Anthology Regions ,1991 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 A sense of place Lez Cooke,2018-02-28

This pioneering study examines regional British television drama from its beginnings on the BBC and ITV in the 1950s to the arrival of Channel Four in 1982 It discusses the ways in which regionalism regional culture and regional identity have been defined outlines the history of regional broadcasting in the UK and includes two detailed case studies of Granada Television and BBC English Regions Drama representing contrasting examples of regional television drama during what is often described as the golden age of British television The conclusion brings the study up to date by discussing recent developments in regional drama production and by considering future possibilities Written in a scholarly but accessible style the book uncovers a forgotten history of British television drama that will be of interest to lecturers and students of media and cultural studies as well as the general reader with an interest in the history of British television The Software Encyclopedia ,1986 Be Extraordinary Guy Tal,2024-07-19 An inspiring educational and practical book about philosophy and art and finding a personally meaningful life Teacher philosopher and author Guy Tal has written several best selling books on photography creativity and expression While it would be understandable to label Guy a photographer it is more accurate to call him a philosopher and artist who has forged a creative life on his own terms a life shaped by his love of nature his interest in science and philosophy his individualistic temperament and his desire to create art that is expressive and significant in the ways most meaningful to him Be Extraordinary Philosophical Advice for Photographic and Other Artists Guy shares his knowledge of philosophy and art then offers advice on how to implement it into your own work In the first part Foundations Guy lays out a conceptual framework for the book with short essays about philosophy and art In the second part Practical Advice he offers a series of brief essays aiming to enable and empower you to apply the foundational philosophies to your own life and work Together the two parts demonstrate how Guy has carefully fashioned his own perspective on philosophy art and life and offer you a set of tools for finding your own path This is not a how to book of techniques and tips The goal of the book is to make you think to pose hard questions to challenge you to question common beliefs and attitudes to nudge you out of your comfort zone and to help you find the courage to become who you and only you are And in so doing to create a life and art that is meaningful in the deepest ways that life and art can be meaningful which is to say meaningful to you Adventures in Time and Place James A. Banks,McGraw-Hill Companies. McGraw-Hill School Division,National Geographic Society (U.S.),2000 Describes five geography themes each introduces a new concept to help children describe their own adventure as they explore the different regions of the United States El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 A New Nation ,2000 Author - Title Catalog University of California, Berkeley. Library,1963 Tales of Scottish Highlands & Moors - 70+ Historical Novels, Adventure Classics & Victorian Romances Robert Louis Stevenson,John Buchan,George MacDonald,Walter Scott,J. M. Barrie,2023-12-17 Tales of Scottish Highlands Moors 70 Historical Novels Adventure Classics Victorian Romances is a rich tapestry of evocative storytelling that explores the mystical beauty and complex history of Scotland's landscapes. This anthology, woven from the pens of revered authors, captures the essence of Scottish culture and the Victorian era's fascination with adventure and romance. From historical narratives with sweeping Highland vistas to captivating romantic entanglements amidst ancient ruins, this collection showcases a profound diversity of styles and themes, each story offering a unique glimpse into Scotland's storied past. Standout pieces within the anthology capture the raw emotion and timeless romance intrinsic to the Scottish moors, blending historical authenticity with imaginative allure. The anthology features the luminaries of Scottish literature, including Robert Louis Stevenson, John Buchan, George MacDonald, Walter Scott, and J. M. Barrie. These authors, known for their profound impact on the literary world, enrich the collection with narratives deeply rooted in cultural nationalism and the Victorian literary tradition. Their collective works speak to their life's passions, whether it's the romance of the rugged Highlands, the intrigue of historical adventures, or the whimsical allure of Scotland's folklore, contributing versatile perspectives to the anthology's central themes. For readers seeking an immersive journey into Scotland's soul, this anthology offers an exceptional opportunity to explore its multifaceted narratives. Delight in the educational richness and cultural depth that emerges from these stories, crafted by masterful storytellers with an innate understanding of the Scottish landscape and ethos. This collection invites readers to experience a vibrant dialogue between timeless tales, making it an indispensable addition to any literary enthusiast's collection.

Excursions in Identity Laura Nenzi, 2008-04-16

In the Edo period (1600-1868), status and gender-based expectations largely defined a person's place and identity in society. The wayfarers of the time, however, discovered that travel provided the opportunity to escape from the confines of the everyday. Cultured travelers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries wrote travel memoirs to celebrate their profession as belle lettrists. For women, in particular, the open road and the blank page of the diary offered a precious opportunity to create personal hierarchies defined less by gender and more by culture and refinement. After the mid-eighteenth century, which saw the popularization of culture and the rise of commercial printing, textbooks, guides, comical fiction, and woodblock prints allowed not a few commoners to acquaint themselves with the historical, lyrical, or artistic pedigree of Japan's famous sites. By identifying themselves with famous literary and historical icons of the past, some among these erudite commoners saw an opportunity to rewrite their lives and re-create their identities in the pages of their travel diaries. The chapters in Part One, Re-creating Spaces, introduce the notion that the spaces of travel were malleable, accommodating reconceptualization across interpretive frames. Laura Nenzi shows that far from being static backgrounds, these travelscapes proliferated in a myriad of loci, where one person's center was another's periphery. In Part Two, Re-creating Identities, we see how, in the course of the Edo period, educated persons used travel to, or through, revered lyrical sites to assert and enhance their roles and identities. Finally, in Part Three, Purchasing Re-creation, Nenzi looks at the intersection between recreational travel and the rising commercial economy which allowed visitors to appropriate landscapes through new means monetary transactions acquisition of tangible icons or other forms of physical interaction

Global Cultures Elisabeth Young-Bruehl,1994-12-09 An anthology of 62 stories from around the non Euro American world providing new definitions of cultural diversity and commonality and an invaluable tool for teachers responding to the growing need for multicultural literature Over the past two decades sweeping political changes and burgeoning new technologies have resulted in communities being increasingly defined in global as well as regional and national terms Although the intellectual terra nova of world cultures remains largely uncharted this anthology of sixty two stories from around the non Euro American world provides what Elisabeth Young Bruehl calls an introductory map to the great wealth of literary works now being produced in at once the particular settings of the writers experiences and the global setting Young Bruehl finds that while the cultural diversity the stories exemplify is amazing so too is the similarity in thematic terms of the concerns that this diversity presents Thus she organized Global Cultures thematically to highlight and clarify how these worldwide cultures both converge and diverge A comprehensive general introduction outlines forces behind the transnational approach to literary study and chapter introductions contextualize each story Stories from India Cuba South Africa and Uruguay are connected by the theme of exile and immigration tales from Nigeria Guatemala Cameroon and Egypt share a theme of political violence and civil uprisings works from Taiwan Chile Jamaica and Syria describe commonalities of women facing effects of modernization prejudice war and immigration Global Cultures contributes to the fast growing body of contemporary short fictions newly available in English and is an invaluable resource to meet the need for multicultural literature
