Aspects Of Islamic Civilization:

Aspects of Islamic Civilization A J Arberry, 2013-10-16 Originally published in 1964 this volume gathers together extracts from many of Arberry's best known works and supplements them with a selection of previously unpublished translations. The material therefore presents a vivid picture of the richness and variety of Islamic civilization from its origins to the late twentieth century.

The different aspects of islamic culture Ahmad, Maqbul, Al-Hassan, Ahmad Youssef, Iskandar, Albert Z., UNESCO, 2002-12-31 Research into Islamic science and technology is still in its early stages but there is now sufficient material available for a preliminary study. Volume IV is intended to fill a gap which deserves a major multi-volume work. Part I is a review of the history of science in Islam. It deals with the contribution of Islamic civilization to mathematics, astronomy and physics which have long been acknowledged but also advances made by Muslim scientists in the fields of cosmology, geology and mineralogy, zoology, veterinary science and botany.

Aspects of Islamic Civilization Arthur John Arberry, 2008 Presents a vivid picture of the richness and variety of Islamic civilization from its origins to the late twentieth century.

Aspects of Islamic Civilization As Depicted in the Original Texts Arthur John Arberry, 1987

The different aspects of islamic culture Ahmad, Maqbul, Al-Hassan, Ahmad Youssef, Iskandar, Albert Z., UNESCO, 2002-12-31 Part II deals with agricultural science, alchemy, chemistry and chemical technology, mining and metallurgy, military technology, textiles and manufacturing industries, mechanical technology, civil engineering, navigation and ship building, medicine and pharmacy. Historians of Islamic science tend to limit their studies to the period up to the 16th century but Part II of this volume also deals with the continuation of science and technology in the Ottoman Empire, India and Iran.

Publisher's description

The Different aspects of Islamic culture Ali, Abdulrahim, Thiam, Iba Der, Talib, Yusof A., 2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith, the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world, its expansion since the Revelation, its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts, and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity. The last 100 years of Islamic history are examined in the final volume, although the approach is thematic rather than historical. The period considered has seen European colonialism in most of the Islamic world and Islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements. We survey the groupings and forms of co-operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the Islamic peoples. Social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of Palestine, moves towards educational reform and the status of women in Islam As the Islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation this volume examines the attitude of contemporary Islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both Muslim and non Muslim countries Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri,2005-10-31 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the seventh and sixteenth century This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture art history history history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more This reference provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization including the many scientific artistic and religious developments as well as all aspects of daily life and culture For a full list of entries contributors and more visit www.routledge.com/middleages/Islamic Some Glittering Aspects of Islamic Civilization M. Arberry Arthur John Arberry, 1964 Aspects of Islamic civilization as depicted in the original texts Bertold Spuler, Walter de Gruyter und Co, 1965 Rec ksi ki Aspects of Islamic civilization as depicted in the original texts Arthur John Arberry London 1964 Crisis of Islamic Civilization Ali A. Allawi, 2009-04-28 Islam as a religion is central to the lives of over a billion people but its outer expression as a distinctive civilization has been undergoing a monumental crisis Buffeted by powerful adverse currents Islamic civilization today is a shadow of its former self The most disturbing and possibly fatal of these currents the imperial expansion of the West into Muslim lands and the blast of modernity that accompanied it are now compounded by a third giant wave globalization These forces have increasingly tested Islam and Islamic civilization for validity adaptability and the ability to hold on to the loyalty of Muslims says Ali A

Allawi in his provocative new book While the faith has proved resilient in the face of these challenges other aspects of Islamic civilization have atrophied or died Allawi contends and Islamic civilization is now undergoing its last crisis The book explores how Islamic civilization began to unravel under colonial rule as its institutions laws and economies were often replaced by inadequate modern equivalents Allawi also examines the backlash expressed through the increasing religiosity of Muslim societies and the spectacular rise of political Islam and its terrorist offshoots Assessing the status of each of the building blocks of Islamic civilization the author concludes that Islamic civilization cannot survive without the vital spirituality that underpinned it in the past He identifies a key set of principles for moving forward principles that will surprise some and anger others yet clearly must be considered

Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization
