Black Athena Martin Gardiner Bernal,1996 Black Athena Writes Back Martin Bernal,2001-09-20 This book is Bernal's response to criticisms to his 1987 book BLACK ATHENA which argued for an Afro Asiatic origin for Greek civilization

Bronze Age Eleusis and the Origins of the Eleusinian Mysteries Michael B. Cosmopoulos,2015-06-30 This book provides a synthesis of the archaeology of Eleusis during the Bronze Age reconstructing the origins and early development of the Eleusinian Mysteries

Roots of Ancient Greek Civilization Harald Haarmann,2014-09-17 Contrary to a prevalent belief of the Western world that democracy agriculture theater and the arts were the attainments of Classical Greek civilization these were actually a Bronze Age fusion of earlier European concepts and Hellenic ingenuity This work considers both the multicultural wellspring from which these ideas flowed and their ready assimilation by the Greeks who embraced these hallmarks of civilization and refined them to the level of sophistication that defines classical antiquity

Monuments and Memory in Africa John Sodiq Sanni,Madalitso Zililo Phiri,2024-03-05 This book investigates how monuments have been used in Africa as tools of oppression and dominance from the colonial period up to the present day The book asks what the decolonisation of historical monuments and geographies might entail and how this could contribute to the creation of a post imperial world In recent times African movements to overthrow the symbols and monuments of the colonial era have gathered pace as a means of renaming reclassifying and reimagining colonial identities and spaces Movements such as RhodesMustFall in South Africa have sprung up around the world connected by a history of Black life struggles erasures oppression suppression and the depression of Black biopolitics This book provides an important multidisciplinary intervention in the discourse on monuments and memories asking what they are what they have been used to represent and ultimately what they can reveal about past and present forms of pain and oppression Drawing on insights from philosophy historical sociology politics museum and literary studies this book will be of interest to a range of scholars with an interest in the decolonisation of global African history

History of Intellectual Culture 3/2024 Charlotte A. Lerg,Johan Östling,Jana Weiß,Anne Kwaschik,Claudia Roesch,2024-10-21 The third issue of the yearbook History of Intellectual Culture HIC devotes a thematic section to experimental spaces for knowledge production The articles in this section investigate the role of experimental environments as sites for knowledge production during the long nineteenth century thereby extending the scope beyond the confines of traditional academic institutions such as academies laboratories and universities By focusing on intentional communities colonial gardens agricultural colonies and artistic colonies as experimental spaces the authors investigate the intertwined social natural and aesthetic aspects of environments An overarching aim is to develop a distinct perspective rooted in the history of knowledge wherein experiments are conceptualized both as a category employed by the historical actors and as a methodological concept In addition the third issue comprises several individual papers covering a wide range of topics stretching from the U S patent system in the 1930s and anti intellectualism in interwar Britain to the cultural translation of knowledge in the wake of the Holocaust and the circulation of economic knowledge in postwar Sweden

The issue also contains several theoretical historiographical and methodological interventions and reflections including a conversation on decolonizing knowledge in academia and beyond An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng, 2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop Ama Mazama Molefi Kete Asante Abdul Karim Bangura Theophile Obenga Maulana Karenga Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah Ivan Van Sertima W E B Du Bois and several others Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens Ama Mazama editor author of Africa in the 21st Century Toward a New Future There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet aka Ancient Egypt Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwarteng's An Intellectual Biography of Africa A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate How Africa Was Demonized in the Media The Earth, the City, and the Hidden Narrative of Race Carl C. Anthony, 2017-10-16 This book by Carl C Anthony offers a new story about race and place intended to bridge long standing racial divides The long ignored history of African American contributions to American infrastructure and the modern economic system is placed in the larger context of the birth of the universe and the evolution of humanity in Africa The author interweaves personal experiences as an architect planner environmentalist and black American with urban history racial justice cosmology and the challenge of healing the environmental and social damage that threatens the future of humankind Thoughtful writing about race urban planning and environmental and social equity is sparked by stories of life as an African American child in post

World War II Philadelphia a student and civil rights activist in 1960s Harlem a traveling student of West African architecture and culture and a pioneering environmental justice advocate in Berkeley and New York This book will appeal to everyone troubled by racism and searching for solutions including individuals exploring their identity and activists eager to democratize power and advance equitable policies in historically marginalized communities This is a rich insightful encounter with an American urbanist with a uniquely expansive perspective on human origins who sets forth what he calls an inclusive vision for a shared planetary future

A Sociolinguistics of the South Kathleen Heugh, Christopher Stroud, Kerry Taylor-Leech, Peter I. De Costa, 2021-07-01 This book brings to life initiatives among scholars of the south and north to understand better the intelligences and pluralities of multilingualisms in southern communities and spaces of decoloniality Chapters follow a longue durée perspective of human co existence with communal presents pasts and futures attachments to place and insights into how multilingualisms emerge circulate and alter over time Each chapter informed by the authors experiences living and working among southern communities illustrates nuances in ideas of south and southern tracing disconnected discourses in vastly different geopolitical contexts Authors reflect on the roots routes and ecologies of linguistic and epistemic heterogeneity while remembering the sociolinguistic knowledge and practices of those who have gone before The book re examines the appropriacy of how theories policies and methodologies for multilingual contexts are transported across different settings and underscores the ethics of research practice and reversal of centre and periphery perspectives through careful listening and conversation Highlighting the potential of a southern sociolinguistics to articulate a new humanity and more ethical world in registers of care hope and love this volume contributes to new directions in critical and decolonial studies of multilingualism and to re imagining sociolinguistics cultural studies and applied linguistics more broadly

African Engagements Ton Dietz, Kjell Havnevik, Mayke Kaag, 2011-06-09 By taking the emerging multipolarity at the global level as its focus by highlighting African agency in co shaping this new world order and by adopting a historically sensitive approach this collection aims to analyse African engagements and asks on whose terms these engagements are being built
