Impermanent Blackness Korey Garibaldi,2025-02-04 Revisiting an almost forgotten American interracial literary culture that advanced racial pluralism in the decades before the 1960s In Impermanent Blackness Korey Garibaldi explores interracial collaborations in American commercial publishing authors agents and publishers who forged partnerships across racial lines from the 1910s to the 1960s Garibaldi shows how aspiring and established Black authors and editors worked closely with white interlocutors to achieve publishing success often challenging stereotypes and advancing racial pluralism in the process Impermanent Blackness explores the complex nature of this almost forgotten period of interracial publishing by examining key developments including the mainstream success of African American authors in the 1930s and 1940s the emergence of multiracial children s literature postwar tensions between supporters of racial cosmopolitanism and of Negro literature and the impact of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements on the legacy of interracial literary culture By the end of the 1960s some literary figures once celebrated for pushing the boundaries of what Black writing could be including the anthologist W S Braithwaite the bestselling novelist Frank Yerby the memoirist Juanita Harrison and others were forgotten or criticized as too white And yet Garibaldi argues these figures at once dreamers and pragmatists have much to teach us about building an inclusive society Revisiting their work from a contemporary perspective Garibaldi breaks new ground in the cultural history of race in the United States

Gerstcker's Louisiana Irene S. Di Maio, 2006-09-01 A global traveler and adventurer the German author Friedrich Gerstcker 1816 1872 first arrived in Louisiana in March 1838 paddling the waterways leading from the wilds of the northwestern part of the state near

Shreveport south to cosmopolitan New Orleans He returned to the state in 1842 living for a year in the areas of Bayou Sara St Francisville and Pointe Coup e then considered the most beautiful garden and plantation land along the Mississippi River In 1867 he briefly visited Louisiana again observing the devastation wrought by the Civil War and the turmoil of Reconstruction No mere armchair tourist Gerst cker fully engaged himself in exploring Louisiana its landscapes peoples and Peculiar Institution He was in the unique position of being both an insider and an outsider and his sojourns in the state served as the basis for travel books short stories and novels Gerst cker was a remarkable raconteur and a highly popular author During his lifetime and beyond his writings conveyed the tenor of southern life to a German speaking audience Now compiled and translated into English by Irene S Di Maio they offer a window on nineteenth century Louisiana across several decades of growth and upheaval Gerst cker s aim as a writer was to inform and entertain especially through humor drama and suspense His works including his fiction sustain an almost ethnographic level of detail The stories travel sketches and novel excerpts included here comment on slavery and its aftermath ethnic and racial diversity transcultural relations and immigration and multilingualism Gerst cker s impressions of Louisiana remain relevant and deeply engaging The Isle of Pines, 1668 John Scheckter,2016-03-09 A short fiction of shipwreck and discovery written by the politician Henry Neville 1620 1694 The Isle of Pines is only beginning to draw critical attention and until now no scholarly edition of the work has appeared In the first full length study of The Isle of Pines supported by the first fully critical edition John Scheckter discloses how Neville s work offers a critique of scientific discourse enacts complicated engagements of race and gender and interrogates the methods and consequences of European exploration The volume offers a new critical model for applying post colonial and postmodern examination strategies to an early modern work Scheckter argues that the structure and publication history of the fiction with its separate unreliable narrators along with its several topics shipwreck survival the founding of a new society the initial phases of European colonization are imbued with the sense of uncertainty that permeated the era

Representing Mixed Race in Jamaica and England from the Abolition Era to the Present S. Salih,2010-09-30 This study considers cultural representations of brown people in Jamaica and England alongside the determinations of race by statute from the Abolition era onwards Through close readings of contemporary fictions and histories Salih probes the extent to which colonial ideologies may have been underpinned by what might be called subject constituting statutes along with the potential for force and violence which necessarily undergird the law The author explores the role legal and non legal discourse plays in disciplining the brown body in pre and post Abolition colonial contexts as well as how are other bodies and identities e g black white are discursively disciplined Salih examines whether or not it s possible to say that non legal texts such as prose fictions are engaged in this kind of discursive disciplining and more broadly looks at what contemporary formulations of mixed identity owe to these legal or non legal discursive formations This study demonstrates the striking connections between historical and contemporary discourses of race and brownness and argues for a shift in the ways we think about represent and discuss mixed race people

Staging Blackness and Performing Whiteness in

Eighteenth-Century German Drama Wendy Sutherland, 2017-05-15 Focusing on eighteenth century cultural productions Wendy Sutherland examines how representations of race in philosophy anthropology aesthetics drama and court painting influenced the construction of a white bourgeois German self Sutherland positions her work within the framework of the transatlantic slave trade showing that slavery colonialism and the triangular trade between Europe West Africa and the Caribbean function as the global stage on which German bourgeois dramas by Friedrich Wilhelm Ziegler Ernst Lorenz Rathlef and Theodor K rner and a novella by Heinrich von Kleist on which K rner s play was based were performed against a backdrop of philosophical and anthropological influences Plays had an important role in educating the rising bourgeois class in morality Sutherland argues with fathers and daughters offered as exemplary moral figures in contrast to the depraved aristocracy At the same time black female protagonists in nontraditional dramas represent the boundaries of physical beauty and marriage eligibility while also complicating ideas of moral beauty embodied in the concept of the beautiful soul Her book offers convincing evidence that the eighteenth century German stage grappled with the representation of blackness during the Age of Goethe even though the German states were neither colonial powers nor direct participants in the slave trade
