Bitter Milk Women And Teaching:

Bitter Milk Madeleine R. Grumet, 1988 Estudio del estado de ambivalencia en el que se encuentran las mujeres que ejercen de profesoras entre su mundo privado y el público entre el trato con los niños y el sistema institucional de educación. Además se ocupa de los temas que afectan a las profesoras su relación con otras mujeres no docentes el educar a los hijos de otros la relación de la familia y la escuela o la feminización de la enseñanza Pictures of Music Education Estelle R.

Jorgensen, 2011-05-23 Estelle R Jorgensen's latest work is an exploratory look into the ways we practice and represent music education through the metaphors and models that appear in everyday life. These metaphors and models serve as entry points into a deeper understanding of music education that moves beyond literal ways of thinking and doing and allows for a more creative embodiment of musical thought. Seeing the reader as a partner in the creation of meaning Jorgensen intends for this book to be experienced by rather than dictated to the reader. Jorgensen's hope is that the intersections of art and philosophy and metaphor and model can provide a richer and more imaginative view of music education The Womanist Reader

Layli Phillips, 2006-09-19 Comprehensive in its coverage The Womanist Reader is the first volume to anthologize the major works of womanist scholarship. Charting the course of womanist theory from its genesis as Alice Walker's African American feminism through Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi's African womanism and Cleonora Hudson Weems' African womanism to its present day expression as a global anti-oppressionist perspective rooted in the praxis of everyday women of color, this interdisciplinary reader traces the rich and diverse history of a quarter century of womanist thought. Featuring selections from over a dozen disciplines by top womanist scholars from around the world plus several critiques of womanism, an extensive bibliography of womanist sources and the first ever systematic treatment of womanist thought on its own terms Layli Phillips has assembled a unique and groundbreaking compilation Feminist Art Education Archival Research

Linda Hoeptner Poling, Karen Keifer-Boyd, 2025-07-11 Feminist Art Education Archival Research C H U T N E Y Power explores the National Art Education Association's NAEA Women's Caucus histories of trailblazing feminist art education research leadership and policy activism. From archival research specifically delving into the NAEA Women's Caucus Archive at The Pennsylvania State University, this led to interviews with feminist activists in art education. The book draws attention to the activism of the NAEA Women's Caucus contextualized within tenets of critical race feminism which calls for organizational accountability from critical examination of hegemonic structures and practices that privilege white patriarchal colonialism and serves as a structure to deconstruct, interrogate, disrupt and reimagine inequities that exist in art education and all of education. Feminist Art Education Archival Research C H U T N E Y Power is a unique text ideal for feminist organizations, gender studies research and art educators at all levels of teaching from preK to higher education and is an ideal companion text for post-secondary art education, women's studies, leadership and other related areas Researching School Experience Martyn Hammersley, 1999 This book brings together material from a wide range of studies, mainly qualitative in character concerned with exploring what actually goes on in learning situations and explores the perspectives of teachers and students

A Class Act Susan Robertson, 2017-09-29 This book offers an original and challenging theoretical and empirical approach to mapping the changing nature of teachers work historically and in the contemporary period It is an attempt to understand how and in what ways teachers work has changed following the demise of the post war settlement and the imminent collapse of teachers project of professionalism secured through solidaristic strategies such as unionism Dr Robertson argues that in order to understand these issues a more rigorous set of conceptual tools around social class occupational power and worker control is needed The first two sections of the book set out to address that problem The final section elaborates on the changing contexts and conditions for contemporary teachers more generally and argues that structural and ideological changes within educational provision have led to differing capacities in the realization of class assets inside/out Rebecca A. Martusewicz, William M. Reynolds, 2012-12-06 This engaging text examines issues in education and curriculum theory from multiple critical perspectives Students are encouraged to look at education from the inside the complex processes methods and relations that operate within schools and from the outside the larger social economic and political forces that have affected schools over time Each essay begins with Guiding Questions and concludes with Questions for Discussion Teachers as Researchers activities and Suggested Readings

Curriculum Studies Handbook - The Next Moment Erik Malewski, 2009-09-10 What comes after the reconceptualization of curriculum studies What is the contribution of the next wave of curriculum scholars Comprehensive and on the cutting edge this Handbook speaks to these questions and extends the conversation on present and future directions in curriculum studies through the work of twenty four newer scholars who explore each in their own unique ways the present moment in curriculum studies To contextualize the work of this up and coming generation each chapter is paired with a shorter response by a well known scholar in the field provoking an intra inter generational exchange that illuminates both historical trajectories and upcoming moments From theorizing at the crossroads of feminist thought and post colonialism to new perspectives that include critical race currere queer southern studies Black feminist cultural analysis post structural policy studies spiritual ecology and East West international philosophies present and future directions in the U S American field are revealed

