Antinomies Of Society Essays On Ideologies And Institutions:

Antinomies of Society André Béteille, 2000 Addressing ideologies like Marxism secularism and nationalism this collection studies the tensions and contradictions in society as manifested through different social and political institutions Written by one of the preeminent sociologists of India it seeks to develop the methods concepts and theories of the discipline through an in depth exploration of various establishments The Coptic Martyrdom of John of Phanijōit Jason R.

Zaborowski, 2004-11-01 This study applies sociological and philological analysis to the extraordinary thirteenth century Coptic Martyrdom of John of Phanij it Zaborowski s research explains the identity shaping function behind this text s portrayal of an Egyptian Christian s conversion to Islam and subsequent struggle to publicly reconvert to Christianity The heart of this book is its edition and facing English translation of the only extant manuscript of the martyrdom Interpretive chapters include 1 a sociological inquiry into the narrative s depiction of Muslims 2 a philological analysis of the Coptic language of the manuscript and 3 an historical contextualization of the manuscript within the wider conflict between the Ayy bids and Western Crusaders This book makes John of Phanij it accessible to all scholars interested in the sociology of conversion offering new evidence for understanding Christian Muslim relations in Medieval Egypt Education and

Society in a Changing Mizoram Lakshmi Bhatia, 2012-12-06 Located in the domain of cultural politics the book with rich ethnographical data from Mizoram a lesser known and understood state brings the community state and culture to centre stage along with family and stratification of the sociological discourse in education The book argues for a re look at school education in Mizoram besides providing critical insights into the North East region as a whole It also points to the dilemmas of development in that region and suggests possible ways out of the impasse Marking a significant departure from conventional thinking on education as human capital as reflected in North East Vision 2020 the book strongly advocates the need for critical pedagogies based on learning from conflict inculcating the values of tolerance and compassion as a precursor to peace reconceptualising development not merely as economic but as indicator of national happiness and valuing lives equally besides respect for traditional institutions thus marking a break from the much resented paternalism that underpins all state interventions in education One of the first studies of its kind regarding experience and practice of education the book makes an important contribution to the role that education can play to usher in peace and promote respect for differences Anthropology's Philosophy Nigel Rapport, 2025-07-04 This book focuses on anthropology s ambition for comprehensiveness and its interdisciplinary nature It consists of concise essays each around 2 500 words in which contributors examine how concepts traditionally linked to philosophy or other disciplines are interpreted and applied within anthropology Each contributor selects a personally inspiring concept and illustrates its relevance to anthropology showcasing how it takes on new meaning within an anthropological framework These essays vary in style and content allowing contributors to discuss the history of the concept s usage provide an ethnographic illustration of the concept or offer an analytical comparative or theoretical exposition of the concept as deployed anthropologically A common theme across all entries is the exploration of anthropological disciplinarity or anti disciplinarity highlighting its intellectual flexibility and genre blurring practices in an effort to approach that expansiveness necessary to do justice to the complexity of human existence

Towards a Knowledge Society Debal K. SinghaRoy,2014-10-16 This book studies how the knowledge society has created new conditions of marginalities while empowering people through new age connectivity India Infrastructure Report 2012 Idfc Foundation,2016-04-08 Today India s education sector remains a victim of poor policies restrictive regulations and orthodoxy Despite being enrolled in schools children are not learning adequately Increasingly parents are seeking alternatives through private inputs in school and tuition Students are dropping out from secondary school in spite of high financial returns of secondary education and those who do complete it have inferior conceptual knowledge Higher education is over regulated and under governed keeping away serious private providers and reputed global institutes Graduates from high schools colleges and universities are not readily employable and few are willing to pay for skill development Ironically the Right to Education Act if strictly enforced will result in closure of thousands of non state schools and millions of poor children will be left without access to education Eleventh in the series India Infrastructure Report 2012 discusses challenges in the education sector elementary secondary higher and vocational and explores strategies for constructive change and opportunities for the private sector It suggests that immediate steps are required to reform the sector to reap the benefits from India s demographic dividend due to a rise in the working age population Result of a collective effort led by the IDFC Foundation this Report brings together a range of perspectives from academics researchers and practitioners committed to enhancing educational practices It will be an invaluable resource for policymakers researchers and corporates
