Asian Visions Of Authority:

Asian Visions of Authority Charles F. Keyes, Laurel Kendall, Helen Hardacre, 1994-03-01 Emerging from a conference on Communities in Question Religion and Authority in East and Southeast Asia held in Hua Hin Thailand May 1989 this volume examines some of the tensions and conflicts between states and religious communities over the scope of religious views of the communities the Religious Commodifications in Asia Pattana Kitiarsa, 2007-11-09 This book addresses the growing academic concerns of the market religion convergences in Asia Bringing together a group of leading scholars from Asia Europe Australia and North America it discusses multiple issues regarding religious commodifications and their consequences across Asia's diverse religious traditions Covering key issues in the anthropology and sociology of contemporary Asian religion it draws theoretical implications for the study of religions in the light of the shift of religious institutions from traditional religious beliefs to material prosperity The fact that religions compete with each other in a market of faiths is also at the core of the analysis The contributions show how ordinary people and religious institutions in Asia adjusted to and negotiated with the penetrative forces of a global market economy into the region's changing religious cultural landscapes An excellent contribution to the growing demands of ethnographically and theoretically updated interpretations of Asian religions Religious Commodifications in Asia will be of interest to scholars of Asian religion and new religious movements What Is Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics? Reading the New Testament Tat-siong Benny Liew, 2007-12-31 Liew is one of the most articulate creative and sophisticated biblical scholars in North America What Is Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics has not caused me to question that judgment A set of provocative questions arguments issues and problems the book opens a window onto what it means for human beings to try to negotiate a rather complex contemporary world with evidence of increasingly blurred but also thick ideological and social cultural boundaries and overlapping but also recognizable and isolable identity formations That Liew does this by using and bringing together the category Asian American and the phenomenon of the reading of the Bible as sharp analytical wedge is all the more fascinating This impressive book represents the collapse of the center and a major shift in orientation to the peripheries It is a major achievement and a major challenge Vincent L Wimbush Claremont Graduate University A groundbreaking achievement Dr Liew uses his amazing breadth of scholarship to challenge Eurocentrism in biblical studies and secularism in Asian American studies at once Like Gender Trouble The Future of an Illusion and other original work this book will become a classic in Asian American biblical hermeneutics setting the terms of debate for years to come After Liew reading the New Testament will never be the same again Kwok Pui lan Episcopal Divinity School Cambridge Massachusetts This is the first single authored book on Asian American biblical interpretation It covers all of the major genres within the New Testament and broadens biblical hermeneutics to cover not only the biblical texts but also Asian American literature and current films and events like genome research and September 11 Despite its range the book is organized around three foci methodology

