Antes Que Anochezca:

Reading and Writing the Ambiente Susana Chávez-Silverman, Librada Hernández, 2000 In this dynamic collection of essays many leading literary scholars trace gay and lesbian themes in Latin American Hispanic and U S Latino literary and cultural texts Reading and Writing the Ambiente is consciously ambitious and far ranging historically as well as geographically It includes discussions of texts from as early as the seventeenth century to writings of the late twentieth century Reading and Writing the Ambiente also underscores the ways in which lesbian and gay self representation in Hispanic texts differs from representations in Anglo American texts The contributors demonstrate that unlike the emphasis on the individual in Anglo American sexual identity Latino Spanish and Latin American sexual identity is produced in the surrounding culture and community in the ambiente As one of the first collections of its kind Reading and Writing the Ambiente is expressive of the next wave of gay Hispanic and Latin scholarship

Before Night Falls Reinaldo Arenas, 2010-12-09 Reinaldo Arenas was born to a poverty stricken family in rural Cuba By the time of his death in New York four decades later he had become one of Cuba s most important poets an outspoken critic of Castro s regime and one of the leading gay voices of the twentieth century In Before Night Falls Arenas tells of his odyssey from young rebel fighting for the Revolution through his suppression as a writer his disillusionment with Castro his imprisonment and torture to his eventual exile from Cuba to New York where in 1987 he was diagnosed with AIDS He committed suicide in 1990 ending a life of constant struggle against repression In a farewell note Arenas wrote Due to my delicate state of health and to the terrible depression that causes me not to be able to continue writing and struggling for the freedom of Cuba I am ending my life I do not want to convey to you a message of defeat but of continued struggle and hope Cuba will be free I already am signed Reinaldo Arenas

Dance Between Two Cultures William Luis, 2001 Offers insights on Latino Caribbean writers born or raised in the United States who are at the vanguard of a literary movement that has captured both critical and popular interest In this groundbreaking study William Luis analyzes the most salient and representative narrative and poetic works of the newest literary movement to emerge in Spanish American and U S literatures The book is divided into three sections each focused on representative Puerto Rican American Cuban American and Dominican American authors Luis traces the writers origins and influences from the nineteenth century to the present focusing especially on the contemporary works of Oscar Hijuelos Julia Alvarez Cristina Garcia and Piri Thomas among others While engaging in close readings of the texts Luis places them in a broader social historical political and racial perspective to expose the tension between text and context As a group Latino Caribbeans write an ethnic literature in English that is born of their struggle to forge an identity separate from both the influences of their parents culture and those of the United States For these writers their parents country of origin is a distant memory They have developed a culture of resistance and a language that mediates between their parents identity and the culture that they themselves live in Latino Caribbeans are engaged in a metaphorical dance with Anglo Americans as the dominant culture Just as that dance represents a coming together of separate influences to make a unique art form so do both Hispanic and North American cultures combine to bring a new literature into being This new body of literature helps us to understand not only the adjustments Latino Caribbean cultures have had to make within the larger U S environment but also how the dominant culture has been affected by their presence

Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel, 2001-09 With Gay Cuban Nation Emilio Bejel looks at Cuba's markedly homoerotic culture through writings about homosexuality placing them in the social and political contexts that led up to the Cuban Revolution By reading against the grain of a wide variety of novels short stories autobiographies newspaper articles and films he maps out a fascinating argument about the way in which nationalism and other institutions of power struggle for an authoritative stance on homosexual issues Through close readings of writers such as Jos Mart Ofelia Rodr guez Acosta Carlos Montenegro Jos Lezama Lima Severo Sarduy Achy Obejas Sonia Rivera Vald s and Reinaldo Arenas Gay Cuban Nation shows ultimately that the specter of homosexuality is always lurking in the shadows of nationalist discourse

Performing Cuba Denis Jorge Berenschot, 2005 The Cuban Revolution has generated extraordinary literary achievements by writers both within Cuba and in exile This book focuses on selected works by Edmundo Desnoes Senel Paz and El as Miguel Mu oz and the transformations of their texts from prose to film and theatre Performing Cuba breaks new ground by clearly demonstrating how these multiple rewritings and additional authorial voices from the filmic and theatrical media rewrite the characters gender performances in order to manipulate the texts reading

