Another South Experimental Writing In The South:

Another South Bill Lavender, 2003 Gathers the best work of flourishing but often neglected avant garde southern poets Another South is an anthology of poetry from contemporary southern writers who are working in forms that are radical innovative and visionary Highly experimental and challenging in nature the poetry in this volume with its syntactical disjunctions formal revolutions and typographic playfulness represents the direction of a new breed of southern writing that is at once universal in its appeal and regional in its flavor Focusing on poets currently residing in the South the anthology includes both emerging and established voices in the national and international literary world From the invocations of Andy Young's Vodou Headwashing Ceremony to the blues informed poems of Lorenzo Thomas and Honore Jeffers from the different voicings of John Lowther and Kalamu ya Salaam to the visual multi genre art of Jake Berry David Thomas Roberts and Bob Grumman the poetry in Another South is rich in variety and enthusiastic in its explorations of new ways to embody place and time These writers have made the South lush with a poetic avant garde all its own not only redefining southern identity and voice but also offering new models of what is possible universally through the medium of poetry Hank Lazer's introductory essay about Kudzu textuality contextualizes the work by these contemporary innovators Like the uncontrollable runaway vine that entwines the southern landscape their poems are hyperfertile stretching their roots and shoots relentlessly at once destructive and regenerative In making a radical departure from nostalgic southern literary voices these poems of polyvocal abundance are closer in spirit to speaking in tongues or apocalyptic southern folk art primitive astonishing and mystic

ANOTHER SOUTH; EXPERIMENTAL WRITING IN THE SOUTH. Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk, 2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture
