provide several lenses through which to enjoy and compare these artists approaches and outputs The volume is unique in its inclusion of poetry by contemporary women whose voices articulate so many of the same concerns as the visual artists In China poetry has always been the prime form of artistic expression and it remains so today Looking at this poetry affords us a different means of appreciating the art of women in contemporary society      Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported, competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war, revolution, betrayal and commitment      Chinese Aesthetics and Literature Corinne H. Dale, 2004-03-18 Featuring the work of renowned scholars this anthology provides an introduction to Chinese aesthetics and literature      Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai, 2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty: peasants suffering from famine, exploited urban laborers, homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative, innovating strategies of representing the nation, the social other, time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol, Andreiev, Chekhov, Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai's multi-scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans-Eurasian axis of world literature      Oriental Monograph Series, 1979      Modern Chinese Women Writers Michael S. Duke, 1989-11-22 The essays in this volume consider the state of current writing of the world's best Chinese women writers All the contributors relate their authors to the life and work of other contemporary Chinese women writers and compare work coming from PRC, Taiwan and overseas Chinese The essays make a contribution to the fields of Modern Chinese literature and women's studies and although they are primarily intended to bear witness to the quality of women's writing they also attempt to elucidate the complex issues of Chinese women's lives in the contemporary world      The Development

Trajectory of Eastern Societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism Zhao Jiaxiang, 2022-07-30 In the four volumes of The Development Trajectory of Eastern societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism the author re-examines Marx and Engels theories on the development trajectory of Eastern societies by integrating theoretical analysis of Marxist theories and an historical investigation of socialist revolution and socialist construction around the world The collection challenges some predominant interpretations of Marx and Engels historical materialism by focusing on that materialism explaining the general laws of historical development and its particular trajectory in Eastern societies discussing the attempts of the Russian Commune to avoid the torments of the capitalist system and tracing the victories and failures of the 100 year trajectory of socialism The significance of Marx and Engels socialist theories for contemporary social development in the Eastern societies is henceforth laid bare The book will be a key reference for readers studying Marxism Marxist philosophy and the history of philosophy
