Anthropology A Human Science Selected Papers 1939 1960:

Anthropology, a Human Science Ursula Bellugi, 1964      Anthropology Margaret Mead, 1964      Theoretical Anthropology David Bidney, Theoretical Anthropology is a major contribution to the historical and critical study of the assumptions underlying the development of modern cultural anthropology In the new introduction Martin Bidney discusses the present state of anthropology and contrasts it with the scene surveyed in Theoretical Anthropology He discusses the relevance of David Bidney's work to our present concerns Also included in this work is the second edition's introductory essay by David Bidney written fifteen years after the first edition of Theoretical Anthropology Here the author examines his original aims in writing this book Theoretical Anthropology has helped to create among anthropologists the present climate of theoretical self awareness and broad humanistic concerns It has become a standard reference work for anthropologists as well as sociologists

Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer, 2019-09-12 A look at a prize winning documentarian whose work with aboriginal Australians and others united the fields of film and anthropology in the 1960s and 70s In Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer argues that while social anthropology and documentary film share historic roots and goals particularly on the continent of Australia their trajectories have tended to remain separate This book reunites film and anthropology through the works of Roger Sandall a New Zealand born filmmaker and Columbia University graduate who was part of the vibrant avant garde and social documentary film culture in New York in the 1960s Mentored by Margaret Mead in anthropology and Cecile Starr in fine arts Sandall was eventually hired as the one man film unit at the newly formed Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1965 In the 1970s he became a lecturer in anthropology at the University of Sydney Sandall won First Prize for Documentary at the Venice Film Festival in 1968 yet his films are scarcely known even in Australia now Mortimer demonstrates how Sandall's films continue to be relevant to contemporary discussions in the fields of anthropology and documentary studies She ties exploration of the making and restriction of Sandall's aboriginal films and his nonrestricted films made in Mexico Australia and India to the radical history of anthropology and the resurgence today of an expanded existential phenomenological anthropology that encompasses the vital connections between humans animals things and our environment

Indigenous Studies and Engaged Anthropology Paul Sillitoe, 2016-05-23 Advancing the rising field of engaged or participatory anthropology that is emerging at the same time as increased opposition from Indigenous peoples to research this book offers critical reflections on research approaches to date The engaged approach seeks to change the researcher researched relationship fundamentally to make methods more appropriate and beneficial to communities by involving them as participants in the entire process from choice of research topic onwards The aim is not only to change power relationships but also engage with non academic audiences The advancement of such an egalitarian and inclusive approach to research can provoke strong opposition Some argue that it threatens academic rigour and worry about the undermining of disciplinary authority Others point to the difficulties of establishing an appropriately non ethnocentric moral stance and navigating the complex problems communities face Drawing on the experiences of Indigenous scholars anthropologists and development professionals acquainted with a range of cultures this book furthers our understanding of pressing issues such as interpretation transmission and ownership of Indigenous knowledge and appropriate ways to represent and communicate it All the contributors recognise the plurality of knowledge and incorporate perspectives that derive at least in part from other ways of being in the world

Richard Wright's Travel Writings Virginia Whatley Smith,2012-01-31 Attracted to remote lands by his interest in the postcolonial struggle Richard Wright 1908 1960 became one of the few African Americans of his time to engage in travel writing He went to emerging nations not as a sightseer but as a student of their cultures learning the politics and the processes of social transformation When Wright fled from the United States in 1946 to live as an expatriate in Paris he was exposed to intellectual thoughts and challenges that transcended his social and political education in America Three events broadened his world view his introduction to French existentialism the rise of the Pan Africanist movement to decolonize Africa and Indonesia s declaration of independence from colonial rule in 1945 During the 1950s as he traveled to emerging nations his encounters produced four travel narratives Black Power 1953 The Color Curtain 1956 Pagan Spain 1956 and White Man Listen 1957 Upon his death in 1960 he left behind an unfinished book on French West Africa which exists only in notes outlines and a draft Written by multinational scholars this collection of essays exploring Wright s travel writings shows how in his hands the genre of travel writing resisted adapted or modified the forms and formats practiced by white authors Enhanced by nine photographs taken by Wright during his travels the essays focus on each of Wright s four separate narratives as well as upon his unfinished book and reveal how Wright drew on such non Western influences as the African American slave narrative and Asian literature of protest and resistance The essays critique Wright s representation of customs and people and employ a broad range of interpretive modes including the theories of formalism feminism and postmodernism among others Wright s travel books are proved here to be innovative narratives that laid down the roots of such later genres as postcolonial literature contemporary travel writing and resistance literature Virginia Whatley Smith is an associate professor of English at the University of Alabama Birmingham Her work has appeared in African American Review Mississippi Quarterly and MLA Approaches to Teaching Wright s Native Son

