Women's Movements in Asia Mina Roces, Louise Edwards, 2010-06-10 Women's Movements in Asia is a comprehensive study of women's activism across Asia. With chapters written by leading international experts, it provides a full overview of the history of feminism as well as the current context of the women's movement in 12 countries: the Philippines, China, Indonesia, Japan, Burma, Singapore, Vietnam, Malaysia, Thailand, Cambodia, Hong Kong, Korea, India, and Pakistan. For each of these countries, the manner in which feminism changes according to cultural, political, economic, and religious factors is explored. The contributors investigate how national feminisms are influenced by transnational factors such as the women's movements in other countries, colonialism, and international agencies. Each chapter also considers what Asian feminists have contributed to global theoretical debates on the woman question, the key successes and failures of the movements, and what needs to be addressed in the future. This breadth of coverage, together with suggestions for further reading and watching and an integrated cross-national timeline, makes Women's Movements in Asia ideal for use on courses looking at women and feminism in Asia. It will appeal both to students and specialists in the fields of gender, women's, and Asian studies.

Women's Manga in Asia and Beyond Fusami Ogi, Rebecca Suter, Kazumi Nagaike, John A. Lent, 2019-03-14 Women's Manga in Asia and Beyond offers a variety of perspectives on women's manga and the nature, scope, and significance of the relationship between women and comics manga, both globally as well as locally. Based on the activities since 2009 of the Women's MANGA Research Project in Asia (WMRPA), the edited volume elucidates social and historical aspects of the Asian wave of manga from ever broader perspectives of transnationalization and glocalization. With a specific focus on women's direct roles in manga creation, it illustrates how the globalization of manga has united different cultures and identities, focusing on networks of women creators and readerships. Taking an Asian regional approach combined with investigations of non-Asian cultures which have felt manga's impact, the book details manga's shift to a global medium, developing, uniting, and involving increasing numbers of participants worldwide. Unveiling diverse Asian identities and showing ways to unite them, the contributors to this volume recognize the overlaps and unique trends that emerge as a result.

Routledge Handbook of Sexuality Studies in East Asia Mark McLelland, Vera Mackie, 2014-09-15 This collection brings together cutting-edge work by established and emerging scholars focusing on key societies in the East Asian region: China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan, North and South Korea, Mongolia, and Vietnam. This scope enables the collection to reflect on the nature of the transformations in constructions of sexuality in highly developed, developing, and emerging societies and economies. Both Japan and China have established traditions of sexuality studies reflecting longstanding indigenous understandings of sex, as well as more recent developments which interface with Euro-American medical and psychological understandings. Authors reflect upon the complex colonial and economic interactions and cultural flows which have affected the East Asian region over the last two centuries They trace local flows of ideas instead of defaulting to Euro American paradigms for sexuality studies Through looking at regional and global exchanges of ideas about sexuality this volume adds considerably to our understanding of the East Asian region and contributes to wider discussions of social transformation modernisation and globalisation It will be essential reading in undergraduate and graduate programs in sexuality studies gender studies women s studies and masculinity studies as well as in anthropology sociology history cultural studies area studies and health sciences

Dancing Theology in Fetish Boots Lisa Isherwood,2013-01-26 Marcella Althaus Reid was one of the most fascinating and controversial theologians of the twentieth and early twenty first century Her strong personality and her iconoclastic work inspired a whole generation of theologians in the UK and worldwide Marcella s creative life was cut short by her death from cancer in 2009 Yet she lives on not least in those who have been inspired by her work and continue to engage with it Dancing Theology in Fetish Boots draws together a number of world class scholars and others who engage with the main themes of Marcella s work and show how the critical and controversial conversations which Marcella has begun can and do continue It is therefore far more than a Festschrift but a celebration of an intellectual life Marcella style

Prostitution, Race and Politics Philippa Levine,2013-01-11 In addition to shouldering the blame for the increasing incidence of venereal disease among sailors and soldiers prostitutes throughout the British Empire also bore the burden of the contagious diseases ordinances that the British government passed By studying how British authorities enforced these laws in four colonial sites between the 1860s and the end of the First World War Philippa Levine reveals how myths and prejudices about the sexual practices of colonized peoples not only had a direct and often punishing effect on how the laws operated but how they also further justified the distinction between the colonizer and the colonized

