profoundly influenced the built landscape of the South but due to fire neglect and demolition much of his work was lost and history has nearly forgotten his tremendous legacy In his research onsite and through archives in North Carolina Alabama Louisiana and Mississippi Paul Hardin Kapp has produced a narrative of the life and times of William Nichols that weaves together the elegant work of this architect with the aspirations and challenges of the Antebellum South It is richly illustrated with over two hundred archival photographs and drawings from the Historic American Building Survey Seeing Historic Alabama Virginia Van der Veer Hamilton, Jacqueline A. Parks, 2004 Florida's antebellum architecture reflects the state's singular history and the realities faced and enjoyed by her early citizens Threats from Native Americans dictated that the homes of early frontiersmen incorporate in their design defensive features and many felt the need to locate within small towns Many planters held close family and business ties with the older more established South which encouraged elaborate homes that could easily fit into the plantation architecture of South Carolina Georgia or Mississippi Influences from the state's two ruling countries Spain and England also gave way to unique design Florida's Antebellum Homes features images of buildings that incorporate various combinations of these design features In addition some of the public structures shown here reflect the emerging senses of personal affluence civic pride and political development Unfortunately some of these buildings no longer exist they fell prey to natural catastrophes unbridled expansion and the relentless march of Florida's exacting climate Many however remain in pristine condition and invite the public to appreciate them today much as earlier Floridians reveled in their stateliness Architecture and Town Planning in Colonial North America James D. Kornwolf, Georgiana Wallis Kornwolf, 2002 Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf's work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent's geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent's geography and its peoples Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings forts and churches Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities their rivalries and frictions their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land Candid Comments Joel P. Smith, 2011-01-01 For almost fifty years Joel P Smith served as editor and publisher of the Eufaula Tribune the newspaper of record in Eufaula in southeast Alabama For much of that time week after week he wrote his Candid Comments column which traced the often intersecting history of Eufaula and Smith's own life In the selections from Candid Comments collected in this volume Smith ranges from Eufaula's top ten characters to the history of the Chattahoochee River from the Tribune's initial support of Governor George Wallace until it ceased to endorse him and from marriage and fatherhood to press junkets in Egypt and Cuba The Alabama Catalog Robert S. Gamble,1987 Place Names in Alabama Virginia O. Foscue,1989 Catalogs some 2700 Alabama communities ranging from Abanda in Chambers County to Zip City in Lauderdale County Southern Splendor Marc R. Matrana,Robin S. Lattimore,Michael W. Kitchens,2018-03-22 Few things evoke thoughts and memories of the past more than a house from a bygone era and few places are identified and symbolized more by historic dwellings than the American South Plantation houses built with columned porticos and wide porches stout chimneys large rooms and sweeping staircases survive as legacies of both a storied and troubled past These homes are at the heart of a complex web of human relationships that have shaped the social and cultural heritage of the region for generations Despite their commanding appearance the region's plantation houses have proven to be fragile relics of history vulnerable to decay neglect and loss Today only a small percentage of the South's antebellum treasures survive In Southern Splendor Saving Architectural Treasures of the Old South historians Marc R Matrana Robin S Lattimore and Michael W Kitchens explore almost fifty houses built before the Civil War that have been authentically restored or preserved Methodically examined are restoration efforts that preserve not only homes and other structures but also the stories of those living in or occupying those homes The authors discuss the challenges facing specific plantation homes and their preservation Featuring over 275 stunning photographs as well as dozens of firsthand accounts and interviews with those involved in the preservation of these historic properties Southern Splendor describes the leading role the South has played since the nineteenth century in the historic preservation movement in this country Natchez Trace Parkway (TN,AL,MS) ,1979 National Register of Historic Places, 1966-1994 ,1994 Lists buildings structures sites objects and districts that possess historical significance as defined by the National Register Criteria for Evaluation in every state National Register of Historic Places, 1966 to 1994 ,1994 National Register of Historic Places, 1966 to 1994 National Park Service,1994
