Finding Salvation in Christ Christopher D. Denny, Christopher McMahon, 2011-05-01 Finding Salvation in Christ brings together some of the most important figures in contemporary theology to honor the work of William Loewe systematic theologian and specialist in the theology of Bernard Lonergan SJ For over three decades Loewe's writings have sought to make classic christological and soteriological doctrines comprehensible to a Catholic Church that is working to integrate individual subjectivity communal living and historical consciousness in the wake of the Second Vatican Council Essays included in this volume assess Loewe's reinterpretation of patristic and medieval Christology from Irenaeus to Anselm of Canterbury and explain the significance of the theology of Lonergan and Loewe for the fields of soteriology economics family life and interreligious theology While some recent postliberal theologies have polarized the church's relationship with contemporary culture by minimizing similarities between Christianity and other worldviews the contributors in this volume continue Lonergan's project of integrating the findings of various intellectual disciplines with Christian theology and use Loewe's historical and systematic work as a guide in that endeavor While Lonergan's transcendental Thomism has been criticized by both traditionalists and revisionists essays in this collection apply Loewe's theological methodology in a variety of ways to demonstrate that time honored doctrines about Christ can be transplanted into new cultural contexts and gain intelligibility and credibility in this process Having lived and labored through the far reaching changes in Catholic thought introduced in recent decades Loewe's career provides a model for theologians attempting to build bridges between the past and the present and between the church and the world Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith, 2005

Together Bound Frank G. Kirkpatrick, 1994-01-06 Challenging the assumption that the concept of divine action is necessarily paradoxical on the grounds that God is radically transcendent of finitude or can perform only a master act of creating and sustaining the universe Frank Kirkpatrick defends as philosophically credible the Christian conviction that God is a personal Agent who also acts in particular historical moments to further the divine intention of fostering universal community Kirkpatrick claims that God and the world are distinct realities together bound in a mutual relationship of reciprocal historical action In this relationship God both acts upon and responds to human beings in specific moments in their history The implications of this claim for understanding the biblical narrative the problem of evil cosmological theories and the realism of Christian community are pursued Evidence, Answers, and Christian Faith James F. Where Faith Meets Culture Sharon Gallagher, 2010-01-01 Where Faith Meets Culture is a Radix magazine anthology. What does Radix usually contain? Interviews and features, Reviews of significant books, films and CDs, Informed opinions, In The Last Word, Eye catching graphics, Mind stretching prose, Image rich poetry. Radix assumes that Christians live in the real world and takes lay Christians seriously. As one subscriber wrote, Radix is a more worldly magazine than one would expect from its deep commitment to Christ. Radix monitors the cultural landscape, questions assumptions and introduces new voices remaining deeply rooted in Christ. Sociologist Robert Bellah wrote in a Radix article, 'Though social scientists say a lot about the self, they have nothing to say about the soul and as a result the modern view finds the world intrinsically meaningless. Radix continues to talk about meaning and hope in a culture that has lost its way. The articles in this volume reflect the magazine's wide ranging interests: literature, art, music, theology, psychology, technology, discipleship and spiritual formation. They're written by some of the outstanding authors whose work has graced our pages over the years: Peggy Alter, Kurt Armstrong, Robert Bellah, Bob Buford, Krista Faries, David Fetcho, Susan Fetcho, Sharon Gallagher, David W. Gill, Joel B. Green, Os Guinness, Virginia Hearn, Walter Hearn, Donald Heinz, Margaret Horwitz, Mark Labberton, Henri Nouwen, Earl Palmer, Susan Phillips, Dan Ouellette, Steve Scott and Luci Shaw.

Critical Review of Books in Religion, 1990 Records of Jesus Reviewed and Fifty Questions Answered Through Five Hundred Reverent Reasoners Benjamin Franklin Burnham, 1883 Answers for the Honest Skeptic Ted Even, 2022-10-03 It is true that mankind itself has probably always been characterized with the main desire to determine just what spiritual truth really is. For centuries and centuries highly educated philosophers and religious men alike have always stood toe to toe disagreeing on spiritual truth. Since they cannot all be right, this would strongly indicate that education, religious persuasion or even intelligence has little to do with our discovery of the real spiritual truth. For if these things were truly critical, then obviously the spiritual intellectual giants of history would have agreed on spiritual truth long ago. In this work, author Ted Even endeavors to show that the disagreeing intellectuals/skeptics of the past only serves to reinforce Christ's radical statement about our need to just become like little children in order to discover the spiritual truth and that literally everyone has the same opportunity to enter the kingdom of heaven on that basis. However, while super intelligence or big degrees may not be necessary, the discovery of spiritual truth does require just one very reasonable quality of heart which little children have always possessed. Find out just what this basic quality of heart is as you continue your search for spiritual truth within this simple to understand work which only leaves the real spiritual truth left standing.