Canadian Education Brenda L. Spencer, Kenneth D. Gariepy, Kari Dehli, James Ryan, 2012-10-17 Canadian Education Governing Practices and Producing Subjects is an absolutely critical volume bridging a number of key areas in Canadian education classroom politics schools teachers work higher education and much more with the theoretical contributions of Michel Foucault The result is illuminating engaging and critically provocative The essays are carefully chosen and utilize Foucauldian concepts such as governmentality discipline subjectivity and genealogy to excellent critical effect With a skillfully crafted introduction that nicely brings the entire collection into sharp focus the editors have provided a text that is a must read for critical scholars and students alike

Mona Gleason Department of Educational Studies University of British Columbia This excellent text presents a Foucauldian analysis of selected educational practices contemporary reform initiatives and current educational policy in the Canadian context The authors demonstrate how rich theoretical constructs such as bio power governmentality and disciplinary power can illuminate everyday practices and policies making the cultural unconscious apparent Foucault 1989 p 71 Canadian Education Governing Practices and Producing Subjects is essentially a hopeful book it demonstrates the radicalizing role of theory as we try to understand and complicate educational structures and processes This is an essential text for all those interested in Foucauldian analyses of education and a must read for undergraduate and graduate students in Canadian faculties of education Anne M Phelan University of British Columbia This volume is most useful in the ways in which it achieves a close look and a wide sweep of education policy its deployment and its effects as these are embedded in schooling practices educational strategies and pedagogy It offers the ground from which to consider the potential for education to be aimed at the development of a socially just citizenry while also helping to reveal the structures of power and processes of social control that operate within current neoliberal technologies of governmentality It is against these that reform minded educators and curriculum and policy developers can set themselves While theoretically complex and original in its conceptual approach this book is also practically informative and eminently readable making it useful to teachers school administrators education policy developers parents students and communities at all levels of the schooling spectrum Magda Lewis PhD Professor and Queen's National Scholar Queen's University Kingston Magda Lewis Ph D Professor and Queen's National Scholar Queen's University Kingston

Shaping the Future

,2007-01-01 World wide the production of teachers has become a sharp political issue during the early years of the twenty first century Current systems for ensuring a supply of capable and knowledgeable teachers have come sustained under attack from politicians economists parents organisations and social critics alike There is less agreement now about teacher education than in any time over the past fifty years Much of the debate in the public and political arenas has been driven by narrow and expedient consideration and too much of it demonstrates a poor grasp of the deep and complex issues which teacher education in a democracy must confront At the same time there has been a serious educational debate which has focused on what a well trained teacher ought to be able to do and what methods of training and education can produce competent teachers The chapters of this book address these issues in a critical way asking what should the objectives of teacher education be The authors demonstrate the international reach of the debate over teacher education and they ground their discussions within the national contexts of their own experience All the authors share the view that teacher education involves much more than acquiring a set of skills and techniques Important as these are the well trained teacher needs for example to have an understanding of the contexts of teaching of the reasons why we teach of the role of schools as institutions within political environments as well as a coherent perspective on curriculum and the relevant bodies of theory which give overall point to what is being done What teacher education entails will probably never be beyond contestation at least not so long as it takes place within capitalist democracies These democracies with their tensions running between liberal ideals and economic imperative push and pull teacher education in contradictory directions At present educational ideals seems too quickly and too dogmatically to be traded for immediate fiscal policy The authors of these chapters articulate the reasons why such short term thinking will be detrimental to any approach to teacher education which commits itself to producing well rounded and comprehensively professional teachers

Subject To Fiction Munro , Peter,1998-04-01 Drawing on the life histories of three teachers this book explores their narrative strategies to author themselves as active agents within and against the essentializing discourses of teaching The complex and contradictory ways in which these women construct themselves as subjects while simultaneously disrupting the notion of a unitary subject provide new ways to think about subjectivity resistance power and agency

Women Beyond Freud: New Concepts Of Feminine Psychology Milton M. Berger,2013-05-24 First published in 1994 This volume contains the proceedings of a historic meeting attended by over 2 000 mental health professionals and lay people to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Karen Horney Psychoanalytic Centre in New York City Each contributor to this book offers unique insight into the seminal work of Karen Horney one of the first psychoanalysts to question Freud s male centred theories and clinical practices The book includes accounts of the formative girlhood experiences that awakened Horney s spirit of independence and the intellectual and cultural currents of her time that influenced her work A contribution by a Preeminent Sex Therapist Challenges The Notion That Liberated Women threaten the potency of men Other contributors define the characteristics of relationships that foster or hinder women s psychological growth and discuss the conflicts faced by adolescent girls as they become aware of gender differences

Critical Perspectives on Early Childhood Education Lois Weis,Philip G. Altbach,Gail P. Kelly,Hugh G. Petrie,1991-09-10 This book explores key policy issues related to early childhood education Through the contributions of various professionals in the field the editors provide a vision practical and possible of early childhood education in the 1990s Part I delves into the complex world both personal and professional of the classroom teacher The essays in Part II look at issues of the school community including the roles of class race gender and exceptionality Finally Part III examines the relationship between schools and the community at large and how complex issues find their way into social and economic policies that often stifle rather than support the democratic vision of American schools Taken as a whole the volume presents a stimulating discussion of the current state of early childhood education policy and practice

