The Modernist Impulse and a Contemporary Opus Frederic Will,2017-01-06 This volume represents a study in the formation of a personal literary opus and in some of the theoretical reflections involved in understanding how parts of that opus are constructed The opus in question is the author s own and he is the analyst of it attempting in this role to work as an everyman stand in a representative of the I in each of us which can choose to live the situation of replacing itself by writing The opus is addressed by pieces of individual text a chapter each from a couple of novels and a long poem and by a close pursuit of the kinds of ways in which the author is transformed into those pieces of text This textbook in democratic self
