Antitrust Law And Economics In A Nutshell Nutshell Series:

Antitrust Law and Economics in a Nutshell Ernest Gellhorn, 1979 Economics and Federal Antitrust Law Herbert Hovenkamp, 1985 Monopsony in Law and Economics Roger D. Blair, Jeffrey L. Harrison, 2010-09-06 Most readers are familiar with the concept of a monopoly A monopolist is the only seller of a good or service for which there are not good substitutes Economists and policy makers are concerned about monopolies because they lead to higher prices and lower output The topic of this book is monopsony the economic condition in which there is one buyer of a good or service It is a common misunderstanding that if monopolists raise prices then monopsonists must lower them It is true that a monopsonist may force sellers to sell to them at lower prices but this does not mean consumers are better off as a result This book explains why monopsonists can be harmful and the way law has developed to respond to these harms Competition Law of Britain and the Common Market Valentine Korah, 2024-03-11 Labor Literature, 1977 International and Comparative Competition Law Maher M. Dabbah, 2010-09-16 This thorough appraisal of competition law and policy from an international and comparative perspective covers the role of different international organisations active in the area the significance of multinational enterprises and in particular the differences between US and EU systems Taking examples from regions such as Africa the Middle East and Asia Maher M Dabbah looks at the law and policy in developing countries and at a regional level the internationalisation of competition law and the doctrines of extraterritoriality bilateral cooperation and multilateral cooperation as well as the relationship between competition and trade policy The book should prove useful to anyone who is interested in gaining an insight into the international dimension of competition law and policy It is written in a language and style which make such a complex topic both possible to understand and enjoyable Military Law Review, 2002

Comparative Competition Law John Duns, Arlen Duke, Brendan Sweeney, 2015-11-27 Comparative Competition Law examines the key global issues facing competition law and policy This volume s specially commissioned chapters by leading writers from the United States Europe Asia South America and Australia provide a synthesis of how these current issues are addressed by drawing on the approaches taken in different jurisdictions around the world Expert contributors examine the regulation of core competitive conduct by comparing substantive law approaches in the US and the EU The book then explores issues of enforcement such as the regulator s powers whether to criminalize anti competitive conduct the degree to which private enforcement ought to be encouraged and the extraterritorial scope of domestic laws Finally the book discusses how competition law is being implemented in a variety of countries including Japan China Brazil Chile and Colombia This scholarly analysis of the key substantive procedural and remedial challenges facing global competition law policymakers offers a comparative framework to facilitate a better understanding of relevant policies This collection of global perspectives will be of great interest to scholars and students of competition law microeconomics and regulatory studies Competition law regulators policy makers and law practitioners will also find this book an invaluable resource Factors Affecting the International Competitiveness of the United States, 1991 Antitrust Division Manual United States. Department of Justice. Antitrust Division, 1998 The Enforcement of EU Competition Rules by Civil Law Nina Bucan Gutta, 2014-11-04

Private enforcement of competition law in particular through damages actions is recently one of the highly debated topics in European competition law Arguments for private enforcement are based on the EU principle of effectiveness while existing national substantive and procedural regimes applicable to damages may be ill suited for the effective enforcement of EU competition law However the risk that the introduction of enforcement oriented measures into national law is incompatible with private civil law is often underestimated or neglected This book aims to reconcile both EU enforcement and private law perspectives through a detailed study of the English and Slovenian private law systems Research on the compatibility of EU competition enforcement oriented measures with the private law regimes in England and Slovenia is used to argue that some changes to private law based on proposals for effective enforcement go too far and risk undermining the integrity of the

Legal systems This book already takes into account the 2014 Directive on antitrust damages actions Private Antitrust Litigation in the European Union and Japan Simon Vande Walle, 2013 Companies in Europe and Japan are increasingly the target of private antitrust litigation These lawsuits are being facilitated by favorable case law legislative changes and a growing awareness of antitrust remedies in all layers of society This book analyzes and compares this burgeoning area of litigation in the European Union and Japan It examines the legal framework for these actions and takes stock of the hundreds of actions for damages and injunctive relief that have been brought in Japan and the EU It also looks at the novel contexts in which private litigants are invoking antitrust violations such as in derivative suits and in actions to challenge arbitral awards Finally the book assesses the impact of private litigation on the enforcement of antitrust law and shows how Japan s experience can be useful for Europe and vice versa in shaping future reforms 2015 U.S. Higher Education Faculty Awards, Vol. 2 Faculty Awards, 2022-09-01 Created by professors for professors the Faculty Awards compendium is the first and only university awards program in the United States based on faculty peer evaluations The Faculty Awards series recognizes and rewards outstanding faculty members at colleges and universities across the United States Pricing and Regulatory Innovations Under Increasing Competition Michael A. Crew, 2012-12-06 This volume focuses on incentive regulation and competition While much of the regulatory action is taking place in telecommunications the impact of competition and the resultant regulatory change is being felt in other traditional public utilities including electricity The book reviews topics including price caps incentive regulation market structure and new regulatory technologies Embracing the Knowledge Economy Gerd Schienstock, 2004-01-01 In an astonishingly short period of time Finland has developed into one of the world s leading knowledge societies whilst retaining a comprehensive welfare state The book traces this rapid transformation from a resource based to a knowledge based society The authors describe the country s strengths and weaknesses in the new economy and demonstrate how Finland has been able to catch up with the leading industrial countries by exploiting new techno organizational opportunities Experts from different fields provide rich empirical material on Finnish industries firms regions and institutions and the role they have played in the transformation process The book also details the business and economic restructuring which was required and explores new trends in the country s science technology and innovation policy The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy Robin Mansell, Marc Raboy, 2014-03-03 The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy offers insights into the boundaries of this field of study assesses why it is important who is affected and with what political economic social and cultural consequences Provides the most up to date and comprehensive collection of essays from top scholars in the field Includes contributions from western and eastern Europe North and Central America Africa and Asia Offers new conceptual frameworks and new methodologies for mapping the contours of emergent global media and communication policy Draws on theory and empirical research to offer multiple perspectives on the local national regional and global forums in which policy debate occurs
