Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-20 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazz Humber's epitaph, casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond. This 230-page volume is his granite monument, well polished. It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years. The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations. Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections. And when they do, they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events. Mr. Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston. With lively enthusiasm, he reports what it was like to live in post-World War II Boston, to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States, or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities, or to shine the shoes of a Derby-hatted father of a future President of the United States. It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect, to recall, or to have memories that are treasured. But to tell them with literary aplomb, to recall the events that happened nearly seventy-five years ago with utmost clarity, is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr. Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections. Antique Trader Book

Singular Continuities George K. Behlmer, F. M. Leventhal, 2000. This volume explores the appropriation of the past in modern British culture. The twelve essays argue that to distinguish between the new and the traditional today often draws a false dichotomy. It argues that Britishness in fact has been the product of continuous creation throughout the 19th and 20th centuries.

The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850 Mark Westgarth, 2020-04-07. Rather than the customary focus on the activities of individual collectors, The Emergence of the Antique and Curiosity Dealer in Britain 1815-1850: The Commodification of Historical Objects illuminates the less studied roles played by dealers in the nineteenth-century antique and curiosity markets. Set against the recent art market turn in scholarly literature, this volume examines the role, activities, agency, and influence of antique and curiosity dealers as they emerged in the opening decades of the nineteenth century. This study begins at the end of the Napoleonic Wars, when dealers began their wholesale importations of historical objects; it closes during the 1850s, after which the trade became increasingly specialised, reflecting the rise of historical museums such as the South Kensington Museum (V&A). Focusing on the archive of the early nineteenth-century London dealer John Coleman Isaac (c. 1803-1887), as well as drawing on a wide range of other archival and contextual material, Mark Westgarth considers the emergence of the dealer in relation to a broad historical and cultural landscape. The emergence of the antique and curiosity dealer was part of the rapid economic, social, political, and cultural change of early nineteenth-century Britain, centred around ideas of antiquarianism, the commercialisation of culture, and a distinctive and evolving interest in historical objects. This book will be of interest to scholars in art history, histories of collecting, museum and heritage studies and nineteenth century culture

COLLECTOR'S EDITION - COMPLETE RAFFLES SERIES & SHERLOCK HOLMES ADVENTURES: 60+ Novels & Stories in One Volume (Mystery & Crime Classics) Arthur Conan Doyle, John Kendrick Bangs, E. W. Hornung, 2024-01-13

COLLECTOR'S EDITION COMPLETE RAFFLES SERIES SHERLOCK HOLMES ADVENTURES presents an exceptional collection that traverses the landscape of mystery and crime fiction. Encompassing over 60 novels and stories, this anthology encapsulates the daring escapades of the quintessential detective Sherlock Holmes and the artful adventures of Raffles the gentleman thief. The collection spans early foundational tales to later remarkable ones, blending Holmes' methodical brilliance in solving enigmas with Raffles' charm in his clandestine endeavors. This juxtaposition not only teases out the shared DNA of mystery fiction but also underscores the richness and evolution of late 19th and early 20th century detective narratives. The anthology brings together the ingenious narratives of Arthur Conan Doyle, John Kendrick Bangs, and E. W. Hornung. Doyle's creation of Sherlock Holmes laid the groundwork for analytical crime solving in literature, while Hornung's brother-in-law cleverly inverted the detective story with Raffles, providing an antihero whose finesse and audacity contrast Holmes' introspective precision. Meanwhile, Bangs offers a masterful mix of satire and suspense, rounding out the collection's exploration of crime fiction tropes. Collectively, these authors reflect the social and cultural milieu of their time while also influencing burgeoning literary movements in suspense and criminality. Recommended to both aficionados of mystery fiction and newcomers alike, this anthology offers a thorough survey of the genre's classic roots. Enthusiasts will relish the seamless interchange of protagonists spanning different sides of the law, while those new to the tales will appreciate the anthology's educational merit in illustrating the narrative craft of Doyle, Bangs, and Hornung. Readers are invited to discover the nuanced dialogue between these works, each offering a unique perspective on crime and mastery, enriching our understanding of this celebrated literary tradition.
