Bailey, 1975 Traces the art of clockmaking from the era of handcrafting to present day automation Early American Clocks Don Maust, 1973 Castorland Journal Simon Desjardins, Pierre Pharoux, 2010 Intro Contents Illustrations Preface Introduction Castorland Journal 1793 Castorland Journal 1794 Castorland Journal 1795 Castorland Journal 1796 1797 Prospectus of the New York Company Constitution Of the New York Company Letter to Nicolas Olive Synopsis of Travel Overview of Castorland Workers Currency and Measures Place Names in the Castorland Journal Notes Bibliography Index Henry's Attic Ford Richardson Bryan, 1995 Henry's Attic provides fascinating documentation of some of the one million artifacts in the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village The items represent both Henry Ford's passion for collecting Americana and the astonishing array of gifts some of great historic value and others of a distinctly homegrown variety that account for almost half of the museum's collections It was the quantity of these gifts and the unusual and even unique nature of many of them that provided the inspiration for this book Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village which Ford established in Dearborn Michigan in the late 1920s was intended to recreate the slow paced rural character of America before the advent of the automobile The purchases he made and the gifts he was given reflect his desire to document and preserve the lifeways of common people and to emphasize middle class rural history as represented by the tools of agriculture industry and transportation Art & Industry in Early America Patricia E. Kane, Dennis Andrew Carr, Jennifer N. Johnson, Gary R. Sullivan, Nancy Goynes Evans, 2016-01-01 This book presents new information on the export trade patronage artistic collaboration and the small scale shop traditions that defined early Rhode Island craftsmanship This stunning volume features more than 200 illustrations of beautifully constructed and carved objects including chairs high chests bureau tables and clocks that demonstrate the superb workmanship and artistic skill of the state's furniture makers KEEPING WATCH PB Michael O'Malley, 1996-04-17 Focusing on the period from 1820 to 1920 Keeping Watch details the far reaching changes in American society brought about by the transition from natural to mechanical sources of time from farmers almanacs and religious formulations of time to regional time zones synchronized watches and factory punch clocks Michael O Malley show how the pressures of industrialization the emergence of the telegraph and the spread of railroads led to a demand for uniform consistent schedules Chronicling particular communities resistance to standard time and later daylight saving time Keeping Watch also examines the cut and paste manipulation of real time in motion pictures The cumulative impact of these technological changes O Malley argues was momentous creating a harsher ethic of punctuality and an unprecedented degree of labor regimentation Book jacket

Seventy-Seven Museum Gems Jan Young, 2016-10-05 There are thousands of museums in the USA almost all of interest and almost all a source of learning but after a while they tend to blur together How many stuffed buffalo are enough How many re created country stores How many gun collections This book lists and describes seventy seven American museums including a few non museum attractions that definitely stand out due to their uniqueness and the depth to which they document their subject Many are small and only lightly promoted some are in out of the way places some are quirky or even odd but all are memorable and well worth a visit

Marking Modern Times Alexis McCrossen, 2013-05-01 Tells a story of a period when the quest for accurate timekeeping became an obsession in the US Choice The public spaces and buildings of the United States are home to many thousands of timepieces bells time balls and clock faces that tower over urban streets peek out from lobbies and gleam in store windows And in the streets and squares beneath them men women and children wear wristwatches of all kinds Americans have decorated their homes with clocks and included them in their poetry sermons stories and songs And as political instruments social tools and cultural symbols these personal and public timekeepers have enjoyed a broad currency in art life and culture In Marking Modern Times Alexis McCrossen relates how the American preoccupation with time led people from across social classes to acquire watches and clocks While noting the difficulties in regulating and synchronizing so many timepieces McCrossen expands our understanding of the development of modern time discipline delving into the ways we have standardized time and describing how timekeepers have served as political social and cultural tools in a society that doesn't merely value time but regards access to time as a natural born right a privilege of being an American A precise acute and well measured monograph Journal of Social History Important and engaging Journal of American History An innovative contribution on a key historical shift in modern life Urban History An authoritative narrative of how and where time and timepieces were distributed in the period Reviews in American History

Early American Scientific Instruments and Their Makers Silvio A. Bedini, 1964 Within recent years fairly exhaustive studies have been made on many aspects on American Science and Technology To make a comprehensive study of American scientific instruments and instrument makers in the American Colonies is no simple matter partly because of an indifference to the subject in the past and partly because of the great volume of sources that must be sifted to accomplish it
