The edition presents an interdisciplinary discussion of the topic in sociological, historical, and economic dimensions. It explores culturally specific forms of modernity with a focus on China and Europe. The Aztec Economic World Kenn Hirth, 2016-07-12 The first discussion of Aztec economy to include cross cultural comparisons with other ancient and premodern societies around the world. Leviathans Alfred D. Chandler, Bruce Mazlish, 2005-01-24 A ground breaking 2005 exploration of multinational corporations that differs from other books on the subject by offering the reader a totally global perspective of multinationals without portraying them simply as economic entities. Written by experts on various aspects of the history, development, cultural and social implications of the multinational corporation, the book paints a compelling and coherent picture of the way these businesses affect almost all areas of our existence. As we might expect, the multinational company is shown to play a major role in the globalization that is reshaping so much of our lives. Entrepreneurship Mark Casson, Peter J. Buckley, 2010-01-01 An important new addition by one of the entrepreneurship field's broadest and most important scholars. Entrepreneurship Theory Networks History will be required reading for anyone interested in truly understanding entrepreneurship. Scott Shane Case Western Reserve University US. The Social History of Achaemenid Phoenicia Vadim S. Jigoulov, 2016-04-08 Even though the Persian period has attracted a fair share of scholarly interest in recent years, as yet no concerted effort has been attempted to construct a comprehensive social history of Phoenician city states as an integral part of the Achaemenid empire. This monograph explores the evidence from Persian period literary, both ancient Jewish and classical epigraphic and numismatic sources, as well as material culture remains in order to sketch just such a history. This study examines developments in Persian period Phoenician city states on the three levels that of the individual household, the city state, and the administrative unit of the Persian empire. These three societal levels are analyzed within the contexts of economic competition between and among the Phoenician city states, their burgeoning economic ties with the outside world, and their interaction with the Persian imperial influence in the Levant. An American Story John Sibley Butler, Alfonso Morales, David L. Torres, 2009 In an atmosphere where the Mexican American population is viewed in terms of immigrant labor, this edited book examines the strong tradition of wealth creation and business creation within this population. In the introduction, readers are presented with enterprises such as Latin Works and Real Links, which represent large, successful, and middle size businesses. Chapters span research methods and units of analysis, utilizing archival data, ethnographic data, and the analysis of traditional census data to disaggregate gender and more broadly examine questions of business formation. From the chapters emerges a picture of problems overcome, success, and contemporary difficulties in developing new businesses. Analysis reveals how Mexican American entrepreneurs compare with other ethnic groups as they continue to build their ventures. This work is a refreshing alternative to books that focus on the labor aspects of the Mexican American experience. Contributors reveal the strong history of self help and entrepreneurship of this population.

by a catastrophic war a weak Germany creates a multilateral concert of powers and multistate competition often involving war but not on nearly as large a scale For Europe this cycle of German rise and fall has run its course three times the Holy Roman Empire Imperial Germany Nazi Germany and is only now entering its fourth iteration with the reunified Germany

Mazlish, 2006-09-27 From a distinguished author in the field The New Global History is a critical inquiry into the historical process of globalization which is seen as a distinctly twentieth century phenomenon with its roots in the age of expansion of the early modern world Cutting across disciplinary boundaries The New Global History offers a fresh overarching view of the process of globalization that is always empirically based and discusses the most important themes such as policy trade cultural imperialism and warfare Bruce Mazlish argues that globalization is not something that the West has imposed upon the rest of the world but the result of the interplay of many factors across continents Students of history politics and international studies will all find this a valuable resource in the pursuit of their studies