Modern Japanese society / edited by Josef Kreiner, Ulrich Hohwald and Hans Dieter Olschleger. Josef Kreiner,Ulrich Mèohwald,Hans Dieter Ölschleger,2004 Is Japanese society essentially different from other modern industrialized societies or not This survey work with contributions from the leading scholars in this complicated field presents a full overview of the most important aspects of Japanese society which may lead the reader to find an answer to these two often asked questions Japanese society defined as those institutions shaping the life of individuals and groups as well as being responsible for the dynamics of social development is shown to be as modern as any other industrialized society definitely distinct though are the ways in which institutions are defined and organised as a result of different social and historical roots of the process of modernization

Women in Japanese Society Kristina R. Huber,Kathryn Sparling,1992-09-15 This exhaustive bibliography contains more than 2 300 annotated entries on the lives of women in Japan It includes books and book chapters articles in scholarly journals and popular magazines and published conference papers The authors have diligently researched databases bibliographies and indexes and have based their detailed annotations on a close examination of the works cited The volume lists works published in English from 1841 to the present and a particularly significant feature is the inclusion of literary works by Japanese women The book is further balanced by material on non Japanese women living in Japan All materials are available in the United States through standard interlibrary loan sources A valuable introduction provides detailed instructions for using the volume The bibliography is divided into a number of broad sections on the public and private lives of women and entries in each section are grouped in more specific categories covering home life politics education religion careers the arts and other areas The sections on literature briefly introduce the lives and works of poets and prose writers listing their individual works available in English translation A concluding section provides access to reviews and overviews of scholarship on women in Japan The extensive author title and subject indexes make this book of tremendous value to researchers in a wide range of disciplines

Religion, Ecology & Gender Sigurd Bergmann, Yong-bok Kim, 2009 The understanding of nature is at the heart of European self understanding while in Asia the terms of life and energy play a similar central role Globally many institutions and movements have made the protection of the environment and climate a top policy priority Given the urgency of environmental problems the lack of reflections about the human and especially the spiritual dimension of environmental problems is striking Environmental and climatic change transforms not only culture politics and economy but also religion Religious traditions have on the one hand always been dependent on human ecologies on the other hand they vibrantly affect our perceptions of nature and sociocultural practices with in it If life and religion change dramatically at present how could religion make a change How are religious and ecologic processes gendered and how can ecofeminism deepen our understanding of justice What are the life enhancing spiritual resources in the East and the West How can Christian theology contribute to the necessary eco cultural revolution ahead of us And how can Buddhist Taoist Confucian and Christian spiritualities cooperate in a common space and future Questions like these are reflected upon by scholars of religion and theology from Korea Canada and Scandinavia Their chapters emerge from an international workshop which was arranged and convened by the editors 2007 in Yecheon on the Korean countryside and in Seoul

Gender in Modern East Asia Barbara Molony, 2018-05-04 Gender in Modern East Asia explores the history of women and gender in China Korea and Japan from the seventeenth century to the present This unique volume treats the three countries separately within each time period while also placing them in global and regional contexts Its transnational and integrated approach connects the cultural economic and social developments in East Asia to what is happening across the wider world The text focuses specifically on the dynamic histories of sexuality gender ideology discourse and legal construction marriage and the family and the gendering of work society culture and power Important themes and topics woven through the text include Confucianism writing and language the role of the state in gender construction nationalism sexuality and prostitution New Women and Modern Girls feminisms comfort women and imperialism Accessibly written and comprehensive Gender in Modern East Asia is a much needed contribution to the study of the region

An Asian Woman's Religious Journey with Thomas Merton Jung Eun Sophia Park, 2021-11-30 Join Jung Eun Sophia Park on her personal quest for God and her true self through the writings of Thomas Merton Approaching Merton as an Asian immigrant feminist in the postcolonial era Park's perspective is a unique one and in this dance sometimes it is her and sometimes Merton who leads Throughout Eastern and Western spirituality are organically woven together in reflection on Merton's narratives and in the examination of late capitalism poverty beauty and violence These reflections are insightful provocative and illuminating particularly with regard to his androcentric spirituality especially as it relates to his relationships with women

