Antireligious Propaganda In The Soviet Union A Study Of Mass Persuasion:

Marxist-Leninist 'Scientific Atheism' and the Study of Religion and Atheism in the USSR James Thrower, 2011-04-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline Antireligious Propaganda in the Soviet Union David E. Powell, 1975-01-01 The Social Legacy of Communism James R. Millar, Sharon L. Wolchik, 1994-08-26 This book analyzes the social impact of the transition from communism in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union Religion and Jewish Identity in the Soviet Union, 1941-1964 Mordechai Altshuler, 2012 Unearths the roots of a national awakening among Soviet Jews during World War II and its aftermath Soviet and Kosher Anna Shternshis, 2006-05-21 Kosher pork an oxymoron Anna Shternshis s fascinating study traces the creation of a Soviet Jewish identity that disassociated Jewishness from Judaism The cultural transformation of Soviet Jews between 1917 and 1941 was one of the most ambitious experiments in social engineering of the past century During this period Russian Jews went from relative isolation to being highly integrated into the new Soviet culture and society while retaining a strong ethnic and cultural identity This identity took shape during the 1920s and 1930s when the government attempted to create a new Jewish culture national in form and socialist in content Soviet and Kosher is the first study of key Yiddish documents that brought these Soviet messages to Jews notably the Red Haggadah a Soviet parody of the traditional Passover manual songs about Lenin and Stalin scripts from regional theaters Socialist Realist fiction and magazines for children and adults More than 200 interviews conducted by the author in Russia Germany and the United States testify to the reception of these cultural products and provide a unique portrait of the cultural life of the average Soviet Jew Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 Power and the Sacred in Revolutionary Russia Glennys Young, 2010-11 After the 1917 Revolution in Russia the Bolsheviks launched a massive assault on religion Although we know a great deal about how the Bolsheviks went about doing this propaganda persecution of clergy and laity seizing church property scholars have not devoted much attention to the other side of the story the people who were being persecuted and how they responded to their persecutors Glennys Young shows how ordinary Russian peasants devised ways of asserting their religious faith during the difficult period of New Economic Policy 1921-28 when the Party state was ideologically obsessed with eradicating religion Faced with persecution torture and the creation of antireligious organizations such as the League of the Godless Orthodox clergy and laity organized themselves against the Bolsheviks They revived factional politics even using the village soviets the intended cornerstone of Soviet power in the countryside to defend their religious interests When they achieved some degree of success in their resistance the Bolsheviks were forced to respond and adapt their strategies a conclusion that scholars have not put forward previously Based on extensive research in archives and published sources Young's book will force historians of Soviet Russia to confront religious issues as central to rural politics Her work also draws upon cultural anthropology and theories of peasant politics making it of great interest to any scholars studying the processes of secularization and desacralization in other cultures Russian and Soviet Education 1731-1989 John T. Zepper, William W. Brickman, 2014-02-04 Volume 9 in the series of Reference Books in International Education This bibliography is intended to provide a reference aid to mature Russian Soviet scholars to those beginning a life long study of this field and to students in Russian Soviet Studies and allied fields This title provides a resource to scholars students and professionals seeking to understand the role played by education in various societies or regions of the world

Religious Persecution in the Soviet Union United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs, 1976 The Anthem Companion to Peter Berger Jonathan B. Imber, 2023-01-10 Peter L Berger 1929 2017 was among the most prominent sociologists of the past half century He co authored with Thomas Luckmann The Social Construction of Reality considered to be a modern classic of social science His work on social theory the sociology of religion third world development and the role of capitalism in modern life define his enduring importance as a leading figure in social science Berger established an international reputation for his various studies of economic development in different parts of the world including Central America and South Africa Civil Religion in Israel Charles S. Liebman, Eliezer Don-yehiya, 2024-03-29 This study explores the profound influence of Judaism on the political culture of the Jewish settlement in the Land of Israel spanning from the prestate yishuv period to the present day Focusing on the concept of civil religion defined as the ceremonials myths and creeds that legitimize the social order foster unity and mobilize society toward its key political goals the research examines how these elements often rooted in Jewish tradition have shaped the political and moral community of Israel Civil religion representing what is most sacred in a political culture has played a distinctive role in unifying the population and guiding political aims within modern Jewish society in Israel The book traces the evolution of civil religion in Israel highlighting its decline in recent years as a key shift in Israeli political culture Organized into chapters that define terms detail the development of civil religions over time and explore the responses of religious Jews the study culminates in a comprehensive analysis of the topic Drawing on research supported by grants from the Israel Foundations Trustees and Bar Ilan University the authors offer a collaborative and in depth examination of civil religion's dynamic presence and transformation within Israeli society shedding light on one of the most significant elements of its political and cultural identity This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1983 Understanding Soviet

