Anthropology for the Nineties Johnnetta B. Cole, 1988 African-American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Faye V. Harrison, Faye Venetia Harrison, 1999 This pathbreaking collection of intellectual biographies is the first to probe the careers of thirteen early African American anthropologists detailing both their achievements and their struggle with the latent and sometimes blatant racism of the times Invaluable to historians of anthropology this collection will also be useful to readers interested in African American studies and biography The lives and work of Caroline Bond Day Zora Neale Hurston Louis Eugene King Laurence Foster W Montague Cobb Katherine Dunham Ellen Irene Diggs Allison Davis St Clair Drake Arthur Huff Fauset William S Willis Jr Hubert Barnes Ross Elliot Skinner Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino, Vincenzo Matera, 2025-04-09 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well known European and American traditions but also lesser known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building anthropology introduced by G Stocking and taken up by U Hannerz the book investigates different histories of anthropology especially in ex colonial and marginal contexts It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines Linguistics Out of the Closet Tyler Everett Kibbey, 2023-11-06 Queer linguistics in its position as both a linguistic science of and for queer folk is inherently agitating to the disciplinary anxiety of a general linguistic science It represents as all queer science does a disruption of the normative modes of knowledge production and a displacement of academic authority This collection reconsiders the placement of the queer subject both as the researcher and as the researched within and beyond the discipline and provides an intellectual space for the interdisciplinary and sometimes anti disciplinary linguistic science of gender and sexuality In three sections it respectively considers the development of hyper speciated queer linguistic subfields the interdisciplinarity of intersectional approaches to queer language and the institution of queer linguistic science both within and beyond the academy Taken together the essays in this collection confront the scientific and institutional discipline of linguistics from a queer vantage point one which is perhaps inherently interdisciplinary in its formulation A Handbook for Social Science Field Research Ellen Perecman, Sara R.
