African American Music Mellonee V. Burnim, Portia K. Maultsby, 2014-11-13 American Music An Introduction Second Edition is a collection of seventeen essays surveying major African American musical genres both sacred and secular from slavery to the present With contributions by leading scholars in the field the work brings together analyses of African American music based on ethnographic fieldwork which privileges the voices of the music makers themselves woven into a richly textured mosaic of history and culture At the same time it incorporates musical treatments that bring clarity to the structural melodic and rhythmic characteristics that both distinguish and unify African American music The second edition has been substantially revised and updated and includes new essays on African and African American musical continuities African derived instrument construction and performance practice techno and quartet traditions Musical transcriptions photographs illustrations and a new audio CD bring the music to life The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Music in Black American Life, 1600-1945, 2022-08-23 This first volume of Music in Black American Life collects research and analysis that originally appeared in the journals American Music and the Black Music Research Journal and in the University of Illinois Press's acclaimed book series Music in American Life In these selections experts from a cross section of disciplines engage with fundamental issues in ways that changed our perceptions of Black music The topics include the culturally and musically complex Black music making of colonial America string bands and other lesser known genres practiced by Black artists the jubilee industry and its audiences and innovators in jazz blues and Black gospel Eclectic and essential Music in Black American Life 1600 1945 offers specialists and students alike a gateway to the history and impact of Black music in the United States Contributors R Reid Badger Rae Linda Brown Samuel A Floyd Jr Sandra Jean Graham Jeffrey Magee Robert M Marovich Harriet Ottenheimer Eileen Southern Katrina Dyonne Thompson Stephen Wade and Charles Wolfe Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 African American

Musical Heritage Lenard C. Bowie, 2012-01-30 LENARD C BOWIE DMA ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF MUSIC RETIRED THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA JACKSONVILLE FLORIDA Dr Lenard C Bowie has developed an enviable reputation as a consummate musician He is a classical trumpet artist accomplished band director effective music administrator skilled lecturer and published author As an author Bowie's expertise in several fields of endeavor has been documented through the following subjects as published in the professional music journals indicated Solving Problems of Young Trumpet Players published in the Music Educators National Journal December 1979 a critical review of Black University Marching Bands in the 80's published by The Marching Band January 1981 and the Proceedings of an Informal Research Conference whose mission was to document the extent to which African American music courses were offered in Florida's Public Schools was published by the Florida Music Educator June 2002 As an undergraduate Bowie was plagued by many questions concerning the absence of formal instruction in the music of his people especially when considering the fact that there were only two authentic types of American music that of the American Indians and that of African Americans with African American Music being the most important of the two Bowie's search for answers to his probing questions began when he enrolled in Professor Willie Ruffs course in Black Music as a graduate student at Yale University in 1974 This course opened Bowie's eyes ears and mind to many of his heretofore unanswered questions including the extent to which African music traditions are practiced in African American Music today and the impact that African American Music has made on the social political economic and religious climates of modern American Society After graduating from Yale with a Master of Musical Arts Degree in 1976 Bowie struck out on a mission to enlarge on what he had learned about African American Music This mission brought him in contact with a wealth of information through independent study of numerous publications and documentaries lectures festivals concerts and personal contacts with scholars who were or have become major players in the research dissemination performance and composition of African American Music Some of these scholars include former colleagues Dr Oily W Wilson composer and Chair of Composition at UCLA Berkeley Samuel Floyd Founder and Director of the Center for Black Music Research found at Fisk University now housed at Columbia College Chicago Dr Aaron Horne African American Music Biographer and Dean of Fine Arts Winston-Salem University North Carolina Arametha Adams Hummings Founder and Director of the Gateways Music Festival initiated at the North Carolina School of the Arts now housed at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester New York Operatic Tenor and Music Educator the late Dr William A Brown Others include Dr Portia Maultsby Professor of Music at Indiana University Dr Dena Epstein Retired Music Librarian Archival Researcher and Author Chicago Dr Rene Boyer White Professor of Music Education College Conservatory of Music The University of Cincinnati and Dr John Smith Dean of Fine Arts The University of South Florida at Tampa During the first of Dr Bowie's two terms as Music Department Chair at The University of North Florida he was afforded an opportunity to apply and distribute his long sought knowledge The opportunity came in the form of a Million Dollar Endowment from the Koger Company to develop programs of study in American Music The response of the faculty to the endowment was to institute two programs a Jazz Studies Program and a program in African American Music The Jazz Studies Program has become nationally recognized for outstanding achievements in jazz theory history and performance The latter program designed and developed by Bowie was Perspectives on American Music since 1950 James R. Heintze, 2024-02-02 As the century comes to a close composition of music in the United States has reached little consensus in terms of style techniques or schools In fourteen original articles the contributors to this volume explore the broad range and diversity of post World War II musical culture Classical and jazz idioms are both covered as is the broad history of electronic music in the United States Recorded Solo Concert Spirituals, 1916-2022, 2023-05-08 This work catalogs commercially produced recordings of Negro spirituals composed for solo concert vocalists More than 5 000 tracks are listed with entries sourced from a variety of recording formats The featured recordings enhance the study of concert spiritual performance in studio concert worship service or competition settings Arranged alphabetically entries variously identify the accompaniment including chorus piano orchestra guitar flute and violin in concert spiritual recordings The voice types of soloists are included as is the level of dialect used by various performers The composers publishers and format information are also listed when available While structured like a discography this guide extends beyond solely providing historical context and encourages the use of the recordings themselves Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk s Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence Less Is More Donna J.
