Whole Men Kai Jensen, 1996 Kai Jensen takes a provocative look at masculinity in New Zealand literature He argues that New Zealand writing around the Second World War was shaped by excitement about masculinity as a way of challenging society Inspired partly by Marxism writers such as A R D Fairburn Denis Glover John Mulgan and Frank Sargeson linked national identity to the ordinary working man or soldier and attempted to merge artistic activity and manliness in a new ideal the whole man This masculine excitement forged a literary and intellectual culture which was powerful for thirty years and which discouraged women writers Jensen suggests that the aftermath of masculinism still influences the way New Zealand intellectuals see themselves and that the masculine tradition survives in the writing of Owen Marshall Sam Hunt Maurice Shadbolt and even Maurice Gee At the same time he argues that masculinism underwent a process of change after its high point in the 1940s Frank Sargeson's closeted homosexuality posed a complex problem for the masculine tradition and its historians and James K Baxter's symbolic Jungian poetry was also hard to reconcile with the idea that men's writing must be based on robust experience Yet Baxter prepared the masculine tradition for the 1960s and 1970s by renovating the whole man as bohemian lover Whole Man is not just about one literary movement but about how literary culture works and how New Zealand intellectuals construct their identities

Reflections on the Life and Dreams of C.G. Jung Aniela Jaffé, 2025-03-29 Aniela Jaffé presents thoughts and ruminations that Jung shared with her as they prepared Memories Dreams Reflections by C G Jung These never before published revelations present a kaleidoscope of episodic philosophical humorous and enigmatic material uniquely complementing and expanding on the widely acclaimed MDR Jung allowed his thoughts to flow freely during our conversations according to the situation and his interests of the moment When speaking with me he was not hindered by intellectual considerations of possible criticism It didn't concern him that his words and insights might require further thoughtful reflection before they could be deemed coherent or valid If I managed to touch upon a point of interest Jung did not just answer my question but followed his train of thought further Aniela Jaff from the Introduction The historical commentary by Elena Fischli illuminates the biographical work with C G Jung on the basis of source material How did the conversations and the notes of Aniela Jaff come about What was the nature of the relationship and collaboration between her and Jung How did others deal with their work And finally who was this woman who was so candidly given such a glimpse into Jung s inner life Also available in the original German Streiflichter zu Leben und Denken C G Jungs
