Another Night Cape Breton Stories True And Short And Tall:

Cape Bretoniana Beaton Institute of Cape Breton Studies, 2005-01-01 Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island is a beautiful region with a unique community whose history and ethnic composition have resulted in the evolution of a powerful sense of identity and place. While outsiders may think only of the island's perennial economic woes and long economic dependence on coal mining and steel production, it is also the home of a rich vibrant and distinct culture. Brian Douglas Tennyson's Cape Bretoniana is the first bibliography to gather together all known publications relating to the history, culture, economy, and politics of Cape Breton Island. With more than 6000 entries, it not only provides a comprehensive listing of publications and post graduate theses but also detailed annotations on the listings. Each entry lists the author, title, place of publication, publisher, date of publication, volume and issue number in the case of periodicals, and page references followed by a brief description of the item. Cape Breton has never been so thoroughly documented. This bibliography will help to ensure that even in a world becoming increasingly homogenized by the forces of globalization, unique cultural identities like Cape Breton's can be preserved and nurtured. Dictionary of Cape Breton English William J. Davey, Richard MacKinnon, 2016-01-01 The first regional dictionary devoted to the island's linguistic and cultural history, the Dictionary of Cape Breton English is a fascinating record of the island's rich vocabulary. Another Night Ronald Caplan, 1995-01-01 Song of Rita Joe Rita Joe, Lynn Henry, 1996-01-01 Here is the enlightening story of an esteemed and eloquent Mi'kmaq woman whose message of gentle persuasion has enriched the life of a nation. Rita Joe is celebrated as a poet, an educator, and an ambassador. In 1989 she accepted the Order of Canada on behalf of native people across the nation. In this spirit, she tells her story, and by her example illustrates the experiences of an entire generation of aboriginal women in Canada. Song of Rita Joe is the story of Joe's remarkable life, her education in an Indian residential school, her turbulent marriage, and the daily struggles within her family and community. It is the story of how Joe's battles with racism, sexism, poverty, and personal demons became the catalyst for her first poems and allowed her to reclaim her aboriginal heritage. Today her story continues as she moves into old age. Joe writes that her lifelong spiritual quest is ever deepening. The Seven-headed Beast and Other Acadian Tales from Cape Breton Island Anselme Chiasson, 1996 This is the first book of Acadian tales now told in English and establishes these stories as a part of Cape Breton heritage. Stories from the Woman from Away Tessie Gillis, 1998 A novel of a woman's rural life and of the people whose weaknesses and wit enrich her Cape Breton community. Father Jimmy Jim Lotz, Michael Robert Welton, 1997 Jim Lotz is a respected community development writer and animator. Michael R. Welton is the Director of Adult Education at Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Ethnologies, 1999 Canadian Book Review Annual, 1996 Canadian Books in Print.
