including his ill fated marriage and his intellectual engagement with the literary traditions of his new country and the ways in which his intellectual pursuits fostered a spiritual rebirth that simultaneously reflected his past and revealed his future demonstrating how the early Romantic revolutionary became a staunch defender of tradition

Reading America Elizabeth Boyle, 2009-03-26 This specially commissioned volume of essays offers a refreshing and unusual perspective on classic novels from the American literary canon Accessible to students scholars and the interested reader this engaging collection explores familiar novels through unfamiliar lenses and in so doing sheds light on surprising and previously overlooked aspects of each text Reading America presents a new approach to American literature by showcasing a cross section of recent research into previously untapped areas of interest Each chapter attempts to reread classic American texts using new or unorthodox theoretical frameworks including such diverse topics as an Emersonian reading of Don DeLillo decoding Thomas Pynchon with eco criticism and understanding Paul Auster's New York Trilogy by exploring the graphic novel version of City of Glass Other authors explored in this way include Henry James Truman Capote Ralph Ellison Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and F Scott Fitzgerald This type of approach widens the reader's knowledge of each well known text and encourages new critical evaluations of contemporary American literature The collection moves through six large topic areas from Naturalism and an idea of the Great American Novel at the end of the nineteenth century through politics sexuality language and nature to a contemporary engagement with postmodernism Each essay deals with its own particular subject and author but the full impact of each on the notion of the American novel as a phenomenon can only be understood when read in conjunction with the others Of interest to both undergraduate and postgraduate students Reading America would be a valuable asset to any American Studies or American Literature degree course and a useful companion to American History or Politics courses The volume will also attract strong interest from established academics especially those researching the fields of literature critical theory cultural history and politics

Bisexual Imaginary Bi Academic Intervention, 1997-01-01 This collection of essays focuses on historical and contemporary representations of bisexuality both real and imagined in literature film and the visual arts They ask questions concerning what it means to desire both men and women and explores the role of bisexuality in the construction of every person's sexual identity
