Ask Me Something I Don't Know:

Tell Me Something I Don't Know: Dialogues in Epistemology Michael Veber, 2018-02-28 Tell Me Something I Don't Know is a collection of original dialogues in epistemology suitable for student readers but also of interest to experts. Familiar problems, theories, and arguments are explored. Second-order knowledge, epistemic closure, the preface paradox, skepticism, pragmatic encroachment, the Gettier problem, and more. New ideas on each of these issues are also offered, defended, and critiqued, often in humorous and entertaining ways.

Ask Me Anything J. Budziszewski, 2014-02-27 The college years are full of life-defining questions and concerns. Dr. Budziszewski, aka Professor Theophilus, offers his expert opinion to help students achieve personal insight about the most controversial and confusing topics they may face.

Dirty Rich Obsession Lisa Renee Jones, 2018-08-22 HE'S A MAN OF CONTROL. SHE'S THE WOMAN ABOUT TO TAKE IT. Reid Maxwell is one of the top corporate attorneys and one of the most eligible bachelors in New York City. He likes his wins big, his women beautiful, and in bed not out, and most importantly, the deep burn of his past buried. Until one woman, a most unexpected woman, challenges him in ways that might just destroy the invincible Mr. Maxwell. Carrie West is captive to Reid Maxwell, and a debt between their families she doesn't know exists. It should be so simple for Reid Maxwell to claim the company that is now his. The problem he's now obsessed with: Carrie, the daughter of the man he's destined to destroy. Now, who's captive to who?

Charles Dickens' Most Influential Works (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, 2017-10-16 Our Mutual Friend explores the conflict between doing what society expects of a person and the idea of being true to oneself. The Pickwick Papers extends his researches into the quaint and curious phenomena of life. Samuel Pickwick suggests that he and three other Pickwickians should make journeys to places remote from London and report on their findings to the other members. Oliver Twist is an orphan who starts his life in a workhouse and is then sold into apprenticeship with an undertaker. He escapes from there and travels to London where he meets the Artful Dodger, a member of a gang of juvenile pickpockets led by the elderly criminal Fagin. A Christmas Carol tells the story of a bitter old miser named Ebenezer Scrooge and his transformation after visitations by the ghost of his former business partner and the Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Yet to Come. David Copperfield is a fatherless boy who is sent to lodge with his housekeeper's family after his mother remarries, but when his mother dies, he decides to run away. Hard Times is set in the fictional city of Coketown and is centered around utilitarian and industrial influences on Victorian society. A Tale of Two Cities depicts the plight of the French peasantry demoralized by the French aristocracy in the years leading up to the revolution and many unflattering social parallels with life in London during the same period. Great Expectations depicts the personal growth and development of an orphan nicknamed Pip in Kent and London in the early to mid-19th century. Bleak House, a legal thriller based on true events, criticizes the institution of debtors' prisons, the shortcomings of both government and society. Ghetto Walls Michael Novak,2017-09-08 This book is about the family lives of some 10 000 children and adults who live in an all Negro public housing project in St Louis The Pruitt Igoe project is only one of the many environments in which urban Negro Americans lived in the 1960s but the character of the family life there shares much with the family life of lower class Negroes as it has been described by other investigators in other cities and at other times in Harlem Chicago New Orleans or Washington D C This book is primarily concerned with private life as it is lived from day to day in a federally built and supported slum The questions which are treated here have to do with the kinds of interpersonal relationships that develop in nuclear families the socialization processes that operate in families as children grow up in a slum environment the informal relationships of children and adolescents and adults with each other and finally the world views the existential framework arising from the life experiences of the Pruitt Igoeans and the ways they make use of this framework to order their experiences and make sense out of them The lives of these persons are examined in terms of life cycles Each child there is born into a constricted world the world of lower class Negro existence and as he grows he is shaped and directed by that existence through the day to day experiences and relationships available to him The crucial transition from child of a family to progenitor of a new family begins in adolescence and for this reason the book pays particular attention to how each new generation of parents expresses the cultural and social structural forces that formed it and continue to constrain its behavior This book in short is about intimate personal life in a particular ghetto setting It does not analyze the larger institutional social structural and ideological forces that provide the social economic and political context in which lower class Negro life is lived These larger macro sociological forces are treated in another volume based on research in the Pruitt Igoe community However this book does draw on the large body of literature on the structural position of Negroes in American society as background for its analysis of Pruitt Igoe private life