The Power of Erotic Celibacy Lisa Isherwood, 2006-04-10 This title considers various issues regarding celibacy and Christianity including the following how the female body is used to underpin exploitative social systems how Christianity has tried to control the bodies of women through regulations about the female body how women have used celibacy to subvert the social order how radical incarnationism and queer theory create new challenges to traditional understandings of celibacy how being erotic and celibate may manifest in social sexual and political ways It also explores how being erotically celibate challenges patriarchal society and opens up new theological understanding

Scream from the Shadows Setsu Shigematsu, 2012 The first sustained analysis of the Japanese women's liberation movement of the 70s with its lessons for contemporary politics

Gender in South Asia Subhadra Mitra Channa, 2013-09-05 This book is an examination of gender in South Asia and its intersection with other social variables like caste and class It spans a wide canvas in terms of different social classes ranging from elite to Dalit women of India and takes material from ancient texts and modern media literature and ethnographic materials forming a historical discourse There is an appraisal of what feminism means in the Indian context and the cross cultural construction of patriarchy that varies in its manifestations across time and space The readers are taken on a journey that shows how gender can only be understood in its social and historical context and as a dynamic and performative concept that emerges out of both collective imaginations and social realities The use of descriptive and narrative style makes the book readable and enjoyable to both academic and non academic readers

Making the 'Woman' Sutapa Dutta, Shivangini Tandon, 2023-12-13 The book examines the representation of women their agency and subjectivity and gender relations in 18th and 19th century India The chapters in the volume interrogate notions and discourses of women and gender during the period historically shaped by multiple and even competing actors practices and institutions They highlight the making of the woman across a wide spectrum of subject areas regions and roles and attempt to understand the contradictions and differences in social experiences and identity formations of women The volume also deals with prevalent notions of masculinity and femininity normative and non conformist expressions of gender and sexual identity and epistemological concerns of gender especially in its intersectional interplay with other axes of caste class race region and empire Presenting unique understandings of our gendered pasts this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history gender studies and South Asian studies Traffic in Asian Women Laura Hyun Yi Kang,2020-08-14 In Traffic in Asian Women Laura Hyun Yi Kang demonstrates that the figure of Asian women functions as an analytic with which to understand the emergence decline and permutation of U S power knowledge at the nexus of capitalism state power global governance and knowledge production throughout the twentieth century Kang analyzes the establishment suppression forgetting and illegibility of the Japanese military comfort system 1932 1945 within that broader geohistorical arc Although many have upheld the comfort women case as exemplary of both the past violation and the contemporary empowerment of Asian women Kang argues that it has profoundly destabilized the imaginary unity and conceptual demarcation of the category Kang traces how Asian women have been alternately distinguished and effaced as subjects of the traffic in women sexual slavery and violence against women She also explores how specific modes of redress and justice were determined by several overlapping geopolitical and economic changes ranging from U S guided movements of capital across Asia and the end of the Cold War to the emergence of new media technologies that facilitated the global circulation of comfort women stories Gnostic Dualism in Asia Minor during the first centuries, A.D. II P.F.M. Fontaine,2023-08-14 Asian Feminist Biblical Studies : Perspectives and Methods Maggie Low,2023-10-12 Groundbreaking and inspiring this book offers a comprehensive and up to date overview of Asian feminist biblical criticism It is a gift to the Asian churches and to the theological community I highly recommend it to all who search for biblical insights to empower women and men to work for justice Kwok Pui lan Dean s Professor of Systematic Theology at Candler School of Theology Emory University This is a superb collection of the different approaches of feminist biblical scholars in Asia I found it invigorating and thought provoking to learn about the multiple ways in which Asian feminists made their exodus from Western biblical studies to interpret this foundational text in their own unique contexts Gale A Yee Nancy W King Professor of Biblical Studies Emerita Episcopal Divinity School This collection of essays by mostly younger Asian biblical scholars is a welcome addition to a small but growing body of Asian feminist studies The diversity of perspectives methodologies and creative interpretations makes it an ideal introductory text for anyone wishing to learn more about Asian feminism Simon Chan Editor Asia Journal of Theology