International Bibliography of the Social Sciences International Committee for Social Sciences,1967-04 First published in 1967 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Women Anthropologists Ute Gacs,1988 A wealth of information on the lives and work of 58 women whose professional activities include social cultural and physical anthropology archaeology folklore linguistics art writing and political activism

The Proceedings of the Louisiana Academy of Sciences Louisiana Academy of Sciences,1968

A Critical Dictionary of Sociology Raymond Boudon,Francois Bourricaud,2002-09-10 Unlike most other sociology or social science dictionaries in this translation of the Critical Dictionary of Sociology taken from the second French edition of the Dictionary and edited by the English sociologist Peter Hamilton the critical value of this distinctive work is at last made available for a wider audience Each entry grapples directly with an issue whether theoretical epistemological philosophical political or empirical and provides a strong statement of what the authors think about it The discussions are considered but argumentative By reaffirming that a non marxist style of critique is still possible Boudon and Bourricaud have presented a distinctive approach to the key issues which confront the societies of the Twentieth and Twenty First centuries For some this work will be a textbook for others an indispensable sourcebook of sociological concepts and for most a way of opening our eyes to new dimensions in our understanding of the great ideas and theories of sociology Margaret Mead

W.

Watson,1999-01-20 This book draws on the experience of international anthropologists from Italy the Himalayas Northern England Bangladesh and Indonesia Being There examines the close relationships anthropologists establish with friends and informants in the field Collectively they describe the varying ways in which that closeness affects the nature of the anthropologists observation as well as an understanding of themselves and their discipline Traditional Political System of the Binjhals Premananda Panda (Anthropologist),2005 Salient Features Recorded the unrecorded past and reconstructed the socio political nexus through the game of political dominance and territorial expansion Unmasked the reality of tribal politics through theories and models explaining the hierarchy of power that roots in peoples history on land forest water and deities Unveiled the careful engineering of the socio cultural matrix explaining the principles of primitive state formation Explained the power vestige and help readers know the modern political system as a process of reorientation of forms and contents at the grassroots Advocated that nothing escapes from politics be it strategies for achieving power and or maintenance of dominance The cross cultural comparison enhances the power of analysis of students scholars teachers developers and government officials who love to benefit from stratagems and spoils of political change     Trends and Movements in Modern Arabic Poetry Salma Khadra Jayyusi,1977     Proceedings Louisiana Academy of Sciences,1968

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1967 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June     Unmasking the African Ghost Cyril Orji,2022-04-26 The story of Africa is a ghost story with two plots One is foreign or imported and the other indigenous or local The foreign plot has its origin in colonial history The indigenous plot is African in origin But both plots end in the same place African trauma and culture complex These narratives create in modern Africa a splintered consciousness and the political and economic conditions that lead to physical and psychological violence Unmasking the African Ghost is both a theological exploration of the reasons the political and economic systems in African countries have failed and a proposal for the paths toward recovery anchored in the belief that Africa is a continent continuously trying to redefine its identity in the face of Eurocentrism For the church in Africa to be a church at the service of its people theology in Africa must take misery and oppression as the context for its reflections and its reconstruction of the social order An African solution to African problems must be able to meet the needs of the time It must look to the African past to draw from its riches particularly the African sociopolitical ethic of ubuntu It must also look ahead and draw from the best available sociopolitical system of modern states liberal democracy A hybrid of these two yields ubuntuocracy Ubuntuocracy removes the ghosts of both Africa and its Western colonizers and begins a new story that can help Africa survive its double bind     Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

And Keep Your Powder Dry Margaret Mead,2000 Margaret Mead wrote this comprehensive sketch of the culture of the United States the first since de Tocqueville in 1942 at the beginning of the Second World War when Americans were confronted by foreign powers from both Europe and Asia in a particularly challenging manner Mead s work became an instant classic It was required reading for anthropology students for nearly two decades and was widely translated It was revised and expanded in 1965 for a second generation of readers Among the more controversial conclusions of her analysis are the denial of class as a motivating force in American culture and her contention that culture is the primary determinant for individual character formation Her process remains lucid vivid and arresting As a classic study of a complex western society it remains a monument to anthropological analysis