Curriculum Development in the Postmodern Era Patrick Slattery, 2013 This landmark text was one of the first to introduce and analyze contemporary concepts of curriculum that emerged from the Reconceptualization of curriculum studies in the 1970s and 1980s This new edition brings readers up to date on the major research themes postmodernism ecological hermeneutics aesthetics and arts based research race class gender sexuality and classroom practices within the historical development of the field from the 1950s to the present Like the previous editions it is unique in providing a comprehensive overview in a relatively short and highly accessible text Provocative and powerful narratives both biography and autoethnography throughout invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation School based examples allow readers to make connections to schools and society teacher education and professional development of teachers Changes in the Third Edition New Glossary brief summaries in the text direct readers to the Companion Website to read the entire entries New analysis of the current accountability movement in schools including the charter school movement More international references clearly connected to international contexts More narratives invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation Companion Website new for this edition

Contemplative and Artful Openings Susan Casey Walsh, 2017-07-06 Highlighting an arts based inquiry process that involves contemplation mindful awareness and artful writing this book explores women's difficult experiences in teaching It weaves a strong autobiographical thread with artifacts from several research projects with female teachers By linking innovative approaches to research that involve visual images and poetic writing with feminist poststructuralist theories and Buddhist inspired practices Walsh offers new understandings about what it means to be critical in research and teaching and also what transformation both social and personal might entail Tales Out of School Jo Keroes, 1999 Jo Keroes's scope is wide she examines the teacher as represented in fiction and film in works ranging from the twelfth century letters of Abelard and Heloise to contemporary films such as Dangerous Minds and Educating Rita And from the twelfth through the twentieth century Keroes shows the teaching encounter is essentially erotic Tracing the roots of eros from cultural as well as psychological perspectives Keroes defines erotic in terms broader than the merely sexual She analyzes ways in which teachers serve as convenient figures on whom to map conflicts about gender power and desire To show how portrayals of men and women differ she examines pairs of texts using a film or a novel with a woman protagonist Up the Down Staircase for example as counterpoint to one featuring a male teacher Blackboard Jungle or The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie balanced against Dead Poets Society The portrayals of teachers like all images a culture presents of itself reveal much about our private and social selves Keroes points out authentic accounts of authoritative women teachers who are admired and respected by colleagues and students alike Real teachers differ from the stereotypes we see in fiction and film however Male teachers are often portrayed as heroes in film and fallibly human in fiction whereas women in either genre are likely to be monstrous or muddled and are virtually never women of color Among other things Keroes demonstrates the tension between reality and representation reveals society's ambivalence about power in the hands of women

The Hollywood Curriculum Mary M. Dalton, 2010 The Hollywood Curriculum is a sophisticated and thoughtful look at the portrayal of teachers in film and television in an exceptionally accessible way Dalton draws on some of the most relevant and exciting theory to evaluate teacher films and demonstrates a masterful insight into the worlds of education and film studies This book is a must read for those interested in exploring the intersection of teaching curriculum film television and society and is an outstanding contribution to the literature Alan S Marcus Associate Professor of Curriculum and Instruction University of Connecticut Author of Celluloid Blackboard Teaching History with Film and Teaching History with Film Strategies for Secondary Social Studies Book Jacket

Life History and Narrative J. Amos Hatch, Richard Wisniewski, 2002-11 Narrative inquiry refers to a subset of qualitative research design in which stories are used to describe human action This book contains current ideas in this field of research and will be of interest to qualitative researchers

Advocacy Research in Literacy Education Meredith Rogers Cherland, Helen Harper, 2023-05-31 This book reviews what the authors term advocacy research in literacy education research that explicitly addresses issues of social justice equity and democracy with the distinct purpose of social transformation It surveys what educational researchers who are working for social justice have accomplished describes current challenges and outlines future possibilities The first section maps the terrain of advocacy research in literacy education The authors group this large and expanding body of research into four categories Critical Literacy Radical Counternarratives in Literacy Research Literacy as Social Practice and Linguistic Studies Each chapter describes the research area traces its history provides example studies and assesses the contributions of research to advocacy work now and potentially in the future The second section provides a deeper consideration of challenges to the field of advocacy research and suggests future directions for research and scholarship this section reflects the need to complicate and trouble the terms and relations between and among social justice ethics democracy freedom and literacy As a whole this book is a response to the current popular understandings of literacy education that limit the efficacy of advocacy work in these troubled times understandings that support the proliferation of standardized testing teacher testing and scripted lessons and programs along with the privileging of particular forms of research Intended for those who work or soon will work in literacy education students teacher educators researchers and practitioners this book represents the authors belief that it is time for advocacy workers to strengthen and intensify their efforts to promote the most principled effective literacy education for democratic life It is their hope that this book will contribute to such an effort
