Asian Prime Ministers Story:

An Asian Prime Minister's Story Sir John Lionel Kotelawala, 1956 SCOTT Copy 1 From the John Holmes Library Collection

An Asian Prime Minister's Story John Lionel Kotelawala (prime minister of Ceylon), 1956 A History of East Asia

Charles Holcombe, 2011 This book traces the story of East Asia from the dawn of history to the present History of the British Empire from Asian Perspectives Shigeru Akita, 2025-03-07 This book presents the history of the British Empire as the Bridge for creating a Global History especially emphasizing its connections with Asian regions The United Kingdom ruled most of the world in the nineteenth century Its influence spread around the globe in various forms in the white settlements such as those in Canada Australia and New Zealand Dominions in Asian and African regions represented by present day India in colonies acquired by military force Dependencies and in other regions under its economic influence through trade and investment the informal empire Thus the British Empire played a key role in nineteenth century globalization There are many books on the British Empire in English However no books from Asian perspectives have interpreted it as the means used by Asian countries for their own economic development and as providers of international public goods Along with the East Asian economic resurgence the weight of the global system and the world economy has now largely shifted from the Atlantic world to the Asia Pacific region encompassing India as well as the Pacific coast of the United States The global depression in 2008 accelerated this trend We now face the task of building a new interpretation of world history with a clearer understanding of this upheaval Redrawing world history is not an easy task but a good starting point would be to analyze the mutual relationship between the British Empire and the Asian regions and this can be done by interpreting the historical significance of the British Empire An Asian Prime Minister's Story John Kotelawala, 1956 The Diplomatic Ideas and Practices of Asian States, 2021-11-22 Asia has emerged as the centre of international conflict and change in the post war era In Europe the post cold war approach is to adjust East West power relationships without disturbing the territorial status quo and to conduct foreign policy according to classical European principles of compromise and compensation Asians are newcomers in world affairs Asian diplomatic traditions differ from European ones and there are many border disputes and power rivalries The idea of Asia was created by Europeans for Europeans and it led to Western dominance of Asia From colonial subjects Asians have become important players in military economic and diplomatic affairs To understand the Asian dimension of contemporary world affairs we need to take a fresh look at Asian diplomatic ideas and practices This volume brings together recognised experts to explain the imperatives and external policies of different types of Asian states

Modern East Asia: An Introductory History John H Miller,2014-12-18 Written with rare mastery and a sure sense of the essential this concise general history of modern East Asia offers students and general readers an understanding of this dynamic region from a global perspective It is the ideal introductory text for college survey courses in Asian and international studies Following an introductory discussion of the regional concept the first two chapters lay the foundations Chapter 1 describes East Asia s geographical human cultural economic social and political setting as it has evolved over the past several millennia and the three major belief systems Confucianism Buddhism and Islam Chapter 2 presents a panoramic view of the region ca 1800 The chapter introduces the dramatis personae the Chinese Japanese Koreans Vietnamese Thai Burmese Indonesians Filipinos and others and describes their interactions with each other and with Imperial China The following three chapters deal with European expansionism and East Asians responses to the civilizational challenge the stirrings of nationalism in reaction to European colonial rule and the remarkable rise of Imperial Japan Chapters 6 and 7 trace Japan s bid to lead a pan Asianist revolt against the twin threats of Western liberalism and Soviet communism and the ensuing Pacific War Chapters 8 and 9 span the cold war era from postwar U S hopes for a Pax Americana to the division of East Asia into communist and anti communist blocs The Sino Soviet split and the Sino American rapprochement of the early 1970s open the way to the East Asian miracle and a resurgence of East Asian regionalism surveyed in Chapter 10 A concluding chapter considers the prospects for continued economic dynamism and the balance of nationalism and pan Asian trends in shaping the future

Permanent Racism Paul Warmington,2024-01-18 This book examines and challenges the marginalisation of critical race analysis in debates on social justice which have been constrained by a facile post racialism Highlighting the need to decolonise public debate and antiracism itself it provides an essential resource for academics students and activists

History Education and National Identity in East Asia Edward Vickers,2013-09-13 Visions of the past are crucial to the way that any community imagines itself and constructs its identity This edited volume contains the first significant studies of the politics of history education in East Asian societies

The International History of East Asia, 1900-1968 Antony Best,2009-12-18 Constituting an impressive account of key themes in the international history of East Asia from 1900 to 1968 this book is an important contribution to the interpretive study of this crucial period of history It offers economic political and strategic perspectives and with a particular focus on Anglo Japanese relations

History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin,Daniel C. Snider,2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia An Asian Prime Minister's story John Kotelawala,1956

Chronology of Twentieth-Century History:

Business and Commerce Frank N. Magill, 2014-04-23 First Published in 2004 Volume II provides the hard facts and the history behind the headlines significant 20th century events in the evolution of all aspects of business and commerce are described in chronologically arranged articles The text of each article is divided into two sections Summary of the Event describes the event itself and the circumstances leading up to it and Impact of the Event analyzes the influence of the event on the evolution of business practice or on a major industry in both the short and long terms Each article concludes with a fully annotated Bibliography

The Non-Aligned Movement: Genesis, Organization and Politics (1927-1992) Jürgen Dinkel, 2018-11-26 The Non Aligned Movement had an important impact on the history of decolonization South South cooperation the Global Cold War and the North South conflict During the 20th century nearly all Asian African and Latin American countries joined the movement to make their voice heard in global politics In The Non Aligned Movement Jürgen Dinkel examines for the first time the history of the NAM since the interwar period as a special reaction of the Global South to changing global orders The study shows breaks and caesurae as well as continuities in the history of globalization and analyses the history of international relations from a non western perspective For this book empirical research was undertaken in Germany Great Britain Indonesia Russia Serbia and the United States

Nehru's Bandung

Andrea Benvenuti, 2024-05-31 This book sheds light on a neglected aspect of India s Cold War diplomacy starting with the role of

Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and his Congress government in organising the first Asian African Conference in Bandung in April 1955 Andrea Benvenuti shows how in the early Cold War Nehru seized the opportunity accorded by the conference to transcend growing international tensions and pursue an alternative vision a neutralised Asian area of peace underpinned by a code of conduct based on the five principles of peaceful coexistence Relying on Indian Western and Chinese archival sources Nehru s Bandung focuses on the policy concerns and calculations as well as the international factors that drove a sceptical Nehru to support Indonesia s diplomatic push for such a gathering It reveals how in Nehru s estimation Bandung also served a further important purpose securing China s commitment to peaceful coexistence without which stability in Asia would be illusory Nehru s support for an Asian African conference did not derive from an emotional commitment to Afro Asian internationalism Instead it stemmed from a desire to promote a third way in an increasingly polarised world and to forge a stable regional order one that would enhance India s external security and domestic prosperity
