Another Beginning:

A New Beginning Pat Dinda, 2013-10-11 A New Beginning continues with the life of Pat Lupton as he embarks on a new journey. He begins to head up a Rehab and Detox Clinic in Stowell Texas and faces many challenges along the way. In addition to dealing with the wants and needs of clients who are detoxifying their system, there is someone trying to sabotage the operation. As he continues through the first year of operation, he becomes increasingly concerned about who the saboteur is and what he's going to do next.

A New Beginning Joanne Morreale, 1991-07-03 This book is a postmodern analysis of Ronald Reagan's 1984 film A New Beginning which marked the coming of age of the televisual political campaign film. The film was a landmark in the art of political filmmaking. Its thesis proclaimed a resurgence of American pride, patriotism, and prosperity under the leadership of Ronald Reagan. A New Beginning was unprecedented for a number of reasons: it replaced the traditional nominating speech for the candidate at the Republican National Convention; its form was a hybrid documentary and advertisement; it illustrated the use of televisual rebirth rhetoric to gain public support for a political ideology; and most importantly, the masterful project documented a shift from verbal to visual rhetoric in American presidential campaigning. The author examines the film as a cultural text and as an effective political tool. Framing ideology, myth, and visual cliché are analytic tools used to deconstruct the film. The method combines rhetorical theory with communication theory and semiotically based theories of film and television. Morreale gives insight into the increasingly prevalent use of television to create a political reality.

A New Beginning Lee Joel Tiru, 2008-01-04 In A New Beginning, Lee Joel Tiru courageously opens his heart and mind to the emotional and physical challenges he faced as a morbidly obese youngster and teenager. While it is no longer uncommon for one to admit to being fat, it is quite rare for one to lay oneself open so the reader can sense his heartache and desperation and share equally in his joys and triumphs. Lee Tiru knows whereof he speaks; he offers a textbook example of how to set a course for changing one's life and for reaching and exceeding powerful life goals. He does not beat the reader perhaps equally obese as he once was over the head to change but lays out reasonable challenges nonetheless to leave the reader with hope that there is life beyond misery. His words are applicable to any of life's difficulties: set a goal and persevere, always mindful of victory.

A New Beginning for Humankind R. B. Herath, 2012-09 The world is reaching a nuclear tipping point and a catastrophe looms. Even the United Nations can't seem to do anything about the threat. Given the circumstances, people everywhere need to unite to prevent a disaster. In this new study, peace activist R. B. Herath explains what's at stake and what everyday people can do to solve the problem. Here are some of the questions Herath seeks to answer: What are the major violent conflicts in the world today? Is there any guarantee that none of the ongoing violent conflicts will deteriorate into a worldwide fiasco? If there is no such guarantee, what needs to be done to prevent such an eventuality? Is there anything more to be done to ensure lasting peace on the planet? By taking steps to prevent tension from building up to a tipping point and by building a stronger system of checks and balances, it's possible to resolve conflicts at all levels through peaceful means Join Herath as he seeks to change habits that promote war to habits that promote peace in the face of the present troubled state of the world New beginning New opportunities Paromta Das,2024-04-26 New Beginnings New Opportunities is an anthology where various writers reflect on the theme of the New Year exploring ideas of renewal resolutions and fresh starts through a collection of stories essays and poems This diverse compilation inspires readers with personal anecdotes and motivational insights celebrating the transformative power of new beginnings THE NEW BEGINNING Gilbert W. The Ethics of Interpretation Pol

Vandeveld, 2023-03-07 This book discusses the ethical dimension of the interpretation of texts and events Its purpose is not to address the neutrality or ideological biases of interpreters but rather to discuss the underlying issue of the intervention of interpreters into the process of interpretation The author calls this intervention the ethical aspect of interpretation and argues that interpreters are neither neutral nor necessarily activists He examines three models of interpretation all of which recognize the role that interpreters play in the process of interpretation In these models the question of the truth or validity of interpretation is dependent upon the attitude of interpreters These three models are 1 the principle of charity in interpretation in the two different versions defended by Hans Georg Gadamer and Donald Davidson 2 the production of truth as developed by Paul Ricoeur and Michel Foucault and 3 the regulative principle in interpretation as formal validity claims as presented by Karl Otto Apel and Jürgen Habermas and as benevolence or love as an epistemic virtue as defended by Friedrich

Schlegel and Friedrich Schleiermacher The critical discussion of these three models which brings to the fore the different manners in which interpreters intervene in the process of interpretation as persons lays the foundations for an ethics of interpretation The Ethics of Interpretation will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in hermeneutics 19th and 20th century philosophy literary theory and cultural theory Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo,2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva s influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva s fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project The Power of Positive Affirmations: Each Day a New

Towards a Phenomenological Ethics Werner Marx, 1992-10-14 This book investigates the possibility of a contemporary ethics of compassion based upon the experience of human mortality During an age in which the traditional metaphysical guarantors of order transcendent sources of meaning and appeals to human rationality are becoming historical phenomena it is important to investigate whether an alternative source of measure for human conduct can be discovered through phenomenological analysis Marx shows how a confrontation with one's mortality as a basic condition of human existence which is ignored or actively avoided for the most part can transform a person's attitude from one of indifference to one of active concern for other human beings how it can heighten one's awareness of the social nature of human existence and how it can serve as an integrative force in the various spheres of human life The transformation Marx outlines depends not upon deliberation and conscious decision or upon a demand to conform to formal rules or maxims but rather upon a change in one's emotional attunement toward others out of which a more compassionate conduct emerges almost automatically He shows how the awareness of one's limitations and dependencies as a mortal can raise sociality to an important and pervasive factor in human existence instead of a merely unpleasant or indifferent fact Marx also shows how the development of the notion of world as a sphere of human concerns has been accompanied by a deterioration of the traditional idea of the world as a seamless unity or an integrated whole and he points out that a transformed ethical awareness of others as fellow mortals helps provide a unifying meaning to the disparate worlds in which we all live
