Biting The Dust Joys Of Housework:

Biting the Dust Margaret Horsfield,1998-08-06 This is an examination of women s obsession with cleaning and cleanliness such as those who clean their skirting boards with Q tips or vacuum clean the lampshades and a mother who upon her son s suicide shed not a tear but scoured the kitchen floor with steel wool three nights running The book explores the social historical and psychological aspects of housework and features three categories of women and men people interviewed by the author historical figures and characters from novels and advertising The Science of Housework Ann Oakley,2024-07-25 In an era of pandemic infection the importance of hygiene at home and in public spaces has never been greater This book recaptures the buried history of the household science movement including domestic science teaching public health higher education for women and the scientific content and aims of domestic science courses It explores how it was viewed in the context of new public health concerns and as a driver to opening higher education to women raising questions about the legacy and modern relevance of the household science movement Llewellyn's 2014 Sabbats

Almanac Ed Day,2013 Make the most of each season of the Witches year with Llewellyn s Sabbats Almanac Packed with rituals rites recipes and crafts this essential guide offers fun and fresh ways to celebrate the eight sacred Wiccan holidays and enrich your spiritual life throughout the year Get a unique perspective on honoring the Wheel of the Year from your favorite Wiccan and Pagan authors Plan spiritually uplifting celebrations and family activities Perform Sabbat specific rituals and world folk rites Whip up tasty treats and crafts as reminders of the season s gifts and lessons Also featured are astrological influences to help you plan rituals according to cosmic energies Families Alex Liazos,2015-12-03 Unlike other family textbooks that mostly emphasize conflicts and problems this book also features the joys and pleasures of family living and its mutually nourishing qualities Its perspective reflects polls surveys and student essays indicating that most people value their families Families everywhere provide love support and sustenance to their members but they do so in many different arrangements Understanding the wide variety of families historically and across cultures gives the student a better basis for understanding how families change and a better grasp of more controversial changes such as the gradual acceptance by Westerners of same sex marriage and child rearing by single people Liazos offers two poignant chapters not found in other texts Family Living Chapter Six focuses on the social value of caregiving and family meals Kin and Community Chapter Seven focuses on relationships among kin and the larger community Cultures of Control Miriam R.

Levin,2005-06-27 This collection explores the history of control by looking at a variety of cultural forms practices and beliefs Food and Femininity in Twentieth-Century British Women's Fiction Andrea Adolph,2016-04-15 In her feminist intervention into the ways in which British women novelists explore and challenge the limitations of the mind body binary historically linked to constructions of femininity Andrea Adolph examines female characters in novels by Barbara Pym Angela Carter Helen Dunmore Helen Fielding and Rachel Cusk Adolph focuses on how women s relationships to food cooking eating serving are used to locate women's embodiment within the everyday and also reveal the writer's commitment to portraying a unified female subject. For example, using food and food consumption as a lens highlights how women writers have used food as a trope that illustrates the interconnectedness of sex and gender with issues of sexuality, social class, and subjectivity—all aspects that fall along a continuum of experience in which the intellect and the physical body are mutually complicit. Historically grounded in representations of women in periodicals, housekeeping and cooking manuals, and health and beauty books, Adolph's theoretically informed study complicates our understanding of how women's social and cultural roles are intricately connected to issues of food and food consumption.

Clean Virginia Sarah Smith, 2008. From prehistoric grooming rituals to New Age medicine, from ascetics to cosmetics, Clean looks at how different cultures have interpreted and striven for personal cleanliness and shows how throughout history this striving for purity has brought immense social benefits as well as great tragedies. Looking at human history through the lens of public baths, lavatories, laundry, teeth cleaning, cosmetics, food storage, and panty liners, Virginia Smith here combines archaeology, psychology, biology, and other fields to illuminate our modern obsession with cleanliness. She peppers her entertaining account with engaging and often surprising details. The book reveals, for instance, that even at the earliest stages of human development, our bodies produced pleasure-giving chemical opiates when things smelled or felt clean, inducing us to bathe or at least remove dirty clothes. She describes how during the Bronze Age, an emerging hierarchy of wealthy elites turned their love of grooming into an explosion of the cosmetic and luxury goods industry, greatly affecting the culture and economy of Eurasia and leading to advances in chemistry and medicine. Likewise, in Greece and Rome, citizens focused much of their leisure time on perfecting bathing or just writing about the model athletic body. Even today, our enlightened medical knowledge could not stop an onslaught of health remedies, treatments, spas, and New Age nature cures—all in the pursuit of purity. This engrossing and highly original work will introduce you to the customs and ideas of a myriad of cultures across centuries of human history, providing a marvelous new perspective on the importance of cleanliness to human civilization.

Moving on Sarah Ban Breathnach, 2006. The author offers an inclusive inspirational guide to help readers understand themselves and use their insights to accept change and move on after life-changing events.

