Studies in Renaissance & Baroque Art Presented to Anthony Blunt on His 60th Birthday Anthony Blunt, 1967 Degenerate Moderns E. Michael Jones, 1993 In this groundbreaking new book Jones shows how some of the major determining leaders in modern thought and culture have rationalized their own immoral behavior and projected it onto a universal canvas The main thesis of this book is that in the intellectual life there are only two ultimate alternatives either the thinker conforms desire to truth or he conforms truth to desire In the last one hundred years the western cultural elite embarked upon a project which entailed the reversal of the values of the intellectual life so that truth would be subjected to desire as the final criterion of intellectual value In looking at recent biographies of such major moderns as Freud Kinsey Keynes Margaret Mead Picasso and others there is a remarkable similarity between their lives and thought After becoming involved in sexual license early on they invariably chose an ideology or art form which subordinated reality to the exigencies of their sexual misbehavior Artistic Theory in Italy, 1450-1600 Anthony Blunt, 1983 Back to the Present, Forward to the Past International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures. Conference, 2006 The island of Ireland north and south has produced a great diversity of writing in both English and Irish for hundreds of years often using the memories embodied in its competing views of history as a fruitful source of literary inspiration Placing Irish literature in an international context these two volumes explore the connection between Irish history and literature in particular the Rebellion of 1798 in a more comprehensive diverse and multi faceted way than has often been the case in the past The fifty three authors bring their national and personal viewpoints as well as their critical judgements to bear on Irish literature in these stimulating articles The contributions also deal with topics such as Gothic literature ideology and identity as well as gender issues connections with the other arts regional Irish literature in particular that of the city of Limerick translations the works of Joyce and comparisons with the literature of other nations The
