Resources in Education ,1978 Universities and the Myth of Cultural Decline Jerry Herron,1988 Jerry Herron argues that the vision of culture as an end in itself has been all too thoroughly fulfilled in the present state of humanities education but only because the humanities have lost their social function In this book he attempts to provide a constructive alternative to the nostalgia and pessimism currently prevailing In Herron s view the humanities are not really irrelevant it is that the intellectual and political conversation that they represent is only latent rather than publicly manifest The humanities can only be justified in a world of work and power by proving useful in that world The academic humanities harbor a general intellectual conversation that could potentially be interesting and even useful to society at large Arguing that the prevailing analyses are wide of the mark Herron recommends that universities undertake to promote a new cultural literacy Based on a collaborative enterprise open to all its focus is the effective sharing of information and experience A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Worlds Apart Carol A.