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Latin American and Caribbean Cultures Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, Ana M. Lpez, 2000 This new three volume encyclopedia features over 4 000 entries on more than 40 regions in Latin America and the Caribbean from 1920 to the present day

La memoria frente al poder Jacobo Machover, 2001 La literatura cubana del exilio en un principio rechazada por la cr tica y por los ambientes universitarios m s por razones pol ticas que intelectuales o acad micas ha acabado por ocupar el lugar que le corresponde A trav s de la obra y del itinerario vital de tres escritores exiliados Guillermo Cabrera Infante Severo Sarduy y Reinaldo Arenas se afirma la especificidad de esta literatura su relaci n con lo que se escrib a en la isla as como sus diferencias respecto a las otras expresiones literarias de la di spora latinoamericana

Elusive Origins Paul B. Miller, 2010-05-31 Although the questions of modernity and postmodernity are debated as frequently in the Caribbean as in other cultural zones the Enlightenment generally considered the origin of European modernity is rarely discussed as such in the Caribbean context Paul B Miller constellates modern Caribbean writers of varying national and linguistic traditions whose common thread is their representation of the Enlightenment and the Age of Revolution in the Caribbean In a comparative reading of such writers as Alejo Carpentier Cuba C L R James Trinidad Marie Chauvet Haiti Maryse Cond Guadeloupe Reinaldo Arenas Cuba and Edgardo Rodr guez Juli Puerto Rico Miller shows how these authors deploy their historical imagination in order to assess and reevaluate the elusive and often conflicted origins of their own modernity Miller documents the conceptual and ideological shift from an earlier generation of writers to a more recent one whose narrative strategies bear a strong resemblance to postmodern cultural practices including the use of parody in targeting their discursive predecessors the questioning of Enlightenment assumptions and a suspicion regarding the dialectical unfolding of history as their precursors understood it By positing the Cuban Revolution as a dividing line between the earlier generation and their postmodern successors Miller confers a Caribbean specificity upon the commonplace notion of postmodernity The dual advantage of Elusive Origins's thematic specificity coupled with its inclusiveness allows a reflection on canonical writers in conjunction with lesser known figures Furthermore the inclusion of Francophone and Anglophone writers in addition to those from the Hispanic Caribbean opens up the volume geographically linguistically and nationally expanding its contribution to a nonessentialist understanding of the Caribbean in a Latin American Atlantic and global context

Sexual Revolutions in Cuba Carrie Hamilton, 2012-03-12

In Sexual Revolutions in Cuba Carrie Hamilton delves into the relationship between passion and politics in revolutionary Cuba to present a comprehensive history of sexuality on the island from the triumph of the Revolution in 1959 into the twenty first century Drawing on an unused body of oral history interviews as well as press accounts literary works and other published sources Hamilton pushes beyond official government rhetoric and explores how the wider changes initiated by the Revolution have affected the sexual lives of Cuban citizens She foregrounds the memories and emotions of ordinary Cubans and compares these experiences with changing policies and wider social political and economic developments to reveal the complex dynamic between sexual desire and repression in revolutionary Cuba Showing how revolutionary and prerevolutionary values coexist in a potent and sometimes contradictory mix Hamilton addresses changing patterns in heterosexual relations competing views of masculinity and femininity same sex relationships and homophobia AIDS sexual violence interracial relationships and sexual tourism Hamilton's examination of sexual experiences across generations and social groups demonstrates that sexual politics have been integral to the construction of a new revolutionary Cuban society

Mercosur Francisco Domínguez, 2004 This collection of essays aims to contribute to our understanding of the process of regional integration currently underway in South America Mercosur is a regional manifestation of a world wide process of globalisation whose driving force is economic but which is potentially much more than that It involves a variety of political social and cultural processes some of them barely at an embryonic stage though each advancing at its own rate of progress Mercosur's neo liberal matrix however has led to the economic decision making process being taken outside the realm of politics thus leaving large sections of the population with no mechanism to influence the integration process so that it addresses their urgent needs and demands