Queen of the Castle Lynn Bowen Walker, 2006-05-30. Being a keeper at home demands that women possess a wide range of skills. Now the training skills and tips every woman needs are all here in one delightful to read volume. Merry Wives and Others Penelope Fritzer, Bartholomew Bland, 2010-06-28. In many ways, the history of domestic humor writing is also a history of domestic life in the twentieth century. For many years, domestic humor was written primarily by females; significant contributions from male writers began as times and family structures changed. It remains timeless because of its basis on the relationships between husbands and wives, parents and children, houses and inhabitants, pets and their owners, chores and their doers, and neighbors. This work is a historical and literary survey of humorists who wrote about home It begins with a chapter on the social context of and attitudes toward traditional domestic roles and housewives The following chapters beginning with the 1920s and continuing through today cover the different time periods and the foremost American domestic humorists and the humor written by surrogate parents grown children about their childhood families husbands and Canadian and English writers Also covered are the differences among various writers toward traditional domestic roles some like Erma Bombeck and Judith Viorst embraced them while others like Caryl Kristenson and Marilyn Kentz resisted them Common themes such as the isolation and competitiveness of housework home as an idealized metaphysical goal and ongoing physical challenge and the urban suburban and rural life are also explored

Made from Scratch Jean Zimmerman, 2012-11-13 A stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women's work Made from Scratch addresses the tug that many Americans feel between our professional and private lives In this stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women's work acclaimed journalist Jean Zimmerman poignantly addresses the tug that many Americans of the twenty first century feel between our professional and private lives With sharp wit and intelligence she offers evidence that in the current domestic vacuum we still long for a richer home life a paradox visible in the Martha Stewart phenomenon in the continuing popularity of women's service magazines such as Better Homes and Gardens Family Circle and Ladies Home Journal whose combined circulation of over 17 million is nearly twice the combined circulation of Time Newsweek and U S News World Report and the booming business of restorations where onlookers get a hands on view of domestic life as it flourished in past centuries This book is about the ways home traditions passed from one generation to the next baking a birthday cake from scratch cherishing family heirlooms or discovering the satisfaction of piecing a quilt sustain our souls especially in our ever more processed synthetic world where we buy homemade goods and fail to see the irony in that Made from Scratch tells the story of the unsung heroines of the hearth investigating the history of female domesticity and charting its cultural changes over centuries Zimmerman traces the lives of her own family's homemakers from her tiny but indomitable grandmother who managed a farm strangled chickens with her bare hands and sewed all the family clothing to her mother who rejected her country upbringing yet kept a fastidious suburban home where the gender divide stayed firmly in place to her own experiences as a wife and mother weaned on the Women's Movement of the 1970s with its emphatic view that housework was a dirty word and that the domestic sphere was to be fled rather than cherished In this book Zimmerman questions the unexamined trade off we have made in a shockingly brief time span as we've progressed from home raised chickens to frozen TV dinners to McNuggets from the food court at the mall What is lost when we no longer engage as individuals and as a community in the ancient rituals of food craft and shelter

The Vacuum Cleaner Maud Ellmann, 2024-07-25 This book offers an entertaining study of the facts and fantasies associated with the vacuum cleaner as it evolved from a luxury gimmick to a household necessity The iconic appliance of twentieth century domestic revolution the vacuum cleaner stands at the forefront of radical changes in technology automation finance marketing hygiene infrastructure time management domestic labour and the history of dirt This appliance also insinuates itself into the dominant phobias of the period including totalitarianism and nuclear war Maud Ellmann shows how modern literature art and other media have transformed this humble domestic mod con into a curmudgeon windbag cannibal vampire dictator infanticidal mother freedom fighter mantrap and lothario Working Mother, 2002-12 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Gender and Consumption Lydia Martens, Emma Casey, 2016-04-15 Drawing upon anthropological sociological and historical perspectives this volume provides a unique insight into women's domestic consumption The contributors argue that domestic consumption represents an important lens through which to examine the everyday production and reproduction of socio-economic relations Through a variety of case studies such as gambling wedding day consumption and bedroom decor the essays explore and reconsider the nature of public and private spaces and the subsequent nature of domestic space often by challenging traditional notions of what constitutes the domestic The volume demonstrates the broad range of experiences that domestic consumption offers women and reveals some of the complex meanings and motivations underpinning women's consumption practices The Chimney of the World Stephen Mosley, 2013-04-15 In this innovative contribution to the field of environmental history Stephen Mosley explores the devastating human and environmental costs of smoke pollution in the world's first industrial city Domestic Cultures Hollows, Joanne, 2008-02-01 This wide ranging text challenges a range of ideas about domestic culture It examines how the meanings of domestic life are produced across a range of discourses and practices from architecture lifestyle media and advertising to home decoration cooking and watching television Uncertain Ireland Mary P. Corcoran, Michel Peillon, 2006 Sociologists present short accessible essays examining specific events issues facing Irish society during 2003-2004 Topics covered include Bewley's cafes organic farming waste food poisoning violence immigration planning traffic prisons sectarianism Care and Agency Jeanine Anderson, Jessaca B. Leinaweaver, 2024-10-11 Andean communities occupy a special place in the history of anthropology having given shape to fundamental theories of kinship peasant economics Indigenous medical systems ritual life and others Yet children have been shortchanged in research and theory building Care and Agency based on detailed ethnographies of six towns in the province of Yauyos restores children to a central research position Contemporary children's studies emphasize children's agency and autonomy and these take surprising forms under the conditions of the rural Andes At the same time the book incorporates and extends current discussions of caregiving and its organization in human societies Children in the Andes are involved in the care of each other of adults of animals of the environment The activities sociality and subjective states of children of different ages genders and social strata are variable in ways that make it impossible to speak of a single Andean childhood The future they face is also uncertain as the Peruvian nation stumbles through cycles of incompetent government whose common thread is the neglect of small scale family farming and the welfare of rural populations This book is a fascinating look at Andean childhood for anyone interested in the lives of children From Submarines to Suburbs Cynthia Lee Henthorn, 2006 Using documentary evidence in the form of numerous advertisements of the time From Submarines to Suburbs is a fascinating analysis of the way corporations made the successful switch from supporting the war effort to building on the peacetime prosperity by re tooling the patriotic fervor of the home front A Year's Housekeeping in South Africa Lady Barker (Mary Anne), 1877
