Where Was the Angel Going? Jan Balaban, 2021-06-07 Somewhere in the cosmos there are happier places muses Martin Vrana the hero of Jan Balaban's novel Where was the Angel Going People are transported to the planet Earth for punishment Part of the punishment is their ignorance of the fact We've forgotten that we've forgotten Yet as this very reflection implies in Martin's case part of his punishment is his ever-present memory of an Eden from which he had been expelled The prototypical outsider a member of a minority community within a minority community a Protestant in the overwhelmingly agnostic Czech Republic Martin like the survivor of a shipwreck strives to shore up his vital resources amidst the billows of an inimical world which constantly advance and threaten to wash away everything he holds dear Where was the Angel Going is a novel made up of forty-six linked stories As always Balaban's prose is so vivid that the reader can practically taste the honey and dust which are the characteristic flavours of Ostrava And yet in its lyrical message of love and friendship as basic human needs no less critical than air and water Where was the Angel Going is nonetheless an eminently universal novel Everyone will find him or herself in these pages as we are all of us descended from that first pair of exiles Adam and Eve Translation of this book was supported by the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic
