Ravenna and the Traditions of Late Antique and Early Byzantine Craftsmanship Salvatore Cosentino,2020-08-10 In the last twenty years scholarship on late antique and early medieval Ravenna has resulted in a certain number of publications mainly focused on the fields of architecture mosaics and archaeology On the contrary much less attention has been paid on labour both manual and intellectual as well as the structure of production and objects derived from manufacturing activities despite the fact that Ravenna is the place which preserves the highest number of historical evidence among all centres of the late Roman Mediterranean Its cultural heritage is vast and composite ranging from papyri to inscriptions from ivories to marbles as well as luxury objects pottery and coins Starting from concrete typologies of hand manufactured goods existing in the Ravennate milieu the book aims at exploring the multifaceted traditions of late antique and early Byzantine handicraft from the fourth to the eighth century AD Its perspective is to pay attention more on patronage social taste acculturation workers and the economic industry of production which supported the demand circulation and distribution of artefacts than on the artistic evaluation of the objects themselves Rubens Joost vander Auwera,2007 Over the past four years the Royal Fine Arts Museums of Belgium have undertaken a huge research Roman Tombs and the Art of Commemoration Barbara Borg,2019-04-18 Explores four key questions around Roman funerary customs that change our view of the society and its values Public Space in the Late Antique City (2 vols.) Luke Lavan,2021-01-11 This book investigates the nature of public space in Mediterranean cities A D 284 650 meaning places where it was impossible to avoid meeting people from all parts of society whether different religious confessions or social groups The first volume considers the architectural form and everyday functions of streets fora agorai market buildings and shops including a study of processions and everyday street life The second volume analyses archaeological evidence for the construction repair use and abandonment of these urban spaces based on standardised principles of phasing and dating The conclusions provide insights into the urban environment of Constantinople an assessment of urban institutions and citizenship and a consideration of the impact of Christianity on civic life at this time Documentary annex, report to Congress of the U.S.-China Security Review Commission U.S.-China Security Review Commission,2002