Society Michael Paul Sacks, Jerry G. Pankhurst, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1988 Understanding Soviet Society has grown out of the authors experience as sociologists researching and teaching about the Soviet Union Meant initially as an update to Contemporary Soviet Society Sociological Perspectives from 1980 this became a new volume because of the addition of six new authors but also because of the major changes occurring in the USSR today that in many ways necessitated new approaches It examines the fundamental institutions of Soviet society from work and social welfare to politics and the Party in order to provide an objective understanding of the social underpinnings of the Soviet System Enchanted Revolution Xiaofei Kang, 2023 The theoretical methodological and comparative frameworks for the discussion of religion gender and revolutionary propaganda in China It then places this discussion in the historical context of wartime Communist headquarters of Yan'an where the Party launched its first mass campaign against superstition in 1944-45 The campaign illustrates how Mao's mass line principle compelled propaganda workers to engage with the rural culture in order to create new meanings from old knowledge Educational Freedom in Eastern Europe Charles Leslie Glenn, 1994 The Cambridge Companion to Modern Russian Culture Nicholas Rzhevsky, 2012-04-05 A fully updated new edition of this overview of contemporary Russia and the influence of its Soviet past God, Reason and Religions Eugene Thomas Long, 2012-12-06 The first issue of the International Journal for the Philosophy of Religion appeared in the Spring 1970 This collection of essays is presented in celebration of the twenty fifth anniversary of the journal Contributors to the volume are to be counted among today's leading philosophers of religion They represent different approaches to the philosophical consideration of religion and their published work is helping shape discussions of the philosophy of religion as we approach the beginning of the twenty first century Considered by some to be terminal at mid century the philosophy of religion has undergone a renaissance during the second half of the century And the journal may be said to provide some of the explanation for this development A special debt of gratitude is owed to Edgar Henderson Robert Leet Patterson and Henry Sprinkle founders of the journal Without their vision and determination it would not have come into existence The Spiritual-Industrial Complex Jonathan P. Herzog, 2011-08-05 In his farewell address Dwight D Eisenhower warned the nation of the perils of the military industrial complex But as Jonathan Herzog shows in this insightful history Eisenhower had spent his presidency contributing to another lesser known Cold War collaboration the spiritual industrial complex This fascinating volume shows that American leaders in the early Cold War years considered the conflict to be profoundly religious they saw Communism not only as godless but also as a sinister form of religion Fighting faith with faith they deliberately used religious beliefs and institutions as part of the plan to defeat the Soviet enemy Herzog offers an illuminating account of the resultant spiritual industrial complex chronicling the rhetoric the programs and the policies that became its hallmarks He shows that well known actions like the addition of the words under God to the Pledge of Allegiance were a small part of a much larger and relatively unexplored program that promoted religion nationwide Herzog shows how these efforts played out in areas of American life both predictable and unexpected from pulpits and presidential appeals to national faith drives military training barracks public school classrooms and Hollywood epics Millions of Americans were bombarded with the message that the religious could not be Communists just a short step from the all too common conclusion that the irreligious could not be true Americans Though the spiritual industrial complex declined in the 1960s its statutes monuments and sentiments live on as bulwarks against secularism and as reminders that the nation rests upon the groundwork of religious faith They continue to serve as valuable allies for those defending the place of religion in American life From the Khan's Oven Eren Tasar, Allen J. Frank, Jeff Eden, 2021-10-11

The volume's unifying theme inspired by the scholarly legacy of Professor Devin DeWeese and indeed the subject of all the contributions is the history of religion among the Muslim peoples of Inner and Central Asia grounded in ignored or hitherto unknown indigenous sources Individually and as a whole the articles pay tribute to DeWeese's pathbreaking contributions to the disciplines of history and religious studies by exploring new approaches and new sources to build on this legacy The volume pays particular attention to DeWeese's point d'appui the centrality of Sufism in the region's religious social and literary history The volume's focus is thus twofold to bring a new set of rich largely unused materials into the scholarly domain among specialists on Central Asia and to challenge historians of Islam to recognize that understanding the religious history of Central Asia and Sufism in particular is crucial in evaluating the Islamic world as a whole Contributors Peter B Golden Jürgen Paul Ron Sela Nicholas Walmsley Jo Ann Gross Daniel Beben Jeff Eden Jamal Elias Michael Kemper Paolo Sartori Eren Tasar Stéphane A Dudoignon Allen J Frank

The Land of Weddings and Rain Gediminas Lankauskas, 2015-01-15 In The Land of Weddings and Rain Gediminas Lankauskas examines the components of the contemporary urban wedding religious and civil ceremonies traditional imagery and practices and the conspicuous consumption of domestic and imported goods in the context of the Western style modernization of post socialist Lithuania Studying the tensions between tradition and modernity that surround this important ritual event Lankauskas highlights the ways in which nationalism serves to negotiate the impact of modernity in the aftermath of state socialism's collapse His analysis also shows the importance of consumption and commodification to Lithuania's ongoing Westernization Based on more than a decade of ethnographic research The Land of Weddings and Rain is a fascinating account of the tensions between national and transnational East and West and old and new that shape life in post socialist Eastern Europe

Secularism Soviet Style Sonja Luehrmann, 2021-12-22 A study of the USSR's effort to build a society without gods or spirits that greatly enhances our understanding of the post Soviet revival of religion Review of Politics Combining archival research on atheist propaganda of the 1960s and 1970s with ethnographic fieldwork in the autonomous republic of Marij El in Russia's Volga region Sonja Luehrmann examines how secularist culture building reshaped religious practice and interreligious relations One of the most palpable legacies of atheist propaganda is a widespread didactic orientation among the population and a faith in standardized programs of personal transformation as solutions to wider social problems This didactic trend has parallels in globalized forms of Protestantism and Islam but differs from older uses of religious knowledge in rural Russia At a time when the secularist modernization projects of the twentieth century are widely perceived to have failed Secularism Soviet Style emphasizes the affinities and shared histories of religious and atheist mobilizations