the distinguishing characteristics or sensibilities of Asian American biblical hermeneutics community the politics of inclusion and exclusion and agency The work intentionally affirms Asian America as a panethnic coalition while acknowledging the differences within it In other words it attempts to balance Asian American panethnicity and heterogeneity or coalition building and identity politics Cultural Crisis and Social Memory Charles F. Keyes, Shigeharu Tanabe, 2013-10-18 Covers Social Memory a hot topic in anthropology Comparative analysis of two Southeast Asian countries Thailand and Laos Contributes to globalization debate linking it to questions of identity The Handbook of Religion and Communication Yoel Cohen, Paul A. Soukup, 2023-02-22 Provides a contemporary view of the intertwined relationship of communication and religion The Handbook of Religion and Communication presents a detailed investigation of the complex interaction between media and religion offering diverse perspectives on how both traditional and new media sources continue to impact religious belief and practice across multiple faiths around the globe Contributions from leading international scholars address key themes such as the changing role of religious authority in the digital age the role of media in cultural shifts away from religious institutions and the ways modern technologies have transformed how religion is communicated and portrayed Divided into five parts the Handbook opens with a state of the art overview of the subject's intellectual landscape introducing the historical background theoretical foundations and major academic approaches to communication media and religion Subsequent sections focus on institutional and functional perspectives theological and cultural approaches and new approaches in digital technologies The essays provide insight into a wide range of topics including religious use of media religious identity audience gratification religious broadcasting religious content in entertainment films and religion news reporting about religion race and gender the sex religion matrix religious crisis communication public relations and advertising televangelism pastoral ministry death and the media online religion future directions in religious communication and more Explores the increasing role of media in creating religious identity and communicating religious experience Discusses the development and evolution of the communication practices of various religious bodies Covers all major media sources including radio television film press digital online content and social media platforms Presents key empirical research real world case studies and illustrative examples throughout Encompasses a variety of perspectives including individual and institutional actors academic and theoretical areas and different forms of communication media Explores media and religion in Judeo Christian traditions Islam Buddhism Hinduism religions of Africa Atheism and others The Handbook of Religion and Communication is an essential resource for scholars academic researchers practical theologians seminarians mass communication researchers and undergraduate and graduate students taking courses on media and religion Folklore, Religion and the Songs of a Bengali Madman Carola Lorea, 2016-08-01 This book explores historical and cultural aspects of modern and contemporary Bengal through the performance centred study of a particular repertoire the songs of the saint composer Bhaba Pagla 1902-1984 who is particularly revered among Baul and Fakir singers The author shows how songs if examined as sacred scriptures represent multi dimensional texts for the study of South Asian religions Revealing how previous studies about Bauls mirror the history of folkloristics in Bengal this book presents sacred songs as a precious symbolic capital for a marginalized community of dislocated and unorthodox Hindus who consider the practice of singing in itself an integral part of the path towards self realization The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion Robert Wuthnow,2013-12-04 Containing over 200 articles from prominent scholars The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion examines ways in which politics and religion have combined to affect social attitudes spark collective action and influence policy over the last two hundred years With a focus that covers broad themes like millenarian movements and pluralism and a scope that takes in religious and political systems throughout the world the Encyclopedia is essential for its contemporary as well as historical coverage Special Features Encompasses religions individuals geographical regions institutions and events Describes the history of relations between religion and politics Longer articles contain brief bibliographies Attractively designed and produced The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion will be invaluable for any library public and academic which serves those interested in politics sociology religious studies international affairs and history Contents include Abortion Algeria Anabaptists China Christian Democracy Ethnic Cleansing Gandhi Israel Italy Jesuits Jihad Just War Missionaries Moral Majority Muslim Brethren Temperance Movements Unification Church War Zionism Christianity, Islam and Nationalism in Indonesia Charles E. Farhadian,2005-11-17 Although over eighty percent of the country is Muslim Indonesia is marked by an extraordinary diversity in language ancestry culture religion and ways of life This book focuses on the Christian Dani of West Papua providing a social and ethnographic history of the most important indigenous population in the troubled province It presents a fascinating overview of the Dani s conversion to Christianity examining the social religious and political uses to which they have put their new religion Based on independent research carried out over many years among the Dani people the book provides an abundance of new material on religious and political events in West Papua Underlining the heart of Christian Muslim rivalries the book questions the fate of religion in late modern times Ethnicity, Borders, and the Grassroots Interface with the State John A. Marston,2014-01-05 Ethnicity Borders and the Grassroots Interface with the State brings together exciting new work by anthropologists working on mainland Southeast Asia The volume honors anthropologist Charles F Keyes and the chapters here address concepts central to Keyes own work ethnicity religion and modernity as they can be applied to the countries of Thailand Vietnam Cambodia and Laos The volume also reflects recent scholarly interest in cross border issues as reflected both in the complexity of identity where ethnic groups extend across boundaries and in increasing cross border mobility The volume is divided into three sections The first The State and Public Ceremony includes chapters on a ceremony of national heritage as celebrated in Vietnam and the United States Shan novice initiation near the border of Myanmar in Thailand and the restoration of the monkhood in Cambodia The second section The Grassroots Negotiation of Modernity contains chapters about the concept of sufficiency in Thai farm production the ways modernity is conceived among the Lahu in Thailand and the complexities of the Thai system of identity cards The final section Crossing Borders of State and Nation focuses on the stateless Lao population in northeastern Thailand Vietnamese migrants to Laos and Western farang men married to northeastern Thai women Contributors to the book include scholars based in Thailand Vietnam the United States Australia and Mexico The book is an invaluable reference for scholars of Southeast Asia and will also appeal to the general reader Highlights Brings together a range of new anthropological research on mainland Southeast Asia Compiled in honor of anthropologist Charles F Keyes and draws on key concepts he developed in his work Includes sections on The State and Public Ceremony The Grassroots Negotiation of Modernity and Crossing Borders of State and Nation Contributors include scholars based in Thailand Vietnam the United States Australia and Mexico

Divinity and Diversity Alexandra Kent, 2007 This book looks closely at the Malaysian following of the contemporary Indian godman Sathya Sai Baba a neo Hindu guru famed for his miracle working The 911 attacks on the United States and subsequent war on terrorism have brought a discussion of transnational religious networks onto centre stage While the Sai Baba movement has no militaristic ideology it may like any other such movement ultimately call into question the sovereignty of the nation state Today then issues of fa
