Asian Peace Security And Governance In The Asia Pacific Region:

Asian Peace Majid Tehranian, 1999 The potential dichotomy between individual security and governance on a wider scale is nowhere more sharply in evidence than in the diverse political countries of the Asia Pacific region This timely volume examines the economic divergences within the region the old style communist dictatorships and new style market communism democratic capitalism authoritarian capitalism and cultural diversity Based on groundbreaking research by internationally renowned specialists the book is essential reading Security and Sustainable Development in Myanmar Helen James, 2006-09-27 Helen James considers security in Myanmar Burma She uses the ideas put forward in the United Nations Development Programme's 1994 report of human as opposed to state and security going on to argue that freedom from want and freedom from fear of the regime are in fact mutually supportive ideas and that the security of the people and the security of the state are in fact in a symbiotic relationship with each other Presenting new and significant information of the security concept of Myanmar Burma James original work considers economic development health education environmental issues the drugs trade human rights minority peoples and political social and economic reforms arguing that improved governance the development of civil society and economic development would both strengthen the state and ensure the security and well being of its citizens Cold War Frontiers in the Asia-Pacific Kimie Hara, 2006-12-13 After World War II many regional conflicts emerged in the Asia Pacific such as the divided Korean peninsula the Cross Taiwan Strait the Northern Territories Southern Kuriles Takeshima Dokdo Senkaku Diaoyu and the Spratly Nansha islands problems These and other disputes such as the Okinawa problem in relation to the US military presence in the region all share an important common foundation in the post war disposition of Japan particularly the 1951 Peace Treaty Signed by forty nine countries in San Francisco this multilateral treaty significantly shaped the post war international order in the region and with its associated security arrangements laid the foundation for the regional Cold War structure the San Francisco System This book examines the history and contemporary implications of the San Francisco System with particular focus on its frontier problems Drawing on extensive archival research and in depth analysis Kimie Hara uncovers key links between the regional problems in the Asia Pacific and their underlying association with Japan and explores the clues for their future resolution within the multilateral context in which they originated Cold War Frontiers in the Asia Pacific will appeal to students and scholars interested in international relations of the Asia Pacific region diplomatic history and Japanese diplomacy Global Nonkilling Leadership Forum Book of Proceedings Glenn D. Paige, 2008 Globalization & Identity Majid Tehranian, B. Jeannie Lum, 2006 In the first decade of the twenty first century globaliza tion and identity have emerged as the most critical challenges to world peace This volume of Peace Policy addresses the overarching question What are the effects of globalization in the areas of culture ethnic diversity religion and citizenship and how does terrorism help groups attain a sense of global identity Part I Citizenship in a Globalizing World reexamines globalization in light of the traditions from which human civilizations have evolved Linda Groff focuses on Samuel R Huntington s thesis that the Cold War would be followed by a clash of civilizations Joseph A Camilleri traces the history of the concept of citizenship and its transformation through the ages to modern times Kamran Mofid argues that the marketplace is not just an economic sphere but one where economic and business interests must embrace the spiritual assets of the community Majid Tehranian raises the problem of identity and advocates the assumption of global identity responsibility and citizenship Part II Convergence in Global Cultures explores the complex issues of diversity in religions Christopher Leeds Vladimir Korobov and Bharapt Gupt show how the reconceptualization of the world both geographically and regionally can recreate new sensibilities needed to overcome differences Part III Divergence in Global Conflicts discusses the multiple dimensions of the globalizing effects of economic expansion and political strife experienced by different cultures at local and regional levels Audrey Kitigawa and Ade Ogunrinade use Nigeria as an example of political manipulation of religious and ethnic groups to divert attention from the real problems of social and economic marginalization Fred Riggs looks at how the Web has become a medium in the globalization of religious movements The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today s interreligious and interfaith organizations can become a force for healing Majid Tehranian is director of the Toda Institute for Global Peace and Policy Research B Jeannie Lum is an associate professor at the University of Hawaii at Mnoa in the Department of Educational Foundations College of Education

globalization of religious movements The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today's Passion for Peace Stuart Rees, 2003 Passion for Peace considers the use of non violence and attaining human rights for all It also raises questions about current issues including peace in the Middle East US unilateralism the war on terrorism powerlessness associated with poverty racism and justice for asylum seekers BOOK JACKET Facing Global Environmental Change Hans Günter Brauch, Navnita Chadha Behera, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, John Grin, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Béchir Chourou, Czeslaw Mesjasz, Heinz Krummenacher, 2009-06-04 The year 2007 could perhaps accurately be described as the year when climate change finally received the attention that this challenge deserves globally Much of the information and knowledge that was created in this field during the year was the result of the findings of the Fourth sessment Report AR4 of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC which were disseminated on a large scale and reported extensively by the media This was the result not only of a heightened interest on the part of the public on various aspects of climate change but also because the IPCC itself proactively attempted to spread the findings of its AR4 to the public at large The interest generated on the scientific realities of climate change was further enhanced by the award of the Nobel Peace Prize to the IPCC and former Vice President of the US Al Gore By taking this decision in favour of a leader who has done a great deal to create awareness on c mate change and a body that assesses all scientific aspects of climate change and disseminates the result of its findings the Norwegian Nobel Committee has clearly drawn the link between climate change and peace in the world Non-Traditional Security Issues and the South China Sea Shicun Wu, Keyuan Zou, 2016-05-23 While there is abundant literature discussing non traditional security issues there is little mention of such issues existing in the South China Sea This area is vulnerable to natural hazards and marine environmental degradation The marine ecosystem is threatened by various adverse sources including land based pollution busy shipping lanes and over exploitation activities which threaten the security of the surrounding population This area is also threatened by piracy and maritime crimes but law enforcement becomes difficult due to unclear maritime boundaries This volume is designed to explore the security cooperation and regional approaches to these non traditional security issues in the hope to build a peaceful environment and maintain international and regional security and order in the South China Sea region

