Anthracite Ghosts:

Anthracite Ghosts Walter Dinteman, 1995 Ghost Excavator John G Sabol Jr., 2007-05-22 This book is a ghost story meant to be read on cold dark windy and snow covered wintry nights These are not traditional tales of haunted houses but rather are personal narratives of cultural hauntings of long forgotten histories of ethnic struggles and Native American beliefs It is an image of a landscape and its people that goes far deeper than the mere surface manifestations of ruined and abandoned structures and the bits and pieces of broken dreams and aspirations This is a different kind of embedded narrative It is an excavation that penetrates to the very heart of ghostly drama Experiences conceptualized as a form of haunting provide a framework for the recall of various incidents of personal memory and emotional resonance at specific places This serves two purposes It creates a personal landscape characterized by elements of spookiness once dense forests abandoned structures and mineshafts coal patches uncertainties that result in episodic haunting dramas the socioeconomic impact of ethnic migrations and ghostly presences interpretations of these ethnic groups as a response to their physical surroundings It provides a framework in the 2nd part for the analysis of other similar haunted landscapes A methodology is used that incorporates techniques derived from archaeology ethnography and performance studies In doing so it introduces a new multidisciplinary research methodology called Ethnoarchaeoghostology This book is a dedicatory salute however humble to the achievements and daily struggles of those who came before to inhabit this Mahanoy Area These hauntings fill in the blank spaces between the words in historical narratives and thus gives the reader a different image of events in local and regional social histories In doing so they show that greatness is not measured by the content of what we do but how on a daily basis we do it Bodies of Substance, Fragments of Memories John G. Sabol Jr., 2009-03-27 Ghost Research is archaeological work that requires specific field practices This book introduces the investigative techniques of a ghost archaeology This is defined as a scientific discipline of the ordinary a search for the repetitive patterns of cultural behavior that can be unearthed during an field investigation Six case studies of cultural hauntings are presented which illustrate the usefulness of archaeological methodology and techniques in field research The investigation of ghostly presence at Gettysburg in the anthracite coal region at Eastern State Penitentiary in Philadelphia and a Civil War haunting in Petersburg Virginia are cited These investigations show how potential evidential data can be uncovered if only the investigators would maintain an archaeological sensibility in their fieldwork operations Aliens, Ghosts, and Cults Bill Ellis, 2003 Ghost Town Stories of Alberta Johnnie Bachusky, 2011-02-01 Today many of the historic coal mining communities of the Rocky Mountains are uninhabited ghost towns Yet behind the crumbled ruins are tales of perseverance danger and romance A devastating mine explosion on Halloween shatters the lives of mining families in Nordegg The miners of Mountain Park build a hockey rink still celebrated in local lore A young immigrant couple in Mercoal establishes a successful business only to have their love story sadly cut short These 11 dramatic and poignant ghost town tales are sure to fascinate all who love pioneer history Mining Disasters of the Wyoming Valley Bryan Glahn, 2016-02-22 Ten year old Willie Hatton was excited to visit his father at the Avondale Mine on the morning of September 6 1869 Sadly Willie would die in his father's arms that day and so would 108 other miners all victims of a horrific fire that tore through the shaft trapping the men and boys and blocking the only exit The communities of the Wyoming Valley know firsthand the human cost of the anthracite industry From a cave in at Twin Shaft to an explosion at the Baltimore Tunnel to the Susquehanna River crashing through the roof at Knox thousands of miners left for work in the morning never to return Sadly few of the tragedies could be called accidents Profits took precedence over safety leaving workers to pay the price for negligence corruption and greed Jeep Trails to Colorado Ghost Towns Robert L. Brown, 1963 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press Settle into your four wheel drive vehicle or a chair and take off for the mining camps of Colorado This book is an illustrated history of fifty nine towns famous during the gold and silver rushes of the 1800s with directions on how to get to each

Digging-Deep John G. Sabol Jr., 2009-09-25 Digging Deep is an excavation of the archaeological site called John Sabol It is an unearthing of the author's memory of experiences of past presences that cuts across space time and culture Water mining operations dust and dirt dogs and wolves and ghosts are seen as important features that are recovered from these memory excavations Some of the recalled practices that are unearthed include an alternative remembrance of trick or treat the multiple symmetrical worlds of history myth and ghosts in Winchester England the haunting nature of archaeological excavations and field surveys the actor's encounters with more than a filmed death scene and a search for a legendary monster in Arkansas All of these memories are perceived as symmetrically interrelated though they originate in different places They are viewed as a form of theatrical ghosting a resonating element that unfolds time as events and activities are framed by their contemporary significance in the author's life In this process of excavation a recurring haunting drama manifests in the life of this archaeologist who also happens to be a cultural anthropologist actor and ghost excavator

Ghost of 22 Mountain George Morrison, 2004-05 Ghost of 22 Mountain is the story of a woman who met death under mysterious circumstances when she was still young The story is set in the mountains of West Virginia where the victim was born and lived Of the dozens of people who might have committed the crime of murder only one paid the price He was a young black who served as handyman in the urban estate where Mamie Thurman lived with her husband the policeman on the downtown beat of Logan West Virginia It is not likely that Clarence Stephenson was the guilty party even if he were involved in a most unlikely way in the disposition of the body of Mamie Thurman There were many others who could have killed the lovely Mamie all of them members of the urban elite of the small West Virginia town Mamie was a promiscuous flapper known to all of those who ran things in the town of Logan Who was the real killer Ghost of 22 Mountain offers the enticing story of all the candidates while leaving the decision with you

The Telltale Lilac Bush and Other West Virginia Ghost Tales Ruth Ann Musick, 2010-09-12 West Virginia boasts an unusually rich heritage of ghost tales Originally West Virginians told these hundred stories not for idle amusement but to report supernatural experiences that defied ordinary human explanation From jealous rivals and ghostly children to murdered kinsmen and omens of death these tales reflect the inner lives the hopes beliefs and fears of a people Like all folklore these tales reveal much of the history of the region its isolation and violence the passions and bloodshed of the Civil War era the hardships of miners and railroad laborers and the lingering vitality of Old World traditions

Ghosts and Things Aviva Briefel, 2025-04-15 Ghosts and Things argues that Victorians turned to the dead to understand the material culture of their present With the rise of spiritualism in Britain in the early 1850s sances invited participants to contact ghosts using material things from ordinary household furniture to specialized technologies invented to register the presence of spirits In its supernatural object lessons Victorian spiritualism was not just a mystical movement centered on the dead but also a practical resource for learning how to negotiate the uncanniness of life under capitalism Aviva Briefel explores how spiritualism compelled sance participants to speculate on the manufacture of spectral clothing ponder the hidden histories and energies of parlor furniture confront the humiliations of consumerism as summoned spirits pelted them with exotic fruits and comprehend modes of mechanical reproduction like photography and electrotyping that had the power to shape identities Briefel argues that spiritualist practices and the objects they employed offered both believers and skeptics unexpected frameworks for grappling with the often invisible forces of labor consumption exploitation and exchange that haunted their everyday lives Ghosts and Things reveals how spiritualism's explorations of the borderland between life and death matter and spirit produced a strange and seductive combination of wonder and discomfort that allowed participants to experience the possibilities and precarities of industrial modernity in novel ways
