Critical Issues in Mathematics Education Bharath Sriraman, Paul Ernest, Brian Greer, 2009-06-01 The word critical in the title of this collection has three meanings all of which are relevant One meaning as applied to a situation or problem is at a point of crisis A second meaning is expressing adverse or disapproving comments or judgments A third is related to the verb to critique meaning to analyze the merits and faults of The authors contributing to this book pose challenging questions from multiple perspectives about the roles of mathematics in society and the implications for education Traditional reasons for teaching mathematics include preparing a new generation of mathematics researchers and a cadre of technically competent users of mathematics training students to think logically and because mathematics is as much part of cultural heritage as literature or music These reasons remain valid though open to critique but a deeper analysis is required that recognizes the roles of mathematics in framing many aspects of contemporary society that will connect mathematics education to the lived experiences of students their communities and society in general and that acknowledges the global ethical responsibilities of mathematicians and mathematics educators The book is organized in four sections 1 Mathematics education For what and why 2 Globalization and cultural diversity 3 Mathematics education and society and 4 Social justice in and through mathematics education The chapters address fundamental issues such as the relevance of school mathematics in people s lives creating a sense of agency for the field of mathematics education and redefining the relationship between mathematics as discipline mathematics as school subject and mathematics as part of people s lives Re-Inventing Africa Ifi Amadiume, 1997-12 This book reveals how conventional anthropology has consistently imposed European ideas of the natural nuclear family women as passive object and class differences on a continent with a long history of women with power doing things differently Amadiume argues for an end to anthropology and calls instead for a social history of Africa by Africans

Western European and British Barbarity, Savagery, and Brutality in the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade Dr. Robinson A. Milwood, Phd, 2013-06 Man makes history in a fashion and history also makes man As with other men the historical experience of the African over the centuries has had a profound effect on his self image as well as on his perception of the external world Perhaps more than other men the African in pre colonial times developed a strong historical tradition and his perception of himself and his world came to depend very much on his view of the past European colonialism brief as it was produced a traumatic effect largely because it tried to impose on the African a gross distortion of his historical tradition

The Politics of Time Achille Mbembe, Felwine Sarr, 2022-11-30 As we enter the third decade of the twenty first century the world is undergoing a major historical shift Africa and the Global South more generally is increasingly becoming a principal theatre in which the future of the planet plays itself out But not only this Africa is at the same time emerging as one of the great laboratories for novel forms of social economic political intellectual cultural and artistic life Often arising in unexpected places these new forms of life materialize in practices that draw deeply from collective memory while simultaneously assuming distinctly contemporary even futuristic guises In November 2017 the second session of the Ateliers de la pens e Workshops of Thought was held in Dakar Senegal Fifty African and diasporic intellectuals and artists participated and their debates unfolded along numerous thematic lines approached from the standpoints of many different disciplines This volume is the result of that encounter Among the many topics discussed were the concurrence and entanglement of multiple temporalities the politics of life in the Anthropocene the project of decolonization and the preservation and transmission of different ways of knowing At a time when the world is haunted by the specter of its own end the contributors to this volume ask whether one can by taking Africa as a point of departure seize hold of other options for the future not only for Africa but for the world The Politics of Time and its companion volume To Write the Africa World will be indispensable works for anyone interested in Africa its past present and future and in the new forms of critical thought emerging from Africa and the Global South

The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen s personal intellectual struggle life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa s situation An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone s mind beyond limit According to archaeological and geological findings Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty disease malnutrition and starvation As some Afro centric scholars argue Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction Social instability is rampant coup d etat and counter coup d etat is common Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing As a person of African origin and now a US citizen Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American This book explores the myth and reality of Western Eastern and African dictators role in the history of Africa

Abbarry is Assistant Chair of African American Studies at Temple University

Resuscitation of African Languages Isaac Mhute, Zilibele Mtumane, Vimbai Moreblessing Matiza, 2025-03-15 This book argues the case for indigenous African languages which have been stripped of their importance and are now often overshadowed both officially through governmental language policies and informally through attitudes and ideologies by former colonial languages The authors present case studies from a range of countries in the region arguing that languages tell us peoples identities and that by dropping their own languages in favour of foreign and imperialist languages they lose their culture history and identity as well The book addresses many of the challenges currently associated with African languages with the intention of influencing policy and practice in favour of their resuscitation This book will be of interest to policy makers academics and tertiary students in fields including Language Policy and Planning Language Revitalisation Heritage Language Learning Indigenous and Endangered Languages and Language Attitudes and Ideologies Hegel's Twilight Mogobe B. Ramose, 2013 Professor Heinz Kimmerle encountered African philosophy at a time when his specialisation in the philosophy of Hegel had attained world recognition For Hegel African philosophy did not exist in Sub Saharan Africa exactly the area in which Kimmerle made his first contact with African philosophy Hegel's philosophy was not a stranger to Sub Saharan Africa This was because the Western educational paradigm was imposed upon the conquered colonized peoples during the period of colonisation Unlike Hegel Kimmerle took African philosophy seriously and engaged initially in dialogues with African philosophy Out of the unfolding dialogues grew intercultural philosophy spearheaded by Kimmerle's penetrating insightful and incisive critique of some of the fundamental presuppositions of Hegel's philosophy The essays contained in this book focus on the evolution of Kimmerle's conception and meaning of intercultural philosophy Underlying this are recognition and respect for other modes of doing philosophy as manifestations of intercultural philosophy To deny dialogues if you prefer polylogue among world philosophies is to reject the very basis of philosophy Thus a crucial dimension of philosophy would be precluded which can be found in this book namely the critical evaluation of Kimmerle's conception and meaning of intercultural philosophy Africa and Globalization Kelebogile T. Setiloane, Abdul Karim Bangura, 2020-10-24 This edited volume examines the challenges of globalization in light of the need to revisit and reconceptualize the notion of Pan Africanism The first part of the book examines globalization and Africa's socioeconomic and political development in this century by using the Diopian Pluridisciplinary Methodology This approach is imperative because the challenges faced by Africa vis vis globalization and socioeconomic development are so multiplexed that no single disciplinary approach can adequately analyze them and yield substantive policy recommendations The chapters in the second part analyze the imperatives for Africa's global knowledge production development and economic transformation in the face of the pressures of globalization Part two demonstrates an urgent need for Africa's significant participation in the global knowledge economy in order to meet the continent's modern transformation and development aspirations The final part examines lessons from old and new Pan Africanism and how they can be utilized to deal with the challenges emanating from the forces of modern globalization With its multidisciplinary approach to a wide range of pressing modern issues for the African content this book is essential reading for scholars across the social sciences interested in where Africa is now and where it should go in this increasingly globalized world

An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis

Kwarteng, 2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante Abdul Karim Bangura Theophile Obenga Maulana Karenga Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah Ivan Van Sertima W E B Du Bois and several others Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens Ama Mazama editor author of Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet aka Ancient Egypt