Repertorio Mundial de Instituciones de Investigación Y de Formación Sobre la Paz, 2000 Basic information on more than 580 international institutions which through education and research play an essential role in building a culture of peace UN Peace Operations and Asian Security Mely Cabellero-Anthony, Amitav Acharya, 2005-09-27 This is an unparalleled analysis of the state of the United Nations peace operations and their impact on Asian security This new volume examines new strategies being adopted by the UN including doctrinal shifts in peace operation and assesses the division of labour between the UN regional organisation and non governmental organisations actors Based on selected papers from mostly Asian scholars the book offers regional perspectives from South Southeast and Northeast Asia on the changing nature of UN Peace operations and analyses some of the core issues that are of critical relevance to regional security in Asia. In addition, it reveals interesting new insights on the new players in the area of peace operations, i.e. China and Japan, and considers their projected roles as defined by their respective security concepts. It also delves into issues of possible areas of concern caused by the new activism of these regional powers in peace operations. Finally, the book also revisits the significant lessons learnt from the UN experience in Cambodia and East Timor and examines their impact on future directions of peace operations. This book was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping.

APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, The Security Governance of Regional Organizations Emil J. Kirchner, Roberto Dominguez, 2013-06-17. The Security Governance of Regional Organizations assesses the effectiveness of regional organizations as regional or global security providers and examines how policy preferences, resources, capabilities, institutional mechanisms, and economic and political cohesion link with collective action behaviour in four security policy functions. It investigates how regional organizations meet the new security threats or respond to strategic geopolitical changes and what adaptations they make in the process. Divided into three parts and using a common analytical framework, the book explains the changing security agenda in ten key regional organizations; each organizational chapter identifies the nature of threats within the region, examines the historical development and the degree of institutionalization, assesses the level of governance, explores the context of interaction, investigates the compliance with the norms of the system of governance. This collection contributes to the ongoing reconceptualization of security and definition of security governance and explores whether regional security governance processes are unique or similar and whether some organizational experiences can be seen as models for others to follow. It combines a coherent theoretical framework with strong comparative case studies, making it ideal reading for all students of security studies.

East Asia's Grand Strategies Ramon Pacheco Pardo, Jung H. Pak, 2025-10-01. An in-depth exploration of the strategic dynamics shaping East Asia's future on the world stage. East Asia is the epicenter of twenty-first century geopolitics where military, economic, and diplomatic strategies intersect in complex and often unpredictable ways. As the region becomes increasingly central to global power dynamics, understanding the strategies that drive the actions of powers there is more critical than ever. East Asia's Grand Strategies offers the first comparative analysis of the grand strategies of twelve East Asian powers and reveals how they shape their foreign policies, balancing external pressures with domestic political realities. In this edited volume, experts from the region provide non-Western perspectives and fresh insights into the unique factors influencing each case's grand strategy. The chapters illuminate patterns that are critical for understanding East Asia's role in global politics today. Scholars, students, and policymakers interested in East Asia's international relations and the evolving dynamics of its grand strategy will be interested in this timely analysis of the strategic forces shaping the region and by extension the future of global power

Contested Ideas of Regionalism in Asia Baogang He, 2016-09-13 Deepening regionalism in Asia demands new leadership Strong elites who are committed to a supranational identity are a minimum requirement of successful regionalism Regional leaders are increasingly seen as a new set of leaders in Europe Currently Asian regional leaders largely come from the diplomacy community or trade and economic sectors Yet further regionalization demands a new type of leadership from civil society and citizens In this context it is important to cultivate new regional leadership through the development of regional citizenship This book examines contested ideas of regionalism in Asia with a particular focus on two competing ideas of pan Asianism and Pacificism It also identifies a new trend and contestation the fundamental shift from a civilization understanding of regionalism to a technocratic and functional understanding of regionalism in the form of regulatory regionalism It also examines the other contested imaginations of regionalism in Asia including elitist versus participatory approaches to regionalism and democracy centric versus nationalism centric approaches to regionalism ASEAN and Regional Security Patrick M. Cronin, Emily T. Metzgar, 1996 The Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN contributes to U S political economic and security interests in the Asia Pacific region As Asia s power increases relative to other regions of the world the U S stake in ASEAN s continued success grows Yet U S engagement in the region relative to its activity in Northeast Asia remains limited Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission, 2016 Banking on Knowledge Diane Stone, 2000 This book is one of the first studies of how the World Bank is reinventing itself as the knowledge bank
